SIR CHARLES TUPPER'S POL- ICY.

CANADIAN PROGRESS ON EMPIRE LINES.

"Our policy is the policy that in 1879 we put upon the statute book, a policy declaring that we would afford fitting protection to every Canadian industry, and to Canadian labour. (Applause.) We stand by that policy today, in all its integrity, as we stood by it then.

"We consider it was bounden duty of men charged with the administration of public affairs in Canada to look above all at that which will make our country great and prosperous, and to steadily carry it out in a way that will achieve for the country that which this policy has done in the past. (Applause.)

"We are ready to give fair and square terms of mutual preference to England, as a means of binding this empire together, and uniting its outlying portions to the Mother Land, as nothing else can do; but standing in the position of the Government of the country, charged with the important duty of protecting that which is the very foundation of a country's greatness, the labour of the country, I say that we are bound to protect it, and to furnish means for carrying out and developing the great industries of Canada.

"When people talk to me of what Sir Wilfrid Laurier's preferential trade has done to obtain the favor of England, I say that jin one hour, when this Government was compelled to discharge its duty in sending a contingent to South Africa, more was done for the unity of the Empire and to raise Canada in the estimation not only of the Empire but of the civilized world, than in any amount of Sir Wilfrid's Laurier's preferential trade.

"I say that I shall take up this question and negotiate a mutual preference that will promote the progress and development of Canada, and at the same time strengthen the ties that bind the colonies to the great centre of the Empire.

"But I do not hesitate to say that we are not willing to take the bread out of the mouths of our own children to feed those of any other country in the world." (Great cheering.)—Sir Charles Tupper at Montreal.

THE EXILES.

London Spectator.

This poem by Perceval Gibbon was written while the author was a prisoner of war at Pretoria and first appeared in the manuscript paper circulated among the prisoners:

Watch the south-bound swallows go!
 What manner of folk are they?
 Out of the sky they came to you, Guests of the summer's day—Born in your sheltering thatch, and bred

 A fortnight's flight away.
 But when your days are warm and bright,
 And God shall lend them weather, Their schooled battalions take their flight
 A thousand wings together.
 Each year the native-born come back To flock with their own feather.

So, mother country, of thy sons A many men there be Whose lot hath cast them all abroad, Whose hearts have stayed with thee, Who yield thee praise from the skirts of the earth,
 And the fringe of the nether sea.

England, behold! our arms are strong,
 Our shoulders broad to bear;
 All that the gentiles cast on thee Our birthright 'tis to share,
 And when the legions face the field
 The exiles will be there!

From every continent and sea
 Our fancies homeward fly; Grant, though we sojourned long abroad,
 We all come home to die,
 Each, like a native English man,
 In English earth to lie!

A WRONG IDEA OF... DYSPEPSIA

Throws all the Blame on the Stomach—The Real Seat of Trouble is the Intestines—
 The Permanent Cure is Dr.
 Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is an old idea long since exploded that digestion is confined to the stomach. No modern scientist denies that by far the greater part of digestion and the more difficult part takes place in the intestines. This explains why dyspepsia is never really cured by preparations which merely aid stomach digestion and act only on the stomach.

This fact also explains why Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have been so remarkably successful as a cure for the worst forms of dyspepsia and indigestion.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act directly on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and give new tone and vigor to the intestines, and make them able to perform their work of digesting the substances on which the stomach has no effect.

Stomach treatment may do well enough for slight indigestion, but if you have chronic indigestion or dyspepsia of a serious nature you can profit by the experience of scores of thousands who have been permanently cured by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose, six a box, at all dealers, or
