

Where the Orphan Found a Home.

A few days ago a boy about ten years of age, lame and sickly, who had been living with his mother in rooms in the city, found himself alone in the world. The lad was too ill to ride in the one poor carriage which followed the body to the grave, yet no one thought his condition serious. After the funeral a number of persons gathered in the poverty-stricken room where he lay weeping to what disposition could be made of him.

'If he wasn't lame I'd take him into my family,' observed one of the men in a tone that seemed to show he blamed the boy for his misfortune.

'Well, it's awful hard,' sighed one of the women, 'but I know he couldn't get along with my children.'

'Nor with mine,' added the second. 'If I should take him he'd run a big doctor's bill on me,' said a man as he he filled his pipe.

Each and every one had some excuse. The boy heard them all without a word but with quivering chin and eyes full of tears. Under one pretext and another all slipped out and left him alone, promising to have another talk in the morning. Perhaps that night before they closed their eyes in sleep some of them thought of the poor lad lying in the dreary room almost helpless, but if so, none of them went near him. Late in the morning a woman living on the same floor went in to see if he wanted a bite to eat, and the question of who should take care of him was settled. God had taken him. Hugged close to the wall, as if he feared the midnight shadows, and with eye-lashes yet wet, he was dead and cold, no longer a burden to any one. The boy too lame to be taken care of on earth—too feeble to earn the crusts that some one would have given him—had a home better than the best. When they knew that he died alone, women bent over him and wept. When they lifted his wasted body from the bed, men's consciences smote them for their harsh words, but it was too late. He had gone from earth feeling that there was no mercy in the human heart.—Detroit Free Press.

'Gem'len,' said the President, 'I think dat de inhabitants of dis kentry am payin' altogether too much 'tension to dis wedder qeshun. Dar's a groan o' despair when it's hot an' a growl o' displeasur when it's cold. If it rains somebody raises a row, an' if it's dry somebody else has a bone to pick wid de powers above. Ebery red-headed, one-hoss white man—ebery broken-down old two-cent darkey, has got de ideah in his head dat de Lawd am bound to send him long jest de sort o' wedder he wants, no matter 'bout de rest of de kentry. De ole man Rubottom, libin' ub dar by my cabin, has got about fifteen cents worf o' garden truck back of his house, an' when it's hot or cold or wet or dry he am so agitated dat he forgets dat any odder soul in dis kentry has sot out an onion or planted a 'tater. Mo' dan fifty y'ars ago I come to de conclushun dat I mus' put up wid sich wedder as de Lawd gim me, no matter whedder it brough' on chilblains or rheumatics, an' it was a great burden o'f my mind. I take it just as it comes, an' I doan' know nuffin' 'bout almanacs an' I doan' want to.'

August Flower.

The immense sale and great popularity of Green's August Flower in all towns and villages in the civilized world has caused many imitators to adopt similar names, expecting to reap a harvest for themselves at the expense of the afflicted. This medicine was introduced in 1868, and for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, with their effects, such as Sour Stomach, Sickheadache, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, vertigo, etc., etc., it never has failed to our knowledge. Three doses will relieve any case of Dyspepsia. Two million bottles sold last year. Price 75 cents. Samples 10 cents.

A Good Account.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit."

SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR: The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia

PRINCIPAL: The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at very moderate cost, the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only School in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination.

The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters.

Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses.

References given to parents of pupils. For further particulars address the Principal. Sept. 19, 1879.
