

Thursday was the Halloween Party for the Psych Club. Everyone had a great time! An unexpected guest showed up, some sexy bombshell! She really should have shaved the legs and the mustache! Two bums who live behind K-Mart were there, who let them in?! I thought it was a private party! A very good time was had by all.

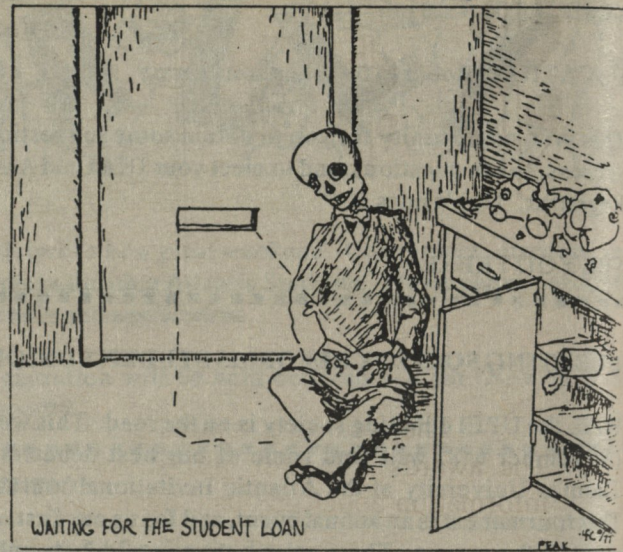

Don't forget Nov. 5 is the Psych Club Pub. It's a wet/dry event with Hype Syndicate. So grab your wallets and purses and head to upstairs at the Barn!!

Some upcoming events are:

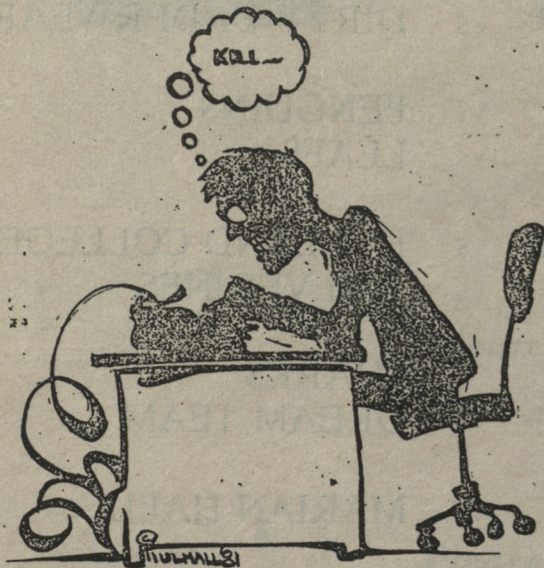

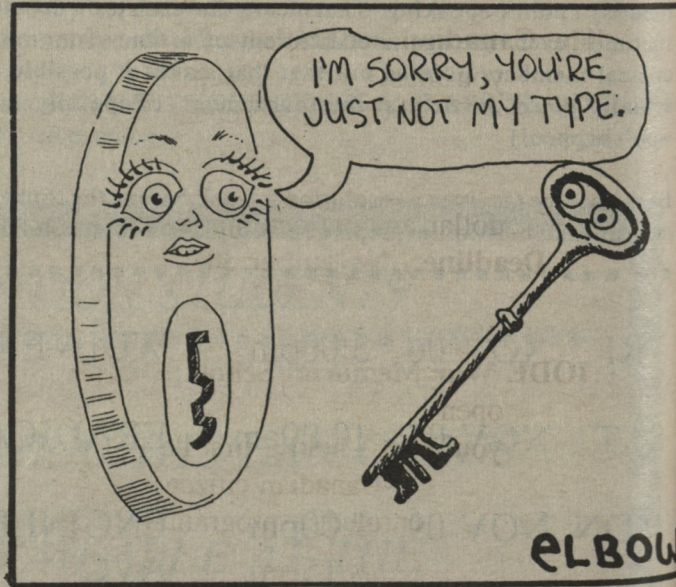

Nov. 13 Beth Percival will be giving a presentation on what is required for honours in Psychology.

Nov. 20 Graduate information day. An information day about what to do after graduation.

Also on Friday, Nov. 6 is our first volleyball game against the Biology Club. Good luck guys and gals, you are going to need it.
