Burlington and Vicinity

Mr. Leith Thompson, accompanied by his sister, Carol, and Allan and Susan Bell, all of Charlottetown, were visitors to Burlington and Kelvin Grove on Sunday, November 30th.

Miss Goldie Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Campbell, Burlington, left recently for Oshawa, Ont., to visit her brother, Francis, and has since been employed for the winter months. She was accompanied by a friend, Miss Grace Rayner.

Mrs. Wilfred L. Campbell is making a good recovery after an operation at the Prince County Hospital, and was able to return on Sunday November 23rd to her home in Irishtown. Her many friends will wish her continued improvement in health.

Mr. Brenton Cole, Spring Valley, accompanied by Miss Vergene Crozier and his sister, Mrs. John E. MacLeod, Irishtown, left on Friday November 21st for Saint John, N. B. to spend the week end as guests of his sister, Mrs. Elgin Mill and Mr. Mill.

Mrs. LeRoy Campbell and Mrs. Borden Campbell and young daughter, Gwendy, Irishtown, were recent week end visitors in Dartmouth and Halifax, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bell. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Bell, who will spend some time in Freetown as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stirling Andrews.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. B. MacLeod were waited upon at their home at Burlington on Thursday evening, November 27th, by Mr. MacLeod's brother elders of the Kensington Presbyterian Church, accompanied by their wives. Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod were presented with a beautiful chenille bedspread in honour of their recent marriage, and refreshments, a sing song and good talk added up to a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Heath Mayhew returned to their home at Margate on Tuesday, December 2nd from a two day trip to Halifax and Dartmouth. They were accompanied by their son, A. B. Clair Mayhew, returning to Naval Headquarters after a months leave, and his bride, the former Jean Larkin of Kensington. A. B. and Mrs. Mayhew attended by friends and neighbors will live at 99 Ochterloney St., Dartmouth. N. S. Miss Deanna Larkin, Kensington, also accompanied the party and will spend a week with her sister in Dartmouth.

On Thursday evening, November 27th, friends and neighbors of Margate and vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heath Mayhew, when the guests of honour were their son, Clair and his bride, the former Jean Larkin. Mr. E. T. Glydon capably acted as chairman and an address was read by Mr. Arthur Profit. On behalf of friends and neighbors, Messrs Ralph Adams and Keith Warren presented the "newlyweds" with a card table, a Kenwood blanket and a satin cushion. Several individual gifts were also presented and the names of the donors were read by Mrs. Arthur Profit. Clair adequately voiced his thanks on behalf of his bride, and all joined in singing, "For They are Jolly Good Fellows". Lunch was served and an enjoyable evening spent with cards and social intercourse.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bryanton was the scene of a happy event, when the popular couple were taken completely by surprise, when the one couple they were expecting on Monday, November 24th, their 25th wedding anniversary, became a lively party, of Spring Valley and vicinity. When all had arrived, Mr. Keith Harrington called the company to order with suitable remarks, and called upon Mrs. Roy Tuplin, who read an address. A gift of a silver tray and silver candle holders and candles were presented on behalf of neighbors and friends by Mrs. Everett Sudbury. Also in keeping with the Silver Wedding Day, was a beautiful piece of silverware presented on behalf of the Woodington family, by Mrs. Bryanton's sister, Mrs. Dorothy Bryanton. Mr. Bryanton made suitable reply on behalf of Mrs. Bryanton and himself. Lunch was served and a pleasant social evening was spent with cards and musical selections by Mrs. Roy Bryanton.

—A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Campbell, Burlington, on Thursday, November 20th, in honor of their potato pickers, helpers and invited guests. A goose dinner with plum pudding and all the trimmings was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. LeRoy Campbell. When all had been seated at the table, Mr. Arthur Stewart was called upon to thank all for their co-operation and to present gifts to two very young potato pickers, Mary Campbell, age 13 years who received a three pound box of chocolates and Charles Brown, age 12 years, who was the recipient of a leather billfold. When all had partaken of a sumptuous repast, dancing and a sing song was enjoyed by all. Music was furnished by James Simmons on the guitar, Willard Brown with the violin and Mrs. Willard Brown at the organ. At a late hour all departed for their homes after thanking Mr. and Mrs. Campbell for a most delightful evening.

The gift he'll thank you for all through the year...
