Semi-Annual Planned By Prov. H. and S.

The monthly meeting of the Provincial Home and School Federation was held in Charlottetown on Wednesday, October 20th. The Provincial president, Mrs. J. P. Lantz, presided.

At the meeting it was announced that Mr. K. A. Parker, Superintendent of the Charlottetown Schools, will be the special guest speaker at the Provincial Home and School semi-annual meeting which will be held on Wednesday Nov. 16th, at P. W. C. Charlottetown.

Mr. Parker will share some of his experiences gained at the recent Kellogg Foundation Educational Leadership Conference held in Edmonton. Other plans for the Provincial semi-annual meeting include a discussion on "Text books" led by Mr. Malcolm MacKenzie, Director of Curriculum, P. E. I. Department of Education.

During the afternoon session of the Provincial semi-annual meeting there will be a President's Workshop when presidents of local associations will have an opportunity to exchange ideas on programming and membership problems.

Among committee reports given on Wednesday afternoon was one on a brief recently presented to the Provincial Home and School, and other interested organizations to request the Government to appoint a Royal Commission to investigate all phases of education in our Province with special reference to financing.

CFCY Seeking Power Increase

OTTAWA (CP) - The CBC Board of governors at a public meeting here Dec. 1 will hear a request by the Canadian Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters for relaxation of a regulation governing the amount of spot or flash announcements by private radio stations.

Church leaders and the man-in-the-street were agreed on one thing - Margaret had made a noble decision which emphasized her high sense of duty and undiminished strong religious leanings.

WANT POWER BOOST
Two TV stations, CKCW, Moncton, N.B., and CFCY, Charlottetown, will ask for power increases.

PRESENTED WITH FUR COAT
Mrs. Annie MacNeill of 272 Fitzroy Street has every reason to smile in the above picture, for she is being presented with a Borgana fur coat by Mr. Russell Seller of Holman's Ltd. Mrs. MacNeill's name was drawn last Saturday. Customers to Holman's lingerie and accessory department were required to place their name in a ballot box in order to be eligible for the prize—a most appropriate one at this time of year.

Up To 1,200 Kiddies At Halloween Party Here

The annual Halloween Party sponsored by the Charlottetown Kinsmen Club was held last night for 1000 children in attendance.

The program started with a singing led by Mr. Earl Hennessey, assisted by Mr. Les Alexander at the piano. Mr. Fremont Archer introduced Sgt. Gus Dowling who spoke briefly to the kiddies on the proper observance of Halloween.

President Sam Robinson welcomed all on behalf of the club and Mr. Jack Martin of the National Film Board showed a number of films which were greatly enjoyed.

All three classes of the costume contests were filled to overflowing and the judges had a difficult job indeed to pick winners from the many unique and sometimes amazing costumes displayed.

The Kinsmen wish to acknowledge with thanks the press and radio for publicity, the judges for their efforts in selecting prize winners, the National Film Board for films and the Central Creameries for treats of ice cream.

Prize winners: Children under 16 years—most artistic - Gregory MacInnis. Most original - Billy Doyle, 2-Carol Doyle, 3-John MacInnis. Most original - Billy Love.

6-10 years—Most artistic - Betty Ann MacLellan, 2-Patricia Knowles, 3-Keith Matheson. Most original - Jerry Casford, 2-Lorraine Archer, 3-Clifford MacLaren.

10-14 years - Most Artistic - Eileen Gallant, 2-Patricia Smith, 3-Joyce Archer. Most Original - Charles Archer, 2-Bonita Mills, 3-Leonard Doyle.

Judges—Wally Scantlebury, vic Rutz, Andrew Westgaard, Marie R. Archer, 3-Clifford MacLaren.

Churchmen praised Margaret's decision—sighed with relief. "I thank God," said the Rev. Douglas Lockhart, an Edinburgh clergyman whose outspoken views against any Townsend match have been given wide publicity. "She will have the love and sympathy of Christians everywhere."

The Archbishop of Canterbury, spiritual leader of the Anglican Church, "has no statement" on the decision, said a chaplain at the London residence of the archbishop.

But this speedy reaction came from Dr. Leslie Wetherhead, president of the Methodist conference: "I think that it is very courageous, absolutely right, and I think it will endure her more than ever to the hearts of all our people."

"DARKAGE" ATTITUDE
But another minister, Rev. W. Percival Prescott, of the Buccleugh Evangelical Church, Edinburgh said: "I feel awfully annoyed at the way in which the clergy have built up an atmosphere of fear and intimidation against this marriage."

NOBLE DECISION
Church leaders and the man-in-the-street were agreed on one thing - Margaret had made a noble decision which emphasized her high sense of duty and undiminished strong religious leanings.

U. S. Committee To Probe G.M.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate anti-trust and monopoly sub-committee Monday announced plans for a full-scale study of General Motors.

This study of the world's largest manufacturer will be a part of the sub-committee's look at operation of the U. S. automotive industry.

The public hearings, to start Nov. 8, will run three or four weeks. Witnesses are to include GM executives, people who deal with GM and economists.

Senator Joseph O'Mahoney, Dem. Wyo., a sub-committee member, who has been designated to preside, said the sessions "are not an 'investigation' but a study."

Nevertheless, the senator said the staff has studied a number of complaints that General Motors and other automobile producers are forcing dealers to purchase unwanted cars, parts and accessories, and exercise dictatorial control over the type and size of their establishments, accounting methods, advertising and other business practices.

Brig. Lyon Discusses Seasonal Unemployment

"The big dent in seasonal unemployment must be taken up by industry and individuals", said Brigadier J. E. General Lyon, secretary of the Working Committee on Seasonal Unemployment, Guelph, Ontario, in a speech given at a meeting of the Charlottetown Rotary Club on Monday, October 31, with the Regent, Mrs. E. Earle MacDonald presiding. The meeting opened with prayer, then the presentation of the flag, after which the minutes of the previous monthly meeting were received and approved.

Mrs. Milton Bell reported that the teas catered to by the Chapter for the Canadian Press Association were quite successful and very favourable reports had been received.

It was decided to purchase a life membership in the P.E.I. Historical society. The education secretary reported that a number of books had ordered to be here for the official opening of the Queen Charlotte High School library.

Mrs. Lawson reporting on Empire and world affairs read a paper by a teen-age youth of his impression on visit to United Nations headquarters.

The Regent told of visiting I.O.D.E. headquarters in Toronto, and of her interest in learning of the large variety of work done by the organization across Canada.

The motion was approved that an invitation be sent to headquarters asking to have a National annual meeting held in P. E. I. in the near future.

The meeting was brought to a close by singing of the National Anthem.
