

Rockets And All-Stars Tied For Island 5-Pin Bowling Championship

Horne's Rockets and the favored All Stars finished in a dead heat for the Prince Edward Island five pin bowling championship Saturday night with each team winning 28 points and losing four on the day's bowling. The play-off match for the Island title will be rolled some night this week.

The Rockets came bowling down the stretch around midnight Saturday to catch the front running All Stars who did not lose a match all day. The Rockets four points down and facing a match with Curran and Briggs from Summerside, defeated their western opponents in all games to sweep the match.

The Rockets victory climaxed a gruelling day of bowling, which commenced at eight o'clock Saturday morning and continued to midnight. Nine teams took part in the competition with "each team" playing eight matches. Each team was originally scheduled to play nine matches but a last minute withdrawal by the Capital Alleyes, Summerside, prevented this.

Points were distributed at the rate of one a game and one for the match making a total of four in each match. In sweeping through the opposition the All Stars lost only four out of their twenty-four games and consequently only four points. They lost single games to the Rockets, M.C.A., Shur-Wins and the R. C. A. F.

The Rockets lost three points to the All Stars and one to the Maritime Electric. Otherwise they were unbeatable.

The Shur-Wins, led by Art Balem and bolstered by the addition of Red Ellison in the afternoon, threw a scare into the bowlers. They finished third with a respectable 22 points won and ten lost.

Curran and Briggs made a strong start and finished fourth winning 17 points and losing 15. The Maritime Electric had an even seven 16-16 record while Summerside Central Airways finished sixth by winning 15 points and losing 17.

Two Maritime Central Airways bowlers won the lion's share of the individual honors. Irv MacKinnon rolled 393 for high single. MacKinnon set his mark in the second game of the day shortly after the tournament opened.

And a bowler who has taken part in little competition this winter, Earl Goss of M.C.A. had the best average of the day. Goss averaged 250.1. Runner-up was Joey MacDonald of the All Stars with 235.8.

George Schyler of the All Stars won the high three honors with 868. Irving MacKinnon had 849 for three games early in the competition but Schyler came on Saturday night to take the trophy.

The All Stars won the team high match and the high string of 3627 and a high string of 1306.

Following are the lineups of the teams which tied for top honors: All Stars: Joey MacDonald (captain), Dr. L. Duffy, Don MacDonald, Bob Cameron, Vic Williams and George Schyler.

Rockets: Glen Matheson (captain), Roy MacDonald, Willard Chandler, Gordon Gallant, Fred MacTague and Jim Falls.

Walcott Sues Distillery Firm For Million

CAMDEN, N.J., May 25 (AP) — The world heavyweight champion, Jersey Joe Walcott, and his manager have filed a $1,000,000 damage suit against the Calvert Distilling Co.

The U.S. District Court suit alleges that Walcott's value as a boxing drawing card and his standing as a leader and an example to the youth of America has been impaired by use of his picture in whisky advertising.

The petition states that Walcott was asked by the George Washington Carver Memorial Institute of Washington to present its 1951 gold medal award to W.W. Wachtel, president of the Calvert firm.

THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN MAY 26, 1952

IN THIS CORNER

A tired Harry Poulton sat in the dressing room of the Charlottetown Forum about 11.15 Saturday night following his ten round bout with "Red" Graham of Halifax. His handlers Will MacCuskey, and young Callaghan were unwinding the tape of his hands while Harry was obviously the better man from the start to the finish of the fight. Possibly only in the third round did Graham show ability equal to that of the local mitslinger.

"I thought that I was going to get him out there in one round. I forget just which one it was," he continued so we chipped in and told him it was the seventh. "He's a hard man to fight," added Harry, "always coming in with his head down and gloves up over his face. I couldn't seem to get him straightened up so that I could put him away. Actually I couldn't hit him too hard with my right hand after the sixth round. I hurt my hand hitting his head. I think the tape came off his right hand. Harry looked at it and murmured, "Its starting to swell a bit. I hope it will be all right."

