

Pluck and Luck.

Pluck and luck are wonderfully different affairs, says Youth. Luck is a delusion. We cannot learn by luck; we cannot require anything worth knowing by it; it is all imagination. Pluck is a quality of character well worth possessing.

The boy or girl who waits on luck for success will wait long. On the other hand all who have pluck will either succeed or make a dignified and excusable failure. It is not pleasant to fail of success in anything that we attempt, but better far something good attempted, even if it be not achieved, than the idle, aimless waiting for a shower of good fortune that may never fall. Life is not a lottery wheel dispensing favors without any regard to the deserts of the winners. Life's best prizes are worked for, struggled for, toiled for and all the sweetest when secured by reason of the toil and struggle that has won them. Easily won, little worth might well be a proverb. We do not generally appreciate what it has cost us nothing to secure. Let us not be afraid of effort and push, but cheerfully put our shoulders well to our load in life. Having set some good aim before us let us work with pluck and perseverance, with push and patience for the object we desire. We shall be the better for the effort, even if the coveted prize be not grasped, and in all things the old couplet is worthy of remembrance:

"If at first you don't succeed, Try, try again."
