Hampton and Vicinity

Daily calls for the services of the resident electrical contractors for wiring churches, residences, halls, factories and outbuildings, are being received as modern highways and electricity go forward hand in hand.

Mrs. Donald Cameron, teacher in Hampton School, enjoyed a week-end visit among relatives and friends in Emsdale.

Mr. J. Warren Villett has returned from an extended and enjoyable visit among relatives and friends in Cambridge, Mass., U.S.A.

Approximately 300 people partook of and thoroughly enjoyed the hot goose supper, held in Hampton Hall under the supervision of the Women's Institute on November 11th. Proceeds will greatly assist the work carried on continuously for school and community interests.

A number of motor vessels have loaded potatoes as the main part of their cargoes at Victoria wharf during the past week, and have departed for their destinations, to return for further loadings. While this old port of Victoria continues to remain the chief shipping point for this thickly settled farming district, it seems regrettable that practically a four mile detour thereto continues to remain compulsory, by reason of the plank having been removed from Victoria Bridge, the closest connecting link with this port.

At the Shur Gain Cavalcade in Tryon Hall on November 14th, two representatives from this school district, Misses Roma and Ramona Sherrin were adjudged the superior contestants in this class.

Those who have recently had modern water systems installed in their premises, include: Messrs. Gordon Villett, W.A. MacQuarrie, Boyd MacQuarrie, M.H. Cameron, Ralph Higgins and George Villett.

Dealers in potatoes, tractors, machinery, cars and trucks of the latest model, report a large volume of business passing through their hands during the season, demonstrating a good state of prosperity and progressiveness among purchasers.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. MacQuarrie the week-end of November 15th included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Annear and Mrs. Higg's, both from Montague, Mr. Robert M. Donald, Nine Mile Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. J.H. MacDonald, New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rogerson and son Gert, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Moore are visiting relatives and friends in Toronto, guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Harmon. Mr. Harmon is an electrical contractor. Mrs. Harmon is a sister of Mr. Rogerson.

Mrs. John Rogerson was hostess to Hampton W.A. on November 12th. Following the religious period and disposal of the agenda of business, a delightful luncheon was served by the hostess.

Church services throughout the field were fairly well attended on Sunday, November 6th, notwithstanding considerable illness in many families. Close attention and deep reverence prevailed as the old story was inspiring unfolded.

The record export of Canadian wheat and wheat flour was 407,600,000 bushels in the 1928-29 crop year.
