OUR PROVINCIAL NEW YEAR'S GIFT.

PREMIER FARQUHARSON is to present to the Province a new Cabinet made up, it is announced, as follows:—
Premier—Hon. D. Farquharson.
Attorney-General—Hon. Arthur Peters.
Commissioner of Public Works—Hon. J. H. Cummskey.
Commissioner of Agriculture and Provincial Secretary—Treasurer—Hon. B. Rogers.

Members of Executive without office—Hon. Malcolm McDonald, Hon. James W. Richards, Hon. R. C. McLeod, Hon. Peter McNatt, Hon. George Forbes.

It will not, we think, be said that the Premier has made the very best use of the material at his disposal. But the people must try to accept the new Cabinet in the spirit of the season,—with expressions of thankfulness and delight. We are glad at all events to note an agricultural portfolio in the new Cabinet; and we trust that something will, at last, be done towards the encouragement of agriculture and the placing of our Government Farm upon a satisfactory footing.

PRESENTED TO THE QUEEN.
Ernest Lord and Other Colonials

In a letter received by his parents on Christmas day, Ernest Lord gives a most interesting account of a trip he enjoyed with a party of the Colonial Volunteers on "sick furlough." The trip took up three days, the Colonials were taken to Cambridge and Windsor. There were some forty different colonial regiments represented Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, South Africa, Ceylon and Canada. Pte. Lord was the only man from Prince Edward Island present on the occasion. He says: "The students nearly went mad with excitement. We had to march three quarters of mile from the station to the Guild Hall, where we were to be entertained. I do not think I walked five steps, as the students insisted on picking me up and carrying me on their shoulders all the way. I was not the only one treated in that manner. The streets were crowded all the route. I do not think the reception the C. V. boys got in London could compare to ours in Cambridge. We were entertained at luncheon by the Mayor of Cambridge. Just before commencing lunch we had our photographs taken, a copy of which I will send you. After luncheon we were shown round the district and through the grounds. We were treated in the same manner at Oxford, and last came the greatest day of all at Windsor. We were received by the Mayor of Windsor and marched to the castle. At the barracks of the Coldstream Guards we were given a reception. After being shown all over Windsor Castle came the greatest attraction of all. We were received by the Queen in her state room. She spoke to us so kindly. She is indeed a fine old lady and no mistake, and I am sure she won the hearts of us all by the very kind and gracious way she received us. We shall always remember her kind words and beautiful voice. They were three most delightfully enjoyable days, ever to be remembered, and it must indeed have been a time for every heart to feel justly proud and glad to be taken into the immediate presence of our dear and beloved Queen; and these her loyal subjects will long cherish the memory of their visit to Windsor Castle during November, 1900, and the grand reception tendered them at Cambridge and Oxford."

SUMMERSIDE NEWS
Stanley Makes Another Quick Trip.

(Special Correspondence of THE EXAMINER.)
The Stanley made another record breaker yesterday between Summerside and Cape Tormentine. She made the passage over in one hour and forty-five minutes and returned to Summerside in one hour and thirty-eight minutes.
In going over she encountered hard, heavy ice, clumpets and lolly. On her return she had open water two thirds of the way; the strong westerly wind and tide having carried the ice to the eastward.
The tidal current being so strong in the straits, the ice is kept continually moving, making it very favorable for winter navigation.
The brethren of Mount Letanon and King Hiram Lodges held their St. John's Day dinner at the Strathcona hotel last evening. It was a joint affair of the two lodges which assured a large attendance. The usual Masonic and patriotic toasts were given and duly honored. A very pleasant evening was spent which lingered along till the wee sma' hours.

THE SMALLPOX SCARE.
Report of Summerside Commissioners.

