P. S. S. Boys In City School Hoop Finals

Taking a nine-point lead at the end of the first half of the game and staving off a closing West Kent threat, the Prince Street School boys team last night advanced into the City Intermediate basketball finals against Queeque Square School when they defeated the former team 31-25. The game was played at the P.W.C. Auditorium before a fair sized crowd.

Down one point as a result of the first game last week, the P.S.S. team put on a spirited drive in the rough encounter to win the game in the first half of the contest. The W.K.S. boys, trying hard all the time, rallied in the last stanza to outscore the P.S.S. team 17-14 but it was not enough to win the game.

Leading the winners in scoring was Malcolm "Red" MacFadyen who garnered ten points while John MacDougall had seven and Clint Taylor five. Jack Turner also had five points for the winners. Barry MacMillan led the scorers in the game as he racked up thirteen points for the losers and played heads up game all the way. Joey Hoyt went next with six.

The game was another rough one as the teams were determined to mix it up rather than play good basketball. A total of 39 fouls were called by Referees Earl Goss and Jack MacAndrew including two technical fouls. Twenty three of the total were called on the P.S.S. team while the losers took 16. Four players were banished from the game as a result of the fouling. Taylor, MacDougall and Billy MacKinnon of the winners and Gerald Birt of the losers. Two other players had four fouls.

The timer was Bill Leonard and the referees were Earl Goss and Jack MacAndrew.

Summary: W.K.S. — MacMillan 13, White 3, Hoyt 6, Birt 2, Chandler 1, Lantz, MacNeill, Kennedy, Scantlebury, Total 25.

P.S.S. — MacFadyen 10, Taylor 5, Turner 6, MacDougall 7, MacLeod, Ladner, MacLaren, MacKinnon 4, Heustis, Total — 31.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

"Lecky's Hill," the first hill past the red bridge on the road from Summerside to Borden will go down in hockey history as the strongest defence ever encountered by the Summerside Kinmidgets, New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island champions of 1948-49 and 1949-50. From 11:50 a.m. till 4:30 p.m., Saturday, four carloads bound for Amherst to play the Truro midgets for the Maritime championship fought the snow drifts on this hill and finally got through but too late to keep their appointment with Truro at the Amherst rink. The club management asked permission to have one of the provincial plows go to Borden ahead of them but this was refused. Mayor Wedge of Summerside came to the rescue by sending the Summerside town plow out, but it too; this machine almost an hour to break through the snow in the cutting. The midget hockey club is very grateful to His Worship Mayor Wedge for his efforts to get the team to Amherst in time.

It was tough luck for the Summerside boys, but even tougher for Truro. They hired four taxis to go from Truro to Amherst and after all their expense were forced to travel back home without having their game. The provincial plow which was not permitted to go to the help of the Kinmen Midgets in the morning is reported to have gone to Borden shortly after the cars bound for Amherst gave up the struggle.

The Summerside Crystals are through for the season. After a slow start, they began to play championship hockey but were fated to have a very inglorious finish after all, a finish that the old-time hockey players and old-time fans of Summerside would hardly believe possible. Borden has a distinguished hockey history. Through the years they have won more than their share of intermediate Maritime championships. But in those days Charlottetown and Summerside were in the senior division, and anyone suggesting that Borden or any other small centre could have seriously challenged the supremacy of Charlottetown or Summerside would have been psycho-analyzed immediately to find out what kind of a hormone had prompted him to utter such arrant nonsense.

Then senior hockey clubs in the mainland began to bring imports into the seaside provinces, and Charlottetown and Summerside were forced to drop back into intermediate ranks. Thus we have Intermediate "A" and Intermediate "B" which correspond pretty well with the Senior and Intermediate divisions of ten or fifteen years ago. That the Intermediate "A" winner should defeat the Intermediate "B" champions is a sad commentary on how low the calibre of hockey in Summerside has really slipped. We have hit the bottom with a sickening thud, and whether we will bounce to our former position in hockey depends on a number of things, chief of which is the building of a new rink in Summerside. There was a great ado about this matter a month or so ago, but silence reigns now. Why?

