FOR YOUNG MEN.—Mr. Raymond, the Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has just published a neat little prospectus containing a programme of events for the coming year of Association work. The matter in the prospectus is well put together, and the book is small and easy to carry in the "vest pocket."

CHRYSANTHEMUMS.—That Mr. G. H. Hazard thoroughly understands how to grow beautiful flowers is a well known fact. A peep at the chrysanthemums now on show at the store of that useful success has attended him in the culture of the royal flower of Japan. The plants are well worth seeing.

FOR BARBADOS.—The schooner Neva, E. Taylor, master, cleared today for Barbados with the following cargo: 2600 sacks of oats containing 100 bushels, valued at $4000, shipped by Carvell Bros.; 25 horses, shipped by George Toombs, and valued at $2000; and 6 dozen live geese, valued at $25, also shipped by Mr. Coombe—all for Barbados.

SALVATION ARMY BARRACKS.—The new Salvation Army barracks at Halifax was formally opened on Thursday 1st, by Capt. Nellie Banks (now Mrs. Maltby), who introduced the army into Halifax. The new building stands on the site of what was for half a century a liquor shop frequented by soldiers and sailors, and in which a horrible murder was committed some years ago.

THEY VISITED THE ISLAND.—The Sackville correspondent of the St. John Sun says: Dr. Allison has been absent for several days on a trip to P. E. Island in connection with the Educational society. A week before Dr. Borden was in another part of the island and as a result of his trip drives a fine colt, which gives promise of developing a speed which may prove tempting even to a doctor of divinity.

A SROAT COURTESHIP.—A young girl named Annie Middlebrooks, living at Waterville, Ga., had a very bad toothache one day last week, and got her hired man to drive her to Greensboro, where they found a dentist bearing the classic name of Boggs. He pulled two of her teeth and fell in love. Next day he went to see her, and in forty-eight hours from the time the toothache disappeared the two were made one.

HE STARTED HIS CHILDREN.—A London despatch says: In the Gainesboro court a few days ago, Daniel Edward Friednick Sykes, at one time councillor of the town of Hattersfield and now proprietor of the Northern Pioneer, was sentenced to two months imprisonment at hard labor for starving his two children. It was shown in the court that the children had been kept three days without food and were obliged to eat cabbage leaves which they had collected to feed their rabbits. The children were in court.

CARD OF THANKS.—On behalf of the Free Masons of Charlottetown, we most respectfully thank the ladies and gentlemen composing the Charlottetown Amateur Dramatic Club, for the two magnificent performances in connection with the opening of the Masonic Temple Opera House, and also all others who by their kind assistance contributed to make the opening such a grand success.

F. H. BEEB, Chairman of Committee. B. McLEAN, Secretary.

A NEW SCHEME.—A young man named Milton Wortley, living at Westbrook, Me., a few days ago tried a new scheme to get a girl to marry him, according to a late despatch from that place. It appears that he fell in love with Laura Dana, daughter of Hon. Woodberry Kane Dana, a wealthy mill owner. Wortley enticed Miss Dana into the basement of a shoe factory which had been closed up. At the point of his pistol he held her there, asking her to marry him. She saw that love had crazed his brain, and finally consented. He left the island while she was arrested.

HE IS KNOWN HERE.—The last issue of the Weekly Journalist, published at Boston, contains a full sketch of the Hon. Patrick Maguire, editor and proprietor of the Republic, and a prominent politician at the "Hub." Mr. Maguire was born in the County Monaghan, Ireland, on December 5th, 1828, and came to America while yet a child. His youth from the age of seven years was passed at Charlottetown where he learned the art of printing in the Gazette office. He left the island in 1852, and worked at his trade in the Post composing room until 1865, when he embarked in the real estate business. In 1867 Mr. Maguire established the Republic, a paper which is well-known throughout this province, and the venture proved a great success.
