Gleaned by the Guardian Reporters

OVERCOATS were ahead yesterday.

St. George's Lodge social, in Easton Street hall, tonight.

The warm rains of Saturday have started the grass.

Our Chicago despatch reports a big drop in oats.

Chief Justice Sullivan arrived home on Saturday evening.

Mr. WILLISTON BROWN arrived home on Saturday night.

SATURDAY was St. George's day, but we didn't see a blooming rose.

Rev. Mr. CARBUTHRELL will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday next.

LAWN GRASS--Just received a supply of choice mixed lawn Grass. Geo. Carter & Co.

ANOTHER SHIPMENT--Of cheap suits. Call and see this wonderful lot. James Paton & Co.

EARLY--On the 13th instant, Mr. John Francis, of Crapaud, found a robin's nest, with two eggs in it.

THE St. Lawrence arrived here at 7 o'clock Saturday. The mails via the Northumberland arrived at 7.30.

THE Examiner should not try to advertise its favorite brand of whiskey at the expense of the Guardian reporter.

AN Anarchist plot has been discovered to blow up the Escurial and Alhambra palaces and kill the young king of Spain.

CONDUCTOR THOMPSON has returned from his trip to British Columbia. He enjoyed the trip immensely and is looking well.

THE Chapel clock succeeded in catching up and passing the Court House time piece. It led by seven minutes on Saturday.

THE tableaux for the I.O.O.F. concert are under the direction of Mr. Percy Pope, which is a guarantee that they will be well worth seeing.

MR. JOHN CROCKETT is importing another seat from Tignish. It is for Mr. George Carter, and both seats will be put in the fountain on Queen's Square. Good.

A LARGE audience assembled at the Temperance meeting at Dundas on Thursday evening. Good roasting speeches were delivered, and considerable interest awakened.

ANY person knowing anything about matching and cutting carpets know there is often waste and it will be hard for people to digest what some of our friends say. We make waste. But don't charge our customers for it. We have about ends put over from cutting. We will sell them cheap. Patton Bros.

THE windows of Davies' Drugstore presented a pretty appearance on Saturday last. It was decorated in honor of St. George's day. The British coat of arms (a pair) of Mr. Robt. Harris) was in the centre, around which were the Union Jack of Old England and the British Ensign. A number of beautiful red roses added to the effect and the proprietor proudly sported a rose in the button hole of his coat. It should be called "the loyal drugstore" hereafter.

IN the proper column will be found an announcement of Seeds, etc. by W. B. Robertson, 234 Kent street, opposite the Rocklin House. Mr. Robertson has been in the Implement and Seed business in this city for a number of years as representative of the Messrs. Harris Co., Patterson & Brook, and William Rennie, Seedsmen, of Toronto, and is well known to our many readers. At this season of the year he offers Seeds of most every description required by the farmers, and we are sure that any orders entrusted to his care will be promptly and satisfactorily filled.

SPEAKING of the Easter meeting, of St. George's church, New Glasgow, N. S., the Enterprise says that Messrs. F. D. Laurie and Jemison both spoke at some length and feelingly as to the obligations, the congregation were under to the indefatigable wardens, especially Mr. Francis Drake, as well as in regard to the good fortune of the congregation in being so fortunate as to obtain and retain the valued services of such a broad and liberal minded Rector as the Rev. Crawford Frost. One of the best as well as most harmonious and enthusiastic Easter meetings ever held in St. George's church was brought to a close with the benediction.

St. PAUL'S Church--Last evening Rev. Wm. Hamlyn delivered a very able discourse from John 20, 27: "Then said He to Thomas, reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands, and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and he not faithless, but believing." The musical portion of the Easter Sunday services was repeated. The solo in the Cantate (Cobb) was taken by Master Ernest Hearty; Master Henry Anderson was the soloist in the Dons Miseratur (Cobb). The anthem, "He is Risen" (Clare) was very prettily rendered. Masters Henry Anderson and Willie Worth taking the solos. The solos were all very effectively rendered, and reflect great credit on the boys and their efficient instructor, Prof. H.A. Tanton, the organist.

THE west side of Queen street, between Medical Hall and London House, has been greatly improved during the last few months by the addition thereto of two new and enterprising firms. We refer to Messrs. J. M. Macleod & Co., and W. A. Weeks & Co. The former firm can be found in the Store formerly occupied by J. O. Sprague, next door to Dodd & Rogers, where they carry on one of the best and most complete Boot and Shoe businesses in this city. Since coming amongst us Mr. Macleod has made many friends, and we can assure our readers that with his courteous and obliging staff of clerks and carefully selected stock of first-class goods at bottom prices, will not only make you perfectly "at home" in his establishment and happy to make his acquaintance, but will offer you special inducements to become one of his customers.

ADVICES just received from several country druggists are to the effect that of all the pills they sell Everybody's are the most popular. They are only twenty-five cents a box.

REMEMBER the sale on Wednesday, April 27th, of the valuable Brick Property on the corner of Queen and Sydney Streets, lately occupied by Weeks & Beer.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PEOPLE--Mr. Theod. L. Chappelle announces in today's issue that he will continue giving unprecedented bargains. The prices are marvellously low, and are the wonder of all. For instance, imagine getting a good 60 page memorandum book for one cent, which is but a brief illustration of all goods sold by the Diamond Bookstore. It is really one of the cheapest stores in the city.

For Indigestion, Cramps and Pains in the Stomach, apply Dr. Kenrick's White Liniment.

THE Rev. W. W. BREWER's discourse in the First Methodist Church on Sabbath evening was practical, instructive, and interesting. He chose as his text Acts 3, 7: "And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up." In a clear and comprehensive manner he explained what the character of the Christian Church ought to be. That there is much more to be done than the mere form and ceremony of attending church regularly and taking part in the exercises; how that each member should endeavor to help the needy, the sorrowful, the tried and oppressed, and unless this has been done the church falls in its mission. He explained that it is no wonder many persons are crying out for a religion of humanity, for the church has not done what it ought to have done; also that a saved man, one who has been lifted from a life of impurity and wickedness to one of holiness and righteousness, is the strongest argument that any church can produce. In closing he called upon his congregation to bring themselves in close contact with the needs of the people of this city, and lift them up; also to get into the habit of doing things for Christ, and thus rid the world of much of its misery and wretchedness.

THE ladies of the Methodist church had a social and entertainment in Ludlow Hall last Friday evening, which, considering the dampness of the evening and counter attractions, was fairly well attended. Estates were provided, which added much to the enjoyment on the part of the inner man, while the other items of the entertainment were interesting mentally. We learn that all present were well pleased with the evening's social meeting.

MR. WATSON has arranged a very suitable Odd Fellows' emblem in the show window of his new drug store. The emblem is suggestive of the three great principles of the Order--Friendship, Love and Truth--bound together by the triple links. You should call around by Mr. Watson this morning and, after having a look in the window, stop inside and secure your ticket for the Oddfellow's concert.
