

Nicholson-Matheson Marriage Is Solemnized

A pretty summer wedding was solemnized at Frederickton Church of Christ on June 21, when Dorothy Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cuy Matheson, Breadalbane, became the bride of Harold Russell Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nicholson, Hunter River. Mr. Merle W. Zimmerman performed the double ring ceremony before a fern banked altar of multi-colored summer flowers and potted plants. The guest pews were marked with pansies and white streamers.

Mrs. Harold Sharp, aunt of the groom, was organist and played appropriate nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Alvin Rowledge, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Merle Zimmerman, who sang the "Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of white poidesoir satin. Her headdress was of a pillbox style, studded with pearls, and held in place a chapel length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and pink carnations.

She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Myron Matheson, as matron on honor, Miss Evelyn Weeks, cousin of the groom, and Miss Carol Matheson, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids.

The attendants wore princess style dresses of blue crystalet with matching picture hats and white mitts. They carried nosegays of white and blue centered carnations. The winsome flower girl, cousin of the groom, wore a short white nylon dress with a blue sash and blue and white matching hat. She carried a nosegay of white, pink and blue carnations.

The groom was supported by Mr. Allan Stevenson. The ushers were Messrs. Wesley Green and Myron Matheson, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Matheson chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of misty blue lace over satin with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. The groom's mother wore a navy dress with pale blue accessories and a corsage of white and pink carnations.

The wedding reception for ninety-five guests was held at the Summerlea Restaurant, Summerside. Miss Anna Matheson, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Wesley Green and Miss Vera Rogers ushered the guests to their seats.

For a honeymoon trip to Boston, the bride changed to a matching duster with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses feathered with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson will reside at Hazel Grove, where the groom is engaged in farming.

"I should like to teach music in schools", she says. At the same time, her daughter Mrs. Thomas Boyle 20, of Fenella, decided to study too. Mrs. Boyle has two sons, David 2, and Michael 1.

Said Mrs. Carew: "With all the family here I don't get much time to practise, but my fingers are getting more supple through daily exercises; I can't memorize as I used to, but my sight reading is still good."