To the President and Members of the Summerside Board of Trade:
GENTLEMEN,—The undersigned, who were appointed by your Board to investigate and report upon the epidemic of smallpox existing at or near Cape Tormentine, and upon the cost of and the facilities with which a temporary berth for the Stanley can be constructed at Cape Tormentine, beg to report as follows:
On Thursday morning, the 27th inst., we left Summerside on the steamer Stanley and made the run to Cape Tormentine in one hour and forty minutes. After leaving the board ice we encountered a considerable quantity of field or pan ice and clumpets. But the steamer Stanley forged her way through, only once having to back up for a second shot at it. The tide being low the ship anchored some distance off from the pier, freight and passengers, amongst whom were seven or eight ladies, landing in boats. On landing we proceeded up to the village, made enquiries for the doctors, and found there were none near at hand. We then telephoned Dr. Gardiner, of Bayfield, he being the doctor who first pronounced the epidemic to be smallpox.
He was not disposed to give us much information, said he was under Doctor Calkin, of Sackville, and had to make his reports to him. He said he had quarantined all the infected districts, that local freight, passengers or mails were not taken on the trains between Sackville and Tormentine. The cars used when the epidemic broke out were taken off and replaced by new ones.
There were only four or five cases in his district (meaning where he lived), and only one family within seven miles of Cape Tormentine, where one death had occurred, which was the only death that had taken place. We could not get him to state the total number of cases—thinks with the precautions now taken the disease will soon be stamped out.
Mr. A. P. Lewis, manager of the Portland Packing Company, about one mile from the Cape, represented to us as a man familiar with the trouble, informed us by telephone that Emigrant Road, Port Elgin, Shemogue and Port Ashero were quarantined and that in all about one hundred cases were suspected.

ST. CROIX SOAP MFG. CO.
St. Stephen, N.B.

He did not think it quite under control yet.
The epidemic was not discovered until Friday last. Previous to that they thought it was chicken-pox. Board of health then took charge. Compulsory vaccination is now enforced. The nearest case to Cape Tormentine is about eight miles. Schools have been closed, and public gatherings prohibited. There has been only one death so far. The disease is of a very mild type. There are between forty and fifty cases developed, mostly amongst farmers and lumbermen.
We also sent the following message to Dr. Calkin at Sackville, the physician who has charge of the affair for the Board of Health:—
"Prevalence of smallpox is interfering with operations of winter steamer Stanley between Cape Tormentine and Summerside. Will you kindly wire us particulars of character and extent of epidemic, number of cases, quarantine and all other conditions?"
From observations made on the spot, and reviewing the information received, we are of opinion that with the precautionary regulations now in force in regard to quarantine on the line of railway and the rejection of local passengers from the Cape and vicinity, there can be no danger of the disease being carried by the Stanley.
In regard to the temporary berth at the pier we consulted with Mr. McLashen and others on the subject and found that there was a pile-driver and suitable piles on the spot, and that the work might be done in a few days if orders were given to that effect. The probable cost would be between two and three hundred dollars. Mr. McLashen promised to make an estimate and telegraph the figures to-morrow.
Captain Brown detained the steamer for a sufficient time to enable us to make the above investigations, for this and other courtesies he is entitled to the thanks of our Board. The trip back was made in an hour and thirty-eight minutes.
The crew of the Stanley, old timers, consider this route easy as compared with the Charlottetown-Georgetown-Pictou voyages, and passengers thought they were correct in their criticisms. All of which is respectfully submitted by
Your Obedient Servants,
RICHARD HUNT,
RONALD CAMPBELL.

We will give you a big discount on the balance of our under-suitings. They're the best on earth. This is a bold statement to make, but we honestly and conscientiously know it's the truth. As we have said before our business in all its departments has been immeasurably improved this season, and with that advancement we have given special attention to strengthen our facilities to produce a made-to-order suit, overcoat or trousers, that no one can dispute its intrinsic superiority to any garment made in this city. It's the successful outcome of bringing nineteen years of experience in executing fine tailoring, and in three years' experience of low prices that makes our business such a success.—Gordon & McLellan, Tailors and fur-nishers.
