How young those ankles make her look!

"YOU'D be surprised, Molly, if you knew I was responsible for that! When she first arrived, she asked me to tell her what were the best stockings she could buy.

"Of course, I said Mercury—I've worn them for years—and I told her about them being seamless with a wide top and full fashioned calf. She asked how they fitted around the ankle—I just raised my foot to show her, and that was enough! And you know yourself how well they wear.

"So she went right down town and bought Mercury—now she's got as trim an ankle as I ever saw."

Catarrh Of The Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How To Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bisurated Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucous from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bisurated magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bisurated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bisurated Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bisurated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milks, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure bisurated form (powder or tablets,) especially prepared for this purpose.

Unusual Will Recently Filed

TORONTO, Oct. 4.—Probate has been granted to one of the most unusual wills ever filed at the Surrogate court for the county of York.

"Had I been rich, I would have left her an income for life," said Private Clifford Frederick Norton, of his sweetheart, Miss Jessie Youngsman, of Lowestoft, Eng., in his will. "She has been a splendid true and loving girl, and in event of my not marrying her for reasons I know not of, I hope she will find a good and true man and one that will treat her with every kindness and let's hope she will be happy for life."

Clifford Frederick Norton was a young English immigrant to Canada who purchased a city building lot, some farm lands near Severn Bridge, and lots near Welland and Windsor, Ont. His real estate in Ontario is appraised at $1,625 and he had assets in England valued at $1,453.

He died while on active service at Kilwa Kwingi on Oct. 24, 1917. His will was made at 10 p. m. on Nov. 16, 1916. His will opens with a prayer a page in length, in which he thanks his Creator for his life and confesses that he has made many errors. He expresses gratitude for a good father and mother. On many occasions his prayers have been answered instantly, he says, and he is profoundly grateful for his health and a hundred other things of which he could think.

If he should die in London, or in England, he directs that he be buried with full military honors. He desires that his grave he lined with brick with a bottom of gravel and a coffin made of good old English oak." He wishes to be interred while clothed in full dress "as they are in Canada or America." If he should be drowned while at sea or in a river, a reward of £10 is to be paid to the person who recovers his body.

"Doug" and "Mary" Are Now in France

PARIS, Oct. 4.—There was another charge at the gates of Gare St. Lazare today when Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford arrived from New York this time to spend a year, first at rest, later hard at work making pictures amid French scenes with French actors in support.

Several hundred men and women, many of them movie fans, others here as correspondents or agents, swept railroad employees out of the way as the train bearing "Doug" and Mary came to a stop on the track other than the one on which it usually arrives.

Smiling through a huge bouquet Mary astonished the French journalists by speaking in their own language to say she was very glad to get back to France. They had come, she said, because France was richest in monuments of art and in scenes of varied beauty which they wished to screen for America as background for their plays.

Fairbanks, shaking hands with his friends among American journalists, yawned and said France was the only country where he could sleep. He will make a quick visit to New York in December.
