THE annual entertainment for the purpose of raising part of the Ministers salary, was held in Pownal Hall on the 29th ult. The hall was crowded. The singing, reading, recitations and speeches were good, and the nice little sum of $70 was realized. The people of Pownal circuit are determined to make their deservedly popular minister and family comfortable and happy. They have added a neat and roomy kitchen to the Parsonage, and made quite extensive repairs on the main building, making it warm and comfortable—the whole costing about $130. We understand there is only about $10 due on the whole transaction, which is very creditable, considering that the church was beautified and improved to the extent of $100 during the past summer. They intend to pay off the little debt by a course of lectures, which will, we feel assured, be both profitable and instructive, and we hope will be largely patronized.—Com.
