Walsh Scores On Last Shot

Manitoba Shades Ontario To Win Curling Ch'ship

By GERRY MARTIN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONCTON (CP)—Manitoba, the almost perennial winner of the Canadian curling championships since their inception in 1927, Friday night won the title for the 15th time with a thrilling extra-end 8-7 playoff victory over Ontario.

It was the second Canadian crown fo skip Billy Walsh of the Winnipeg Fort Rouge Club on his second challenge in four years for the Macdonald's Brier trophy. He won the title in 1952 in 10 straight but this time he finished the 11-round championship with eight victories and two defeats.

Ontario, skipped by Alfie Phillips of Toronto, one-time Canada diving champion, also finished with an 8-2 record after an uphill 15-9 victory over Nova Scotia in the final round. It was a typical finish for the 46-year-old Granite Club curler who scored eight in the last two ends to force a playoff.

PLAYED MIXED STYLE

That set the stage for Friday night's game and it was bitterly fought throughout. Manitoba led 7-5 after 11 ends but Phillips scored two in the 12th to send the game into extra end for the first time in the 27-year history of the championship.

Walsh brought the crowd of about 3,000 screaming to its feet on the extra end with his last draw shot that curled neatly around two guards and hit an Ontario stone on the white circle.

The two skips played a mixed knockout and draw style of game.

End after end the front half of both rinks played knockout and the skips turned to the tantilizing draw.

Only once were there more than five rocks in the house at the completion of an end. On the ninth Ontario made one in a six-rock house.

Manitoba won seven ends, Ontario five, and the first end was blanked.

Excitement of the five-day competition reached its peak Friday afternoon when a Manitoba loss coupled with an Ontario win, was required to force a playoff. And that's exactly what happened.

Manitoba was upset 12-0 by Saskatchewan and an hour later Ontario came up with its come-from-behind triumph. The Ontario rink scored a whopping 11th-end five and finished with a three to force the playoff

The last-ditch Ontario victory came over the Truro, N.S. rink skipped by RCMP Sgt. Gerry Glinz a four-time campaigner who upset Manitoba 14-5 in the ninth round on Thursday.

Nova Scotia's downfall came about when Glinz, a four-time campaigner in the championships, miscued on both his stones in the 11th. Ontario had three in the house when his shot struck a guard and rolled off. Phillips put No. 4 in the house and Glinz was heavy on his last rock. The Ontario skip placed No. 5—and that was the game.

SASKATCHEWAN THIRD

Saskatchewan's victory gave the Jimmy Hill rink from Delisle third position with seven wins and three losses. Nova Scotia finished fourth with a 6-4 record.

Alberta, victorious 14-8 over New Brunswick, and Quebec, winner 9-7 over northern Ontario, ended in a fifth-place tie with an even split—five wins and five losses.

Northern Ontario, British Columbia and Prince Edward Island followed with 4-6 records. The Charlottetown rink, skipped by Dr. Wendell MacDonald, edged B.C. 10-9 in the final round. This was Dr. MacDonald's third successive challenge for the trophy.

New Brunswick ended in 10th position and Newfoundland, which drew a last-round bye, occupied the cellar position with only one win in its 10 starts.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

From far away Merced, California, we have a letter from our friend Walter S. Found, formerly of New London. Older residents of that vicinity will remember that back in the 1920's Walter was the most active man in that district promoting ice racing and other harness racing contests. When he made a stake in California he started breeding horses on a small scale but picked his brood mares very carefully with the result that he has bred two-minute pacers and is looked on as a man who is well informed in harness horse lore. We are glad to have a letter from him giving particulars of the happenings in his country.

"In the Down the Back Stretch of February 4 you mentioned that live racing news was scarce and you had to dig into the archives and memory for copy. Northern California's wettest winter in several decades put winter training out of action for the soil at Stockton, where we have trained for 25 years, is known as 'dobem a heavy, clinging brown, which anchors locomotion. Since February the weather is fine, bright and mild, in the 60's, but our stable will only be half ready for Santa Anita opening on March 13. As usual, Del Mar was fine except a few days the last of January, and the aged stock there has been double heading around 2.10.

"I have Hawk 2.01 1-5, Patrick Primrose 2.02 2-5, Mistatement's Missy 2.06 1-5, V.I.P. 2.08 and Wish Again, a 3-year-old. If they are sound at the close of Santa Anita, will ship East from there. Two of the above are out of my broodmare Waruma F. 2.01 1-5, the fastest descendant of Electioneer, according to the standardbred Horse Review. She produced Prudent Found 2.06 1-5, trotter, before she went to the races (World War II period). I think only one other, Lady Maud 2.00½ has a like record.

