

Meeting at Donagh

A Very Much Interested People

Addresses by Ferguson, Peters, Shaw and Cumiskey.

The Government Condemned

The unrest and excitement which pervades the country, resulting from the passage of the ever-infamous Gerrymander-Mortgage Vote Bill, the Give-away at the Land Office, and the Peters Debiture Debt found expression at the meeting held in Donagh last evening.

The meeting was held in the district, and the kindest interest was evinced. The management from Charlottetown was quite large, including Messrs. Donald M. Kay, M. P., Cyrus Shaw, M. P., A. B. Warburton, M. P., H. C. McDonald, M. P., John A. Matheson, M. P., Angus McLean, Elias McDonald, J. J. Davies, W. C. Howick and others.

Resolved, That this meeting strongly disapprove of the measures of the present Government, and declare that the present representatives of the District, Messrs. Peters and Cumiskey, do not possess our confidence.

Notes and Comments. Referring to D'Alton McCarthy's recent attempt, the Empire says: "A lawyer knows a great many things, but when he is called upon to give evidence in a court of law, he begins to mislead the jury's attention."

Mr. Peters seemed to have three objects in view: (1) To clear up or gloss over the charges preferred by Mr. Ferguson; (2) To reiterate the reasons for his support of the bill; (3) To prevent Mr. Shaw from having an opportunity to speak after the bulk of the election had gone home.

The Gerrymander he attempted to get rid of by ridiculing Georgetown. The Mortgage Vote he first tried to defend, and failing in this, he pleaded that he would "never do it again."

Mr. Shaw was invited to speak. He said that he was in one respect a stranger—he personally knew very few of those who were in the room.

News Notes. The United States Treasury Department has been notified that $2,075,000 had been taken from the Sub-Treasury in New York for export.

SOME CUES FOR THE LADIES!

Selected from Correspondence of Beer Bros' Buyer.

Many of the new Dress Materials appear in half tones of decided colors, such as Cedar Brown, Heliotrope, Reseda and Powder Blue. Tweeds are also in good demand, large and small checks taking the lead.

The threatened introduction of crinolines seems about at an end. It is hardly possible in Charlottetown to realize the intensity of feeling aroused in England over this matter.

M. Worth (Paris), at a recent interview, is credited with saying: "I hope crinolines are not to be worn—but the enormous fullness in skirts may well demand some sort of support. How wide skirts are may perhaps be understood when I tell you we have just made a gown with 60 yards of silk in it." Sleeves threaten to be a very prominent feature. You may choose either the "bell-sleeve," one immense pouf of velvet, the leg of mutton or the slashed volon.

Shot Velvet Blouses are all the rage. Skirts are worn very short for walking, and generally with gaiters.

I am looking after the interests of our lady customers, and you can promise them the correct thing will be forthcoming.