We have one little team in Summerside that is still giving the town a few rays of reflected glory. The Kinmen midgets are champions of two provinces for two years now, and may yet win the Maritime crown. If these boys stick strictly to ginger ale and cream soda, if they keep their eyes steadily on the honor and glory of winning hockey matches, and avoid the siren glances of beautiful women, so as not to degenerate into chicken-pecked boy-friends, who know? They may bring back the Crystal name to what it was when Charlie Cahill, Jack Schurman, Chick Gallant, Ralph Silliphant, Ernie McQuarrie and the other greats of yesteryear dashed down the ice- lanes.

The race for the championship of the Summerside Commercial Bowling League is narrowing down. The play-offs have entered the quarter-finals. The City Slickers will take on the Dodgers and the winners will play the West Enders in the semi-finals. The victors in this series will roll or bowl a ball with the Curran & Briggs five for the championship. Curran & Briggs won last year, and the same players under the name of Trinity United won the year before. It will be interesting to see if any team can break their strangle hold on the title this year.

Until 1931, the United States and all English-speaking countries used inches, feet and yards as the basis for linear measurement, while other nations used the metric measure.

Alex (Halifax Chronicle-Herald) Nickerson says "there can be no good and bad effects of such a union." Nickerson states that one of the main reasons for the merger is "because all the Clubs in the Cape Breton circuit and at least three Island riflemen, particularly those who are aspirants as members of the Canadian contingent to the Bisley matches, will be pleased to learn of certain changes of rules on qualifying for the Bisley team which were brought about at the annual meeting of the D.C.R.A. held at Ottawa recently.

One rule change in particular, the All-Comers' aggregate men, should meet with the approval of marksmen in this Province. According to the report on the meeting in the Bisley aggregate, shot off at the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association summer meet, were sent overseas to represent Canada. In future, only 15 scorers in the Bisley and three top shots in the All-Comers' matches aggregate will decide the team composition. The All-Comers' matches are for competitors shooting in matches under 600 yards distance.

In a brief interview yesterday with Brigadier W. W. Reid, D.S.O., E.D., last year's Officer Commanding the Canadian Bisley contingent, concerning the recent change of rules, Brigadier Reid said that though the All-Comers' ruling would be welcome news to local marksmen, his reason was that the range facilities here only permitted Island competitors to practice up to the 600 yard range, whereas in competition for a berth on the Bisley team, they were required to compete up to 900 yard ranges. This has had a tendency to put them at a disadvantage against other Dominion competitors who have had ample practice over those distances, but will now be able to compete for a place on the team up to the 600 yard range, a distance familiar to local marksmen.

In connection with the change, the report on the meeting states that "All-Comers' aggregate men will qualify if they have not already won a place as a top scorer in the Bisley aggregate. Replacements for those of the first 15 in the Bisley aggregate or the All-Comers' matches, unable to attend, will be selected from their respective groups."

Another new departure passed by the meeting was the provision of at least 10 prizes for cadets at the end of all matches, in addition to regular cadet competitions. This is expected to greatly encourage cadets to take part in senior matches, which was summed up adequately by Colonel Harry Sloman, chairman of the council, who said "it is the youngsters we want to develop as marksmen." The change in the method of qualifying for the Bisley team was introduced by Major Desmond Burke of Toronto.

According to a recent press release "backers of the two senior 'A' hockey leagues in the Maritimes have been thinking about forming one big senior loop for a long time, and they have finally reached the conference stage of their planning."

"If plans made at a recent conference between representatives of the Maritime Senior and Cape Breton Senior Hockey Leagues are approved by the clubs concerned," states the report, there will be only one senior "A" circuit in the Maritimes."

Canadiens Face Crucial Test In Game Tonight

MONTREAL, April 3 — (CP) — Montreal's National Hockey League Canadiens, their backs to the wall in a last-ditch stand to avoid elimination, meet New York Rangers in the "crucial" game here tomorrow night.