What's next? We asked Poulton. "A bout with Tommy Spencer, I hope," replied Harry, who is anxious to regain his Maritime welterweight crown. Harry certainly had no trouble in hurdling the willing Graham but still did not look quite as sharp to us as he did last summer against Leslie and Spencer. Of course Graham used a different style of fighting than the other two boxers and it must be remembered that this was Harry's first bout of the summer season.

The bout provided considerable action despite Graham's efforts to tie up Poulton and hang on. The good sized crowd of 700 fans, who were shouting for a knock-out, enjoyed the fight. Probably none enjoyed it more than eleven-year-old Arthur Coker of Charlottetown who exhibited more interest and excitement in the fight game than any other individual we have ever seen.

A fighter, who has shown a lot of improvement since we last laid the lamps on him, is Austin Squarebriggs. Austin looked to be in good shape Saturday night and displayed considerable punching power. His left-right combo on Johnny Russell in the second round was a beauty and one which almost ended the fight right there.

Five hours before the fights got underway the All Stars down at the Roll-Away Alleyes were bowling against the Curran and Briggs team from Summerside in the Island five-pin tournament. Vic Williams was coming off the runway after rolling two strikes, a broad smile on his face and a few taunting remarks for "Dutch" Underwood of Summerside. At the time the C and B bowlers were behind, there was little "Dutch" could say except to proclaim Williams as the "Luckiest" bowler in the tournament. Before the tournament was completed however, the tables were turned and Vic was wishing a little luck on "Dutch."

This occurred in the last match of the day, the one between the Rockets and Curran and Briggs. The Rockets needed four points in order to gain a first place tie with the All Stars of which Vic was a member. The Rockets won the first game. The teams were more than half-way through the second game when one of the C

Poulton In Ten-Round Decision Over Graham

Charlottetown's clever Harry "Kid" Poulton, 144 lbs, seeking a knockout for the last four rounds but unable to find a clear path to the target, had to settle for an unanimous decision over Harold "Red" Graham, 142, of Halifax Saturday night in a ten round fight at the Forum.

For the last four rounds Poulton hammered away at his Halifax opponent but many of the blows glanced off the head of the toughened Graham. Once in the seventh round Poulton had his man on the way out but Graham withstood the assault and hung on until the bell. There were no knockouts.

Poulton was obviously the better man from the start to the finish of the fight. Possibly only in the third round did Graham show ability equal to that of the local mitslinger.

First of Season

The fight, the feature on a five-bout card, ushered in the boxing season in local circles. Another card will probably be held at the Forum in a couple of weeks.

An improved Austin Squarebriggs, 168, won from a willing Johnny Russell, 171, in five rounds in the semi-finals. Russell's manager threw in the towel at 1:37 of the fifth after Russell had been on the canvass five times since the second round.

"Tiger" Steele, 155, considerably heavier than his pre-Army days, and fighting for the second time since going into the service, fought to a draw with Louis "Kid" Laferty, 160, in a four round preliminary.

The Poulton-Graham scrap got away to a slow start in the first round as the boys felt one another out. Poulton had a slight advantage although there were few punches thrown.

In the second round Poulton went to work on his opponent, landing several hard blows. Graham came on in the third for the best round of the fight and demonstrated a hard but wild left, that kept Harry at distance.

Poulton looked better in the fourth and fifth rounds although Graham was on the offensive. The fighters exchanged hard blows in centre ring on several occasions

Other Bouts

Russell was still groggy as the round ended and started for his wrong corner. In the third round Squarebriggs nailed him again for a nine count but willing Russell, as game as they come, got off the floor and was pressing at the bell.

Twice in the fourth round Russell took nine counts along the ropes and although he did not appear to be hurt it was obvious he was tired. Another nine count in the fifth and Russell's manager called proceedings to a halt.

There were no knockouts in the Steele-Lafferty bout as the boys fought only in flurries. Steele displayed the harder punch but didn't have enough conditioning to keep up with his taller opponent.

