

JOE GREENE IS NOT JOE

OTTAWA (CP)—Joe Greene is not Joe Greene after all. He's John James Greene. But call him Joe anyway. Everybody else has since grade school when the new agriculture minister picked up the tag.

The question of Mr. Greene's real name arose when his department put out an official biography calling him John Joseph Greene.

"It's one of those darn things," a department official said. Mr. Greene was among those who approved the biography.

Mr. Greene, 36, an Ottawa Valley lawyer who got the agriculture portfolio in December, says the nickname arose from a comic strip character named Joe Green. He's been Joe ever since, even during his Second World War flying days, to intimates and others.

Anyway, the biography mistake was caught and now it's John James (Joe) Greene.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

TORONTO (CP)—Abitibi Paper Co. Ltd. had net earnings of $16,726,000 or 96 1/4 cents a share in 1965, compared with $17,933,000 or $1.01 in 1964. Sales, however, rose 5.2 per cent to $191,411,000 from $184,706,000.

In an interim financial report, the company said the profit decline was expected because of substantial pre-production and start-up costs incurred in 1965 in the company's expansion plans.

OTTAWA (CP)—A plan for reorganization of the public works department, giving regional offices direct responsibility for many functions now run by Ottawa headquarters, was announced Wednesday by Works Minister McIlraith. The five-year plan calls for the establishment of six regional areas—Atlantic, Quebec, Ontario, the national capital, Prairie and Western. Each would be given wide controls over its own operations.