The underdog Rangers, who finished fourth in the regular league race, have been pushing the favored Canadiens around to the tune of leading the best-of-seven, semi-final Stanley Cup series 3-0.

During the regular season, Montreal's high-scoring forwards were the talk of the league but in three playoff games, they have counted only four times and have been scored on, in turn, 10 times.

Canadiens suffered a blow when they lost big defenceman Kenny Reardon in the waning minutes of Saturday's game but even the most optimistic couldn't compare the Montrealers play-for-play with the New Yorkers.

The whole thing started in New York last Wednesday when the New Yorkers came through with a 3-1 decision. Canadiens brushed that victory aside with a "we'll get 'em Saturday."

Came Saturday and Canadiens started off on the right foot and jumped into a two-goal lead. Came the last 10 minutes of the game Saturday night and with it two New York goals, good for a 3-3 decision over the erstwhile Flying Frenchmen and a 2-0 lead in the series.

Last night in New York, it was all but the final straw as the Rangers, paced by Pentti Lund who scored three goals, romped through the faltering Canucks for a convincing 4-1 triumph and a 3-0 lead in games.

Reardon's injury deprives the Montrealers of a tower of strength on both offensive and defensive plays. He suffered a dislocated left shoulder and will be out of the line-up for whatever remains of Canadiens' games.

Only one small glimmer of hope filters through an otherwise dim out-look—should Canadiens hit the victory column tomorrow night, the remaining games of the series will be played in Montreal. The circus has moved into Madison Square Garden and no ice is available for the home team.

Allan, Memorial Cup Schedule
Allan Cup games tonight (Tuesday):
East: Eastern Canada semi-final — Sherbrooke Saints at Sydney Millionaires (Sherbrooke leads best-of-seven series 2-0).
West: Western Canada semi-final — Calgary Stampeders at Kamloops Elks (first game of best-of-seven series).

Memorial Cup games tonight (Tuesday):
East: None.
West: Western Canada semi-final — Prince Albert Mintos at Regina Pats (Regina leads best-of-seven series 2-0).

In the Maritime "Big Four" have had a disastrous season at the gate. "This," he says, "is largely due to steadily rising costs for players and equipment. Prominent sportswomen, backers of St. Mary's of the M.S.H.L. and Sydney Millionaires of the C. B. S. H. L., are eager to see a "Big Six" league in operation," Nickerson concludes.

Leafs And Red Wings Tangle Tonight

TORONTO, April 3 — (CP) — Any way you look at it, tomorrow night's fourth game is a big one in the best-of-seven Stanley Cup hockey semi-final series between Toronto Maple Leafs and Detroit Red Wings.

Leafs head into the game with a 2-1 edge in the series. If they win tomorrow night on home ice, they'll need only one more victory — and there's three chances — to get into the cup-final for the fourth consecutive year.

Reasoning in reverse, it's just as big for the Wings. If they lose this one, they'll have the formidable task of taking three in a row to take the series. But if they win, they'll have a slight edge from the dope sheet standpoint, with two of the other three games in Detroit and one in Toronto.

There was little news from the rival camps today. Each team had a light practice — Wings at Hamilton and Leafs at St. Catharines. The rest of the time they spent in relaxation.

Coach Tommy Ivan announced it is doubtful whether right wing Jimmy Peters will be in the Detroit lineup tomorrow night. He suffered a knee injury Saturday night when Leafs turned in a 2-0 home-ice victory.

Defenceman Jack Stewart, who went into Saturday's game with a

PHILADELPHIA, April 3 — (AP) — Robert Villemain, fast-punching French middleweight from Paris, tonight won a unanimous 10-round decision from Otis Graham, young Philadelphia Negro. Villemain weighed 156½ and Graham 156.

Saints grabbed a 2-0 lead early in the opening session by again proving opportunists through outplay and outshot.
