

Divorce Ends in Blood.

IN TRYING TO RETAIN HIS CHILD MR. CORYELL SHOTS HIS WIFE'S BROTHER.

Reports of a sensational shooting affair which occurred at Uniontown, Ind., on Wednesday, the 11th inst., have been received. Love, matrimony, a quarrel, divorce and a struggle for the custody of an infant child, resulting in the death of a seventeen-year-old youth, are the dramatic features of the tragedy.

Coryell, with his child, attended services at the village church on Wednesday evening. His wife, with her father and brothers, was present also. Coryell, anticipating trouble, hurriedly left the edifice at the conclusion of the services, but had only gone a short distance when he was attacked by his wife, who demanded the child. Being gently repulsed, she ordered her father and brothers to take the child by force.
