W. C. T. U. Special Service At York

On Tuesday evening, May 20, a special service of the W.C.T.U. was held in the United Church at York when a group of temperance-minded people had as their guest speaker Mrs. R. C. Eaton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Eaton are speaking in a number of churches and public halls on behalf of future citizens, the boys and girls of today, on the side of temperance.

An order of service was followed. Mrs. Elmer Brown and Mrs. Horace Vessey gave the prayer and Scripture reading and Rev. John Douglas extended thanks to Mrs. Eaton and left a challenge to parents and guardians of the growing generation.
