MRS. BENJAMIN HENDERSON

The community of Murray Harbor North lost one of its beloved senior citizens with the passing of Mrs. Benjamin Henderson at her home on April 12, 1964, in her eightieth year. Daughter of the late Abraham Graham and his wife, Sara H. Simpson, Jessie was born on November 19th, 1884. On September 13th, 1911, she was united in marriage to Benjamin Henderson of Murray Harbor North.

Her warm and friendly manner endeared her to those who knew her best. Throughout her quiet life she knew the love and respect of her friends and neighbors. Strengthened by her husband's care and her own faithfulness she bore her lingering illness with much courage and cheerfulness.

Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn her passing, one brother, William D. Graham, Gaspeaux. A sister, Mary Ann (Mrs. Sidney Lavallin), and her brother, Alexander, predeceased her. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved in their loss.

The funeral was held from the Murray Harbor North Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, April 15th, 1964, and was under the direction of the Montague Funeral Home. Her minister, Rev. Carl Currie, conducted the service and brought a message of comfort based on St. Matthew 11:28. Congregational hymns were "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "Sweet By And By." The choir sang "Shall We Meet Beyond The River." Pallbearers were, Carl Graham, George Graham, Grant Graham, Wilbert Graham, Mark Jackson and Albert MacLeod.

The remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Murray Harbor North community cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

The husband of the late Mrs. Benjamin Henderson wishes to express his sincere thanks to Rev. Carl Currie, Mrs. Lloyd Reid, Rev. the Montague Funeral Home Co., the organist and choir members, the neighbours and their friends for their acts of kindness. Thanks also, to those who sent messages of sympathy or helped in any way in his recent sad bereavement.

OBITUARY

Inserted by relatives.

MRS. PRESTON J. KENNEDY

Relatives and a wide circle of friends throughout the Island and the Maritimes were shocked and saddened to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Preston J. Kennedy, widow of the late Preston J. Kennedy, Kensington, which occurred at her home on April 27, 1964, after a few hours illness. Mrs. Kennedy was the former Daisy Orr, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Parmena Orr, Kensington.

She was a devoted member of the Kensington United Church, and gifted with a lovely voice was the leading soprano in the church choir. At one time president of the former P.E.I. Auxiliary, she was a Charter member of the Kensington United Church Women, and treasurer since its organization. She was also a member of the Board of Stewards and of the Official Board.

Mrs. Kennedy was a trustee of the Prince Edward Island Orphanage, a Past Worthy Matron and Charter member of Kensington Regent Chapter, O.E.S., and a Past Worthy Grand Officer of the Grand Chapter, O.E.S. of Nova Scotia and P.E.I. She has served also as president of the Kensington Home and School Association, the Community Club, and the Kensington Branch of the Ladies Aid of the Prince County Hospital as well as secretary and treasurer of those organizations at various times.

Of a loving, friendly and sympathetic nature, Mrs. Kennedy is mourned by a host of friends. Her home was one of warm hospitality. The many beautiful flowers, Memorials, and expressions of sympathy were evidence of the love and esteem in which she was held.

She is survived by one son, Keith Kennedy, of the firm of P.J. and C. Kennedy Ltd., Kensington, daughter-in-law, Phyllis Porter Kennedy and four grandchildren, Nancy, Preston J., David and Bruce; and three sisters, Mrs. P.L. Orr, Jeanette Orr and Mrs. Harold Laird.

The funeral service was held from the Kensington United Church and was conducted by the Rev. L.M. Murray. The Board of Stewards, the United Church Women, and Regent Chapter, O.E.S. attended in a body.

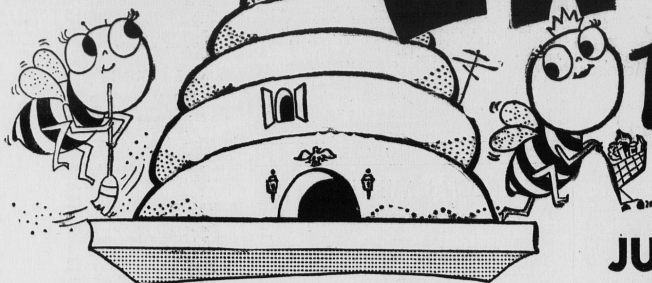

She was laid to rest in the People's cemetery beside her husband who predeceased her five years ago. The funeral was under the direction of J.E. Davidson, Pallbearers were, Charles Kennedy, Malcolm Kennedy, Evelyn Champion, Morris Casley, Roscoe Walker, and Willard Stewart.

"To live in hearts we leave behind, is not to die".

BURMA LEIFTS BAN

RANGOON (AP) — Burma's military government lifted a ban on Indians returning to India Tuesday and 38 left by air from Calcutta. The Burmese government banned Indians from leaving the country May 24 because the Indian embassy was "stealing gold and jewelry from Indian nationals" remaining in India to live. The Burmese government had banned export of gold and jewelry.