"Incidentally, Waruma's dam, Jovita Logan by Jim Logan, dam Kitty Ballairs by Monbells, produced for me Trulo F. 2.05 1-5, (photoed in 2.02) in 1939, Waruma F. 1940, and Swindle Sheet 2.02 2-5, 1941, all trained and raced to their records by my friend the Mormon Bishop, Clarence Hansen. My other foundation broodmore was Junie T. by Pete.'s Express, dam Clement's Maid by Dexter Express, and to the cover of Truabbe by Truax, she produced Ruth F. 2.05 3-5, the dam of Hawk and Imprudent 2.02 2-5, her only offspring raced. We have a full brother to Imp, a 3-year-old and a full sister 2, just started education wise, and a yearling full brother to Hawk. These are future prospects.

EARLY EVENTS

"But this is not what I had in mind when I thought of writing — it was to browse on the old days and while I am fully aware of the 'old man' label, and 'living in the past' brand, the old times and old friends mean much to me and it is a relief in these hectic todays of atoms, re-actors and crazy dollars, to view the tranquil days of 40 years ago. We must have been very young then, for in cleaning out some cubby holes I found clippings of early racing events, the oldest 1908 i. Chicago when I raced Prince Boaz.

"I am quite sure my heirs or assigns would find nothing of value and little of interest in these recordings; also, one of the surest ways to lose your current friendly acquaintances is trying to interest or impress them with what you used to do. The only thing of value is that they are the record and the record stands, proof we were there. Being quite realistic and knowing the great are soon forgotten in the limbo of the past, and since I was never more than 'small fry,' while I have quite an album of horse doings, nothing has been added in late years because racing has become so commercialized that the sporting side is almost forgotten.

"Among the items I found in my cleaning out was the enclosed program, New London Ice Racing Club, February 16, 1916, much scratched and written in because of changes the day of racing, and there was no over-night printing facility in that period and nearly 20 miles by buggy or sleigh from the closest printing press. I am reasonably safe in stating it is the only one in existence — a delux edition, the official one from which the secretary had to report.

FALL WITH EASE

"You mentioned Vesta Boy and Dan Steele in your column and you note Dan had Sister Patch in the FFA pace that day, and a real tough mare she was. I have had pleasant visits with Dan at Foxboro, Mass. the past three years. He's doing a good job of growing old gracefully, is razor sharp, but a little plump. Queen Catherine with Gavin Harding up was second. Gavin has answered roll call. Moth Miller with Ham Kelly steering raced well. If I recall, he was the horse that could fall down with ease. What a grand gentleman Hammond was and helpful to the junior horsemen. On Wilkes was scratched so Tyndall Semple just looked on. I saw him two years ago and he looks like a paid-up member in the 'Club of men that Time forgot.' I am sure you are well acquainted with all the names, both horses and men, on the program.

"We all have days in business operations and or in sports that are highlights. I have been there, or thereabouts, in races for decent purses in relatively fast time, but I think the day's racing at Alberton (I think it was the first held on Harry O'Brien's track) stands out over all. Vesta Boy second with Dan Steele, Mayor Todd the winner H. Kelly, O'Flanagin, J.W. Bradley third. Vesta winning the second heat in 2.21, Mayor Todd wrapping it up in 2.20½ (FFA Trot). The 2.30 Pace at ½ mile heats was won by Queensborough (Bradley), Derby (Conroy) second, Queen Catherine (Harding) third, best time 1.07½ by Derby. The 2.40 Trot, Keltie (Found) was 1-1-2-1 in 2.32, 2.32½, 2.29¼, 2.29½. Brazilian Jr. (Milman) 3-3-1-2, Jellicoe (Kelly) 4-2-3-4, Queen Alto (Conroy 2-4-4-3.

"This was Keltie's frist race other than on the ice and he didn't know Gee from Haw on the twice-around turf, especially on the turns. We locked wheels with Conroy the third heat. Scoring on this heat Mam said 'If you can win this one, I think I can get second money,' but Jimmy Milman turned on and as Johnny and I lost considerable distance getting clear, and while Keltie trotted a last quarter in :35 we couldn't land on top.

THE GREEN

"The morning of the race I couldn't find my driving cap so went to town to the general store and made a purchase. Trying it on when I got back, I noticed it had a green satin lining, turned it inside out and asked the bystanders if it would do. Johnny said 'With wearing of the green you'll have good luck.' I did, and also contributed to his bad luck, although he hadn't enough horse to have won. Sorry to clutter your time with these meanderings. Been working at the little two-bit ranch all afternoon and had to discard jacket. Going to Stockton in the morning to find how things progress. California, even with a few floods and earthquakes, has some advantages!"

Milton-Albany Resume Finals Series Tonight

The Milton Hornets and the Albany St. Pats swing back into action in their hard-fought, closely-contested finals series for the Island Intermediate "B" title tonight at North River rink.

The St. Pats went one game up earlier this week by taking the measure of the Hornets 6-4 in a fast game played at North River. But the Hornets buzzed back Thursday night to flatten the St. Pats 7-3 at Bedeque and even up the series at one-all.

This is a big game tonight for the winner will need only one more victory to wrap up the title while the team that comes out on the short end of the score will be faced with the prospect of having to win two in a row.

