VARIETIES.

JOHN KNOX.—A very able and interesting estimate of the character and work of the great Scottish Reformer, will be found in the last number of the Westminster Review. We are glad to find that this talented quarterly is exchanging some of its dangerous speculations for so healthful a theme as this; and we confess that we have been both surprised and gratified to see such ample justice done to a man who has perhaps been more reviled by historians than almost any other of the good and great men whose characters they have delighted to blacken. The time is coming when even secular history will regard the old Scotch hero in his true light. "Posterity will do justice" to him as well as to others.

Fleeing with horror, from the thought that we are unfit to die, if God should take us this day and hour out of the world, keeps off the discovery of our true state more than any thing else, and fatally hinders our preparation.—Rev. T. Adams.

Truman Smith, of Connecticut, has perpetrated a very pretty bon mot. He has lately married a Southern lady, it will be recollected. Some one, by way of quizzing him, asked him how many slaves were owned by his wife. "She has but one slave," was the gallant reply of the Senator.

Mr. Hopkins being imprisoned in the Tower for declaring against some articles which the King's Majesty had sought to be established, and having written his apology in verse to the king, upon which followed his deliverance, a companion of his remarked, that "He went into the tower by reason but came out by rhyme."

A SIX-MILE SERMON.—All cannot be ministers, but all can preach by their example. A man who lived far from the sanctuary once complained to his minister of the distance, while many others had but a few steps to walk to enjoy divine ordinances. "Never mind" said the good pastor; remember that every Sabbath you have the privilege of preaching a sermon six miles long. All the residents around people you pass, you preach the Gospel to."

CHARACTER.—We may easily judge of a man's charater by what he loves—what he pleases him. If a person manifests pleasure in low and sordid subjects; in vulgar songs and debasing language; in the misfortunes of his fellows, or cruelty to animals, we may at once determine the complexion of his character. On the contrary, if he loves purity, modesty, truth,—if virtuous pursuits engage his heart and draw his affections—we may be satisfied that he is an upright man.

Wherever I find a great deal of gratitude in a poor man, I take it for granted there would be as much generosity if he were a rich man.

"Mr. Smith, don't you think Mr. Sheesicks is a young man of parts?" "Decidedly so, Miss Brown; he is part numbskull, and part knave, and part fool.'

Miss Dobbs says that the first time a coat-sleeve encircled her waist she was in a pavilion built of rainbows, the window-sills of which were composed of Æolian harps.

The chief who heads the rebellion in China, calls himself Great Tranquility!

CONUNDRUM.—When can a man swallow a door? When he bolts it, to be shure.

It is said that the difference between eating strawberries and kissing a pretty girl, is so small that it cannot be appreciated.

BOOKS.—In former time a kind of reed was used to write upon. That reed was called Papyrus. It is from this name that we speak of our paper. In former times also they wrote upon the leaves of trees: it is from this cause that we talk of the leaves of a book.

The Romans called a book liber. This word made us call a room where books are kept, a library.

In those old times, when skins were written upon, they were rolled up. This roll was called volumen. This old word has been kept by us as near as may be. We call a single book a volume.

The inner bark of trees was used for writing upon. The people who lived in England many hundred years ago, used to write upon the bark of the beech tree. They called this bark, boc. We have not changed the word much. We still talk of a book.

The following words, if spelt backwards, are the same. "Name no one man."

Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

"Pete, are you into them sweetmeats again?" "No, mama; them sweetmeats is into me."

Jeemes says that the quickest way to reach the "seat of war" is to sit down on a hornet's nest.

"Sambo, what an your opinion ob rats?" "Why, I think de one dat hab de shortest tail will get in de hole de quickest."

Astonishing efficacy of the Oxygenated Bitters,

IN A CASE OF EIGHTEEN YEARS' STANDING.
From Fitzhenry Homer, Esq., of Boston, Mass.
Boston, September 28, 1848.

DEAR SIR—It is now eighteen years since I was first troubled with the water-brash and derangement of the stomach. I have taken the advice of the best Physicians in this city and New York, in London, Paris, Germany, and Italy, followed their prescriptions, and tested the several springs and other springs in this country, the watering places of Germany, and elsewhere in Europe, and had found no relief. Since taking the Bitters I have not experienced a return of the Water-brash, which daily troubled me of late years to a very great degree. My appetite has returned; the extreme flatulence, severe constipation of the bowels, general debility, and sleepless nights under which I suffered, have entirely left me. Having found so great relief from this most discouraging disorder. I have recommended a trial of your medicine to many of my friends, who are now using it to great advantage. And I cannot refrain from writing to you in its favour and praise, for the good you have bestowed upon me, I consider to be great, and trust what little is in my scope to offer in extending the circulation of your "Oxygenated Bitters," will be done with grateful pleasure at all times.

