

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

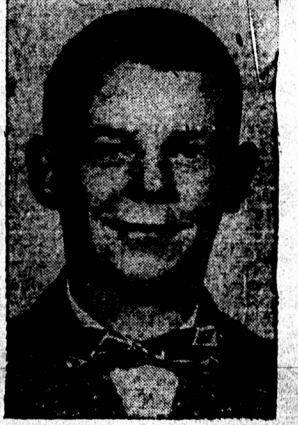

Two union officials were attempted to block trucks and are shown trying to quell the ed 5 1/2 weeks, was settled over the among those arrested when they cars going into the dump. Police strikers. The dispute, which last- week-end.

RED RIDES PIGGY-BACK — A North Korean private gets a ride on the back of a South Korean soldier after being wounded and captured by South Koreans. Unable to walk, the Red soldier was wanted at a rear command post for questioning by officers.

Pickets at the garbage dump in Hamilton, Ont., were troubled following the arrest of seven strikers. When pickets attempted to stop trucks unloading at the dump, police intervened. Here one of the picketers is being led away by police.

Ships that spell war and peace are contrasted. Britain's mightiest in commerce and defence are shown in this unusual photograph as they pass off Cowes, Isle of Wight, England. At left is Britain's largest battleship, the 42,500-ton Vanguard, beside the 85,000-ton Queen Elizabeth, world's largest liner. Vanguard has eight 15-inch guns.

MONARCHS OF THE MOPPETS — Freckle-faced George Riley, Jr., 13, of Fremont, Neb. and 13-year-old Joan Crawford of Hamilton, Ohio, are the 1950 King and Queen of U.S. National Kids' Day. They were selected by judges representing 3150 Kiwanis clubs for outstanding service to the community. Their reward will be a free trip to Hollywood.

All over the world, services are being conducted to celebrate Rosh Hashonah, start of the Jewish year 5711. Cantor Nathan T. Adler is shown with Rabbi Dr. Judah Washer and a shofar horn as Holy Blossom synagogue in Toronto began the annual services.

Greasing Blitzen, one of Santa's reindeer, when he visited Santa's workshop at North Pole, Whiteface Mt., New York, with his parents, is Glen Pater- son. Workshop is a Mother Goose village with storybook characters. Kris Kringle is the super-visor.

Killed with their parents in a level-crossing accident at Uno Park, seven miles north of New Peters. The demolished truck is shown after the crash. Liskeard, are: Harry, Patsy and Mary Ann Peters, three of the nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Peters.

Meeting the mayor of Westminster, Councillor W. Eric Rice, right, are these members of the Salvation Army, in the Westminster City Hall, London. More than 1,000 delegates of the army, from 40 nations, are attending the Salvation Army's great youth rally.

Canadian airmen on the Korean airlift with the R. C. A. F.'s Thunderbird squadron get a chance to look over some of the sights in Tokyo. Here, L.A.C. H. Rizun, Vegreville, Alta., and L.A.C. D. N. Stead, Montreal, gaze at stone figures by shrine.

Nurses, at left, with "casualty" jorie Hornsell of Fredericton, N.B. Army nurses care for "wounded" in "mock war" being staged at Mead-ford, Ont., as part of army nurse training. Major J. W. B. Barr, of Lanark, Ont., instructs army nurses at right. Girls are: Lenore, Winnipeg; Joyce Clark, Regina; Margaret Root and Margaret Scott, London; Wilma Kilpatrick, Winnipeg; Helen McIntyre, Lanark, Ont.; and Allen Windsor, Lanark, Ont.