

Session IV. Following the Furrow

- 9:00 a.m. - Nature and the farm - Children's Presentations.
- 9:30 a.m. - Wildlife and recent agricultural practices - Betty Howatt
- 10:00 a.m. - The dynamic weed flora of Prince Edward Island - Bruce MacLaren
- 11:00 a.m. - Shellfish, sewage and siltation - Roy Drinnan
- 11:30 a.m. - Waterfowl and Agriculture - Al Smith

Session V. Energy, Preservation and the Citizen

- 1:30 p.m. - Shorebirds, sediments and tidal power - Peter Hicklin
- 2:00 p.m. - Windmills - a practical energy source? - John Ramsay
- 3:00 p.m. - Marine Reserves; why and how - Hal Mills
- 3:30 p.m. - Restoration of Acadian forest of Prince Edward Island - Steve Manley
- 4:30 p.m. - Nova Scotia citizens challenge spruce budworm spraying - Elizabeth May
- 5:00 p.m. - Individuals, local groups and CNF; involvement in environmental issues - Ian McLaren

Evening Banquet - Lobster supper, New Glasgow

Banquet Speaker - Rev. Dr. F. Bolger

Complimentary early morning bird-watching field trips will be offered on August 18 and 19.

Field Trips

New Brunswick Field Trips (Preconference)

- August 13 - St. Andrews, By-the-Sea
- August 14 - Deer Island
- August 15 - New River Beach to Fundy Park
- August 16 - Fundy National Park - Shepody Bay
 - Miramichi Bay - Kouchibouguac National Park
 - Tantramar Marshes, Cape Jourimain
- August 17 - Tantramar Marshes, Cape Jourimain

Prince Edward Island Field Trips

- August 17 - Hiking the Bonshaw Hills
 - Lobstering on the South Shore
 - Basin Head via the Ark
- August 20 - Blooming Point
 - Nature Photography
 - "Up West" - two day trip to the Western end of the Province
 - "Under Water Delight" - Scuba and Snorkel Dive
 - Dalvay Pond - children's trip
 - Canoeing Winter River
- August 21 - Blooming Point
 - Cod and Mackerel Fishing
 - The Edible Wild at Cavendish
 - Lobstering on the South Shore