

MOSAICS.

There are fifty-five female physicians in Chicago.

The Kentucky Senate has defeated a bill to allow women to practise law.

The Royal Academy of Brazil has resolved to admit women to membership.

Fifteen million dollars have been spent by Baroness Burdett-Couttes in establishing homes for the destitute, etc. It is well. Charity should always begin at home.

Thrilling extract from a recent romance: "With one hand he held her beautiful gold head above the chilling wave, and with the other called loudly for assistance."

The poodles stand a chance to have their lovely noses disjointed, as the ladies returning home from a winter in Florida are bringing for pets, baby alligators!

Worth, the fashion king, is very particular as well as independent. A lady who was dowdily dressed came to him, and he said to her, "Madame, I cannot risk my reputation on you."

Chicago has seven medical colleges, in most of which women stand on the same footing as men. This item probably had its origin in St. Louis, where the feet of Chicago women are a standing joke.

A clever San Francisco woman covers her sewing machine when it is not in use, with a skeleton frame that runs on casters, has an open back, and is covered in the same style as a dressing case.

The Austrian Diet voted $75,000 to defray the expense of the Empress' fox-hunting trip to Ireland, a thing which would not be done, probably, by any other legislative body in Europe.

The death of her mother, at the age of ninety-one, leaves Florence Nightingale an orphan. She herself is a great invalid, yet there are few busier women in the world. She seldom leaves her room, but she is never idle.

Forty-five paintings by Angelica Kauffman, the first famous woman painter of modern times, were recently sold at auction in London, bringing very high prices. One portrait sold for $4,250. The whole collection brought $85,000.

Upon reading an obituary notice of the first water:—"Excellent! Admiral! I like to hear a great man well spoken of. But this strewing flowers upon the bier of the great is monotonous. Why does no one think of signaling the birth of our eminent statesmen and patriots?"

I am past sixty years old, and every now and then I meet a relic who knew me forty-five years ago, and remembers some devilry I was guilty of then. Ain't it strange how tenacious the memory is of these things, and how weak it is of anything good a fellow may have accidentally done?—Josh Billings.

The other Sunday a bright little girl of three years attended service at an Episcopal church, where the rector was one of her particular friends. She objected to her mother making the responses, saying: "Don't speak, mamma; don't say anything. Uncle John isn't talking to you."—Boston Transcript.

Remedy for Hard Times.

Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple pure remedies, Hop Bitters that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column.

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in Medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Beware of medicines of similar names, lately introduced. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1863, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Samp's bottle, 10 cents.

SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR:

The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia

PRINCIPAL:

The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at very moderate cost, the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only School in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination.

The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters.

Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses.

References given to parents of pupils. For further particulars address the Principal.