The biggest crowd of the year turned up at North River to watch the opener and it is expected that even a larger crowd will be on hand tonight.

HUNTERS' CORNER

So many questions have been put to me recently by fishermen about the Seal River Monster. . . for instance: "Was it real or imaginary". . .that I might as well answer it. It had its lair every season under Seal River Bridge (Kings County) and for three or four years furnished anglers with some brief sport and a thrill that lasted indefinitely. It was a very accomodating fish. It almost seemed as if he made a game of playing 'tag' with hopeful Isaac Walton's. . .he'd always come back for more.

It is the consensus of opinion that the trout was a Steelhead. . . a Rainbow trout that had gone to sea. . .and weighed in the vicinity of 15 lbs. An angler of repute, who has landed more than one trout in the four and one-half and five lb. class, had a good look at this trout on several occasions and estimated it would weigh 15 lbs. minimum. He eventually met his fate via the wire necklace route. I place it in the 'him' category by descriptions furnished. Male trout have a prominent under slung jaw and are not built along such symetrical lines as the females.

PARTICULARS

I managed to learn the particulars a year after the monster's demise. It seems the two culprits had no luck in trying to slip the noose over his head and worked out another angle. They observed after the trout was disturbed it usually followed a certain course and it swam into the noose of his own free will. I was told that in the first wild lunge he came close to pulling the culprits off the bridge into the water. If he weighed 15 lbs. it could have happened. There's a powerful drive in the tail of a fish that size. To this columnist's way of thinking it was just too bad it didn't happen. . .a good ducking was what they needed.

There are some hefty Steelheads

Sponsored by the Toronto Anglers' and Hunters' Association, the show offers everything for the sportsman—cars, boats, guns and fishing rods, cabins and tents, clothes and cooking utensils.

A one-hour stage and water revue is presented twice daily. Here, among other things, sportsmen can see how to cast with Aunalec Crusey of Sydney, Ohio, billed as world champion caster, and instructor. Claim For Damages Brought Against 7 Capitals' Players

FREDERICTON (CP)—A claim for $3,500 damages has been brought against seven members of the Fredericton Capital Hockey Club for alleged breach of contract.

The writ of summons was served here Thursday on three players as they were about to board a taxi to take them to the train depot where they were to depart for their homes.

A fourth player, a student at the University of New Brunswick here, was served at his home. Three others left the city before they could be served.

Served were playing coach Hughie Campbell, Lawrence Blackburn, William McDonagh and Robert Legere.

Also named in the action were Roy Whitlock, Joseph Lepine and Bernie McDonald.

REFUSED TO PLAY

The action for damages follows on the heels of the refusal of the pucksters to play in Saint John Wednesday night and has claimed by Charles Scott, Daniel Murphy and Walter E. Bolton and representatives of the Fredericton club

The club, a member of the Atlantic Coast Senior Hockey League is charging the players jointly and severly for damages to the amount of $3,500, plus general damages in the discretion of the court for breach of contract of services.

The writ specifically claims that the defendants refused to play hockey in Saint John on March 7, contrary to contract.

"The irresponsible action of these players cost us at least $3,500 and placed the club severely in the red," president Scott maintained. He estimated the total loss of the season's operations at $5,000.

Committee Urges More Money For Amateur Sport

TORONTO (CP)—A committee on government commissions urged the Ontario government Friday to spend more money for amateur sport.

In the government's current $400,000,000 budget, only $10,000 was allocated for sports equipment the committee was told.

The committee adopted a resolution saying: "We in Ontario are not proud of the way our amateur athletes show in international meets. It hurts our pride to see them beaten all the time."

More funds should be made available to athletic commissioner L. M. Mackenzie, to encourage amateur sport, the committee said.

John Landy Made Favorite To Run Mile Under Four

MELBOURNE (AP) — Thousands of Australian punters (bettors) have made John Landy a 2-1 favorite to win the Australian championship mile today in under four minutes.

So many have supported him in unofficial betting on the race that many bookmakers will only bet on his chances of bettering the 3:58 world record he now holds.

They are prepared to offer 5-1 against his chances of running the distance in 3:57 and 10-1 against him clocking 3:55.

Landy himself said he hoped to "turn on a 'sizzler.'"

This evening at 6.00 p.m. instead of the Juvenile game previously scheduled, Juvenile Abbies will play Junior Abbies in an exhibition tussle slated to condition both teams for the playdown trial. Coaches of both teams request all players be dressed and ready to take to the ice promptly at six.

Stars Of Thursday's Game

Two of the top forwards in the league the above centermen Brian Lewis (left) of the B.Y.C. and chunky Willie Dunn of Parkdale each turned in outstanding performances for their clubs in Thursday's semi-final clash won by the youth club 6-3. Lewis shot four goals in pacing his team's victory and Dunn set up all three of Parkdale's goals and played a great game throughout.