Yours very respectfully
FITZHENRY HOMER.

The "HORTICULTURIST," And Journal of Rural Art and Rural Taste.

THE Subscriber, who has long been connected with Mr. DARBY, as one of the editors of the Genesee Farmer, has purchased the Horticulturist, so ably conducted by A. J. DOWLING, and after the conclusion of the present volume, it will be Published at ROCHESTER, N. Y., by Mr. DARBY, assisted by many of the best Horticulturists of the country, whose communications will materially add to its value. The ARCHITECTURAL DEPARTMENT will be conducted by gentlemen of ability and reputation.

To render the work accessible to a greater number, and consequently more popular, the price will be reduced to TWO DOLLARS per year, in advance, and at the same time various improvements made. Each number will contain a full-page engraving of some new, rare, and valuable fruit or flower, correctly colored from nature, by the best living artists in this line. This will be a new and important feature, in this country, and must commend it to the liberal patronage of both professional and amateur Horticulturists. As the number of colored plates we can furnish will be limited, from the care and time required in their preparation, those who wish the Colored Edition of the Horticulturist for 1853, will do well to order immediately. Price with colored plates, FOUR DOLLARS, in advance.

All who cultivate fruit or flowers, should read the Horticulturist, as it is devoted entirely to Horticulture, and its kindred arts, Landscape Gardening and Rural Architecture, and will keep its readers advised of everything new on the subject, either in Europe or America.

It will be our aim not only to make the Horticulturist superior both in style and matter to any work of the character in this country, but equal to any of the Horticultural Journals of Europe; and we confidently ask the aid and patronage of the Horticulturists of the country. The work is published monthly, and contains forty-eight large pages, without advertisements, stitched in a beautiful and appropriate cover.

WONDER OF THE WORLD.

Gravel Cured of five years standing.

Messrs. Curtis & Perkins, Bangor, Me.

Gentlemen,—I have been entirely cured of the Gravel, by the us of your Cramp and Pain Killer. I commenced taking the Cramp and Pain Killer in the Spring of 1847. I had suffered for two years previous; some four or five years of the time I suffered beyond all my powers to describe.

During this time, I have had medical aid, and tried various spe- cifics, but found very little relief until I obtained your Cramp and Pain Killer. In one month after I commenced using it, I began to grow better. I continued to use it for a year, all the time improving until I was entirely cured. MILES STAPLES.

Prospect. Me., Jan. 29, 1851.

We, the undersigned, are well acquainted with the above case, and certify to the above statement of facts.

CHARLES CLIFFORD,
HANNAH CLIFFORD,
STANTON ELLIS.

Doctor Toby, a regular practising Physician, of East Machias, under date of Bangor, February20, 1847:

"Please send me half a gallon of your Cramp and Pain Killer—it is the best medicine to cure what it is represented to, that I evereused."

The Doctor first used three ounces of it in his own case, for a severe sprain in the shoulder, caused by the upsetting of a stage, and found immediate relief, and has since used it in his practice.

Read the following. It speaks for itself.

RHEUMATISM CURED.

I certify that I was severely afflicted with Rheumatic pain in the small of my back, which entirely disabled me, so that I could not get up without the greatest pain and effort; nor could I walk without a cane, and but very little with. I purchased Doctor Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, or Liquid Opodeldoc, and several other remedies, without any relief. After suffering in this way about a Week, I purchased a bottle of Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by CURTIS & PERKINS, Bangor, and after three applications was entirely relieved, and from pain, and am now entirely well. I also cured a friend of mine, who had been suffering for a long time with a lame side, with the same bottle. I believe it the best medicine in the world, and am happy to add my testimony in its favor.

OLIVER TOWNE.

3. The North British Review (Free Church).
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal).
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

These works have been in successful operation for many years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from the numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they will confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, as in this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns, both in Great Britain and in the United States, such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel, (both by Bulwer), "My Pennsinular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, and the Reviews issued by Messrs. Scott and Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.
