"YOUR DOLLAR BUYS MORE" at the HUGHES DRUG STORE. NAMES OMITTED—The nieces and nephews of the late Mrs. Stewart G. Inman were among those who sent double sprays to her funeral. SERIES CONCLUDE—A largely attended series of Evangelical meetings held in Mt. Kingston Baptist Church concluded on Sunday evening with a capacity congregation. The message was delivered by Rev. K. Hobson of Summerside who assisted Rev. Owen Cochrane through the entire series. A male choir directed by the organist, Mrs. Everett Holmes, and assisted by Mrs. Leigh Warren of Charlottetown, as guest soloist, made a splendid contribution to the musical part of the service. The social part through the week-day services was in charge of the Fairview, ong Creek and Clyde River choirs.

CHARLES BRADLEY The death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on May 29th of Charles Bradley in his 80th year. The late Mr. Bradley was born at St. Teresas where he resided all his life. He had been in failing health for the past months and six weeks prior to his death he received the shocking news of the tragic death of his son Frank in Rumbold, Me., a cross he bore with true Christian fortitude. He was a kind neighbor, ready and willing to help those in need. He will be sorely missed in the community where he worked so strenuously for the welfare of all but it is in the home, where the loss of a loving husband and devoted father will be most keenly felt. He was a valued member of the Holy Name Society of St. Teresas Parish also of the Knights of Columbus, Charlottetown. He leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing wife (the former Mary McQuaid of Kelly's Cross) the following daughters and sons: Marguerite, Mrs. Vernon Donnelly, Vernon River; Agnes, Mrs. Pius McDonald, Mt. Stewart; Laura, Mrs. Boyd McDonald, Toronto; Leonard, Chester and Emmet all of St. Teresas. A sister, Agnes, resides in Boston. His funeral which was under the direction of Bob Bradley, Charlottetown, Funeral Home, was largely attended. Requiem High Mass was said by Rev. J. B. Croken P.F. who also conducted services at the grave. Present in the Sanctuary were Rev. Mgr. Maurice McDonald, Rev. Urban Gillis, Rev. Fr. McCormick, and Rev. J. Smith. Honorary pallbearers were Clarence Redmond, J. A. McDonald, Frank Dunn, B. Callaghan, E. Doyle, H. Brothers, all members of the K. of C. Active pallbearers were Adrian Bradley, Urban Bradley, Tom Curran, John A. Mooney, George Smith and Joseph Gormley. May his soul rest in peace.

Achievement Days for five Poultry Clubs have been held at the following centres: East Baltic (Souris Exhibition), Morell, Wood Islands—Belle River, Mt. Buchanan and Baldwin's Road. Two members from each club over 16 years of age and making the highest score on the years work represented their club at the Rural Youth Fair on Sept. 16th. From these delegates two teams were selected on their ability to judge poultry and on general knowledge to represent the province at the Maritime Winter Fair and the Royal Winter Fair. The names of the winners of Friday's competition are as follows: Louis McGuire, Morell and arrangement. The gift table was attractive with bouquets of yellow roses, carnations, gold gladioli and chrysanthemums. Rev. Mr. Wayne gave a short address congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Webster on attaining their fiftieth wedding anniversary and joining with those present, in good wishes to the couple. Mr. Webster was formerly of Norboro, P. E. I. and Mrs. Webster is the former Ada Reeves of south Freetown, P. E. I. In 1906 they settled on a homestead north of Imperial, Sask. They have a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Webster and three grandsons, all living in Imperial. P. E. I. extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Webster.

MOTOR INDUSTRY SLUMP OTTAWA (C)—The value of motor vehicles and parts shipped from Canadian factories in 1954 dropped by $169,000,000 to a five-year low of $696,286,000 as the industry reflected the general decline in the Canadian economy. Employment and earnings also declined, the bureau of statistics reported Monday in an annual summary of the industry's developments.

Cards Of Thanks The family of the late Mrs. Annie Tuplin wish to thank all their friends and neighbors who helped in any way, also those who sent flowers, letters and cards of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement. I would like to thank Dr. Brown, Dr. Irwin, my special nurse I had the night I was so sick, all nurses and staff of the P.E.I. Hospital, also Misses Alice and Florence Dollar for the nice bouquet of flowers, all those who sent me cards, the Spring Vale W. I. for fruit and all my neighbors that drove my family in to see me. To each and every one, a most sincere thank you. Signed, Mrs. Howard Waite.

A scene in the Company's new Works at Guelph, Ontario... the largest power transformer plant in Canada. Here, transformers are built for the country's great electric power projects. Many thousands of mathematical calculations are involved in designing transformers, and the wide variety of other electrical equipment manufactured at Canadian General Electric's fifteen plants.

"That's why you should study maths, son" A close look at Canada today will quickly convince any young man that mathematics will play an important part in his future. Everywhere about him he will see the handiwork of the professional engineer whose training, based on mathematics, is contributing so much to this country's vast expansion. By the time many young Canadians have completed their education the use of electricity will again have doubled. The more abundantly electric power is produced and put to work in industry and homes, the higher will go our standard of living and the lower will go the costs of producing goods of every variety. In the coming years Canada's continuing development will offer the challenge and reward of engineering careers to thousands of young Canadians. For them there will be the satisfaction of participating in an important and skilful profession and the deeper satisfaction of contributing to the strength and prosperity of our nation. For over 60 years, Canadian General Electric has engineered and manufactured much of the electrical equipment that has played such a vital role in making this country one of the most highly electrified in the world. Today the Company continues to expand its facilities, not only for present requirements, but also to meet the needs of the Canada of tomorrow. Mrs. I-didn't-know When Mrs. Ellis lost her husband, she was faced with so many complex problems she didn't know which way to turn. Jim had planned the future with her—in conversation—and he had promised: "I'll see that everything is put in writing." There were days of anxiety searching for a Will. No Will was found, and the plans she and her husband had talked about vanished into thin air. Alarmed, she hurried to Jim's lawyer. He explained: "Your husband left no Will, Mrs. Ellis. Now the Law must take over. The Law is made to meet average situations. It has to be rigid and cannot be varied to meet your wishes, or your needs. I'm afraid that Succession Duties will be substantial, even more than the amount coming from life insurance. It will take very careful planning to safeguard Jim's business while providing for payment of the duties." Mrs. Ellis hit her lip. "Whatever shall I do?" "See a Trust Company, Mrs. Ellis. They have facilities and the experience to give you the help you need." Mrs. Ellis sighed. "I wish I'd insisted on Jim making a Will appointing a Trust Company as Executor. I feel so confused, and helpless." "Too many men put off making a Will, Mrs. Ellis, until—well, I wish more wives would take an interest in this." "I understand," said Mrs. Ellis. "I just didn't know." For assistance in planning your Will, write or telephone for our booklet "SOME REMARKS ON WILLS." THE ROYAL TRUST COMPANY 179 QUEEN ST., CHARLOTTETOWN • TELEPHONE 6336 G. F.