Joey Arsenault of Charlottetown defeated Billy Smith also of Charlottetown in a four rounder. Arsenault, with a height and condition advantage was in control most of the way.

In a certain raiser Jerry Lamoureux and Mandy MacLeod fought to a four round draw.

Danny MacCormack, ex-fighter, handled the main and semi-final bouts. The others were refereed by Leo Lamoureux.

The judges were Hickey Nicholson and George Hooper. The timer was Dr. R. F. Seaman and counting for the knockouts was Bill Gillespie. Bill Brown, Forum Manager, was the announcer.

Ladies Softball Season Opens At Summerside

Betty Gay and Louise Gallant each hit a home run for the victors and Mason, who topped all batters with three hits in four trips, clouted a four-base blow in the fourth inning and a triple in the fifth. Louise and Dianne Gallant of the Cubs, and Thompson and Chambers of the Ramblers got two safe bingles apiece, the former pair hitting 2 for 3 and the latter two 2 for 5.

Before the game, Mr. Henry Landry, chairman of Ladies' Softball, introduced Mayor Henry Wedge, who after congratulating the officers for the good work they had done commenting on the interest shown in ladies' softball, and predicting a successful season, threw the first ball across the plate (a little high for a strike, Your Worship) to open officially the 1952 season.

Epigram Wins Queen's Plate In Rain And Mud

By Jack Sullivan

TORONTO, May 25 (CP) — Epigram picked up for $2,500 in a claiming race last September, slogged through the rain and mud in a driving stretch gallop to win the 93rd annual renewal of the $15,000-added Queen's Plate Saturday. Its net purse was $16,875 and the Queen's 50 guineas.

The bay-coated son of Flares and Hasty Bet, owned by the Three V's stable of Toronto, thrilled 30,000 water-doused Woodbine Park spectators with his drive down the centre of the track to win by a length over 70-to-1 shot Genhorn, chestnut filly from the Four L's stable, Toronto. Latin Lad took the show slot, another six lengths in the rear.

Third favorite at 11-to-1 odds on the tote board, Epigram kicked up his heels at the quarter in the nine-furlong classic to give jockey Gil Robillard his second Plate victory in two years. It also marked the first Plate appearance for the stable operated by the Veal Brothers—Frank, Gordon and Lawrence.

Twenty-one horses went to the post in the Canadian-bred three-year-old race under conditions considered the worst in its modern-day history. An all-day rain turned the track into a mass of slop making it exceptionally heavy going for the field, trimmed to 21 by a late scratch of Red Martlet from the E. P. Taylor stable of Toronto.

Epigram, carrying 119 pounds under the race conditions, returned $25.05, $14.30 and $10.80. Genhorn paid $64.35 and $30.70 and Latin Lad, owned by the Garden City stable of Niagara Falls, Ont., gave backers $10.95 for show.

The time was 1:58 3-5, third fastest since 1924 when the Plate distance was shortened from 1.4 miles to 1.1. Paolita covered the route in the mud with a timing of 2:02 3-5 in 1943 and Haplite made it in 1:59 3-5 in 1926.

Bob Schurman's Curran & Briggs junior ball tossers defeated the Maccan All-Stars Day at the Recreation Centre diamond by the score of 7-5 to open the 1952 baseball season in Summerside.

Don Simmons worked six innings for the winners, allowing seven bingles. He had given up only one hit in the first four innings. Alan Stewart relieved the remaining three frames. The Curran's got only six hits off the slants of Murphy, ambidextrous pitcher from Maccan, who elected to throw with his left hand on this occasion. Buringe hit a very long home run ball to deep left field in the first inning, but could do little with Simmons' offerings from there on in.

Fielding offers were Neil Walker's running catch of Dugay's bid for a hit in the fourth, Dugay's fine catch of Purcell's well tagged fly to left in the first, and Mark Delaney's lightning tag of Dugay going into third base in the seventh after the Maccan runner looked to have the throw beaten.
