Local Briefs.

NARROWS OYSTERS at Vatchers. BAZAAR Dressmaker, Fall and Winter just arrived, Beer Bros. Go and hear Miss Earle sing "Where is my boy to-night," at Market Hall this evening.

MESSRS. Brewer, Cahill, James and Sutherland speak at Market Hall to-night. Go and hear them.

Do not forget the grand Scott Act Rally to-night in Market Hall. All welcome. No charge.

SALE of Fancy Glassware, etc., at C. I. Morrison's Rooms postponed till Friday evening, the 19th inst. See further notice.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Clay, Esq., Deputy Sheriff of Prince County, and David Montgomery, of Summerside, are in the city.

We are unfortunate enough to be without two of our printers to-day, through sickness, hence the reduced amount of reading matter.

Don't forget the Concert in Prince Street School, on Friday evening next, when "The Haunted House" will be rendered.

JOURNALISTIC.—We are pleased to see that our respected contemporary the Wesleyan appears in a more attractive dress than hitherto. We tender congratulations on this as also on the further improvements noticeable in its columns.

OWING to the strong southeast gale, which raises a heavy cross sea along the Eastern shore, the Stanley did not leave Georgetown till noon to-day. A large number of horses, which formed part of her cargo were not taken for fear of injury. The mail is not expected here till 10 o'clock to-night.

YESTERDAY afternoon a lad named Jenkins who was taking boards away from the sand papering machine, at Wright's factory, putting his hands too near the machine got caught, and his fingers were so badly crushed that one had to be amputated. Only for the promptitude of the man attending, in stopping the machine, the accident might have been very serious.

HON. SENATOR HOWLAND gave his lecture "Ourselves," according to announcement, in St. Patrick's Hall last night, in aid of the League of the Cross. There were about one hundred present. The lecture was well received. Complimentary remarks were made by J. W. McSwain, Esq., Edward Roache, Esq., and others, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Hon. Senator for his able effort on behalf of the League.

REV. SAM SMALL will arrive here on Wednesday evening next—and lecture the night following. The authorities have kindly consented to hold over the special train until 9.30 standard, so as to enable Mr. Small to leave and fill an engagement in New Glasgow, N. S., on Friday 20th. This will be favorable also to those of our Eastern friends who may attend. We hope to see a good representation from Summerside as they can take advantage of the early express train to return.

QUARTLY DOGS.—Since the snow has fallen we have heard of several cases of cruelty to dogs on the part of boys in the city. The cruelty is inflicted in connection with sleighs into which the animals are forced, and in showing the least disposition to molest the bestial. We have been authorized to state that the prosecutor of the S. P. C. A., will receive instructions to proceed against any persons who shall be guilty of this offence, and, on conviction, shall be fined according to the law directs.

We are sorry to say that it is impossible for us to add any more names to our list of city subscribers for THE DAILY GUARDIAN. All who desire to get it must buy it at Mr. Chappelle's. Our own boys are kept so late delivering papers that we cannot possibly expect them to carry any more. We are sorry yesterday's edition was still unequal to the demand and have increased to-day's issue accordingly. The DAILY GUARDIAN we have no hesitation in saying, has attained a city circulation which no other paper in Charlottetown enjoys.

OWING to the illness of his wife, Rev. Mr. Goggis was unable to take part in the service in Zion Church last evening as expected. He left by the express for Georgetown to take the Stanley for Fictou. Rev. Mr. Sutherland, the pastor, took the service himself. We were much pleased to see how easily the pastor and people of Zion Church seem to be working together, and the way the pastor is gathering the young men about him must be highly gratifying to his people.

The young man of Red Point are opening two nights each week studying agricultural chemistry, and other branches of which they feel the need, under the able leadership of the teacher, J. P. P. O'Brien, who deserves much credit for organizing such a class, which cannot fail to be beneficial to the farmers of the district. Tuesday evening, 9th inst., was the occasion of a friendly visit to the home of the Rev. R. H. Bishop, which made him happier by the many hearty expressions of good will and richer by the many more tangible offerings.

THE Woman's Missionary Meeting, held here last night in the Upper Prince Street Church, was quite a success. The chair was occupied by Rev. W. W. Brewer, who gave a stirring and appropriate address, and there were appropriate readings by Mrs. Johnson and Miss Holman, and a very suitable recitation by Misses Pickard and Tombs. The addresses by Revs. Mr. Sutcliffe and Spargo, were instructive. The report of the Secretary, Mrs. L. E. Prowse, gave great satisfaction. The collection taken up by the choir contributed much to the success of the meeting.

We hear that the Scott Act has been up for discussion before the League of the Cross, a society of young men in connection with St. Dunstan's congregation, holding weekly meetings in St. Patrick's Hall. We hear too that the Act is being ably championed. This is as it should be. We are indebted to a Roman Catholic, the son of an Irishman, (Senator Scott) for its existence. Some of the able speeches delivered in parliament at the time of its adoption were by Roman Catholics, prominent among them being Senator Howland and among his friends to-day is Cardinal Taschereau, the highest dignitary in the Roman Catholic church in Canada. We are sure in saying that no more celebrated or more creditable statute both to its author and enactors ever passed the Canadian Legislature, and we do hope the co-operation of Senator Scott in Charlottetown will do their utmost to continue as well as enforce the statesmanlike but much maligned measure which is now on our statute book.

A GENERAL meeting of the supporters of the Scott Act will be held in McLeod's hall on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Important business. A full attendance requested.

SIR.—It is rather too bad that Friday evening should be chosen for the sale of papers and magazines at the Y. M. C. A. Reading Room. There cannot possibly be an attendance of a majority of the members, in whose interests this sale is usually held. Both the Association and members will profit if the former financially by the selection of some other evening.

SAM SMALL.—Rev. Samuel Small, D.D., will deliver his thrilling lecture "From Bag Room to Pulpit" in the Lecture on Christmas evening, Thursday, Dec. 25th, at 8 o'clock. Fathers and mothers should not fail to hear this story. It has already led many to reformation and comforted thousands in the resolution to lead a sober and righteous life.
