

EDIT ORIAL

At 3:00 p.m. Wed.aft-ernoon I was going to write how there weren't any people running for Council positions. Now at 8:00 p.m. I find that there are too many because I don't have enough room to write the blasted thing!

However, I don't really mind. Best of luck to the Arts reps below and the rest of the candidates.

Letters & Opinions

Dear Editor;

I would like to express my thanks and congratulations to Betty Brown and Sharon Timmins, Carnival 79 chairpersons, for providing one of the finest carnival weeks to be held at U.P.E.I. in many years.

I, as well as many of my friends, participated in, and enjoyed, all of the events (wet as well as dry) from the start at Monday's pub to the close at Campus Cabaret on Sunday. Once again, thank you Betty and Sharon for all the work you must have done in planning and organizing Carnival Week 79!

Dear Editor,

On Friday, Feb. 2, I packed my suitcase, grabbed my guitar and took off. Where to? The ACT Weekend of course. It was the first time I participated in one since I began at UPEI in Sept. '77. I was a bit nervous at first because I wasn't sure how many people I would know. That feeling sure passed however, because every few minutes I was meeting a new face.

The weekend was very relaxing for me since I tried hard to forget about papers, etc. The music provided by the music team was very enjoyable and greatly appreciated.

Throughout the weekend a number of talks were given, providing for many interesting discussions. Each talk was the obvious result of much thought and preparation.

The weekend above all, gave me a rare opportunity to relax with other young Christians. We exchanged and discussed many ideas and topics of common interest. The friendships that I made mean a great deal to me and I hope they will prove to be long-lasting. I got a great deal out of the weekend. It was extremely rewarding

Dear Editor:

Please tell me why there were no phone numbers in the directory. Is there anything that the students can do so that phone numbers will be published in the future? Other students I have talked to do not mind their numbers being published. Is this withholding of phone numbers serving the majority or minority? Was not last year's attempt at publishing all phone numbers, except those who requested theirs to be withheld, successful?

Sincerely yours,
L.P.

Dear L.P.:

Last May when I took over as Communications Officer for the UPEI Student Union, I was told that the past C.O. had passed out forms to all students wanting to know what clubs or groups they wanted to join on their return in the fall. Also included was their name, address, telephone number, etc.

However, I did not want to know what clubs they were interested in and felt I would have no use for the forms and as a result did not mail them out.

It wasn't until late August that I realized that some of the information had been used in the Student Directory - telephone numbers included. By this time it was too late to send out forms and the Registrar's Office does not publish telephone numbers of the students.

I decided, however, to publish the Directory anyway providing it did not cost the Student Union money. I felt that it is used mostly in the summer and with home addresses printed it would not prove too difficult for people to obtain a telephone number if they wished.

I apologize for the lack of the telephone numbers but hope the directory will be of some use to students over the summer.

Sincerely,
Maria Driscoll
