

Intramurals

By Blanchard R. Fags

Intramurals last week saw the famed Select squad trounce the Freshmen 6-3 and tie the Brood Street Sophomore's 4-4 after spotting them four goals. The Freshman game saw the debut of Mr. Duncan Hines himself, Scott "Sunaway" MacDonald. Scott is a Faye Dunaway fan and Faye, as we saw Wednesday night, is a fan of Scotty. Scotty, who was not trying all nite, immediately started logging ice time. This looks like a potential whip victim because showing up at an intramural hockey game is the first sign. It always happens to our newest defensemen, right, Kirk?

Ever since the whip caught Kirk, he has not played. Coach Bubble Jones says he hopes Scotty is baking cakes rather than buns. I can see the whip marks already. As for Kirk, rumor has it he is playing for the Engineers. With his lips he would fit in jsut fine with the Engineers. Speaking of Engineers, they finally won a game. This came after Steve "Chipmunk" MacLean with the colgate smile, had to gather his hand up off the sidewalk. As for the engineers, they went everywhere recruiting for players. They are made up of all sorts of losers. They have one player form the African National Hockey Team. They have a few players from the Broken Cue Cocaine Club. They even have a player from the Albino Anonymous Club. They even have a freshmen - old dirty Anus Orford. Anus's job on the firetruck is riding the water hard hoses. This man is the head of the engineers, and now I know why the rest of the engineers follow so closely behind Anus.

The team that the Engineers beat were the hapless Blanchard Hall team. Blanchard Hall seems like the typical pussy cats. Now let's be honest. What has Blanchard Hall ever won besides the powder puff derby or the odd bake show. If Blanchard Hall spent half as much time playing as they did looking at themselves, they would be in the N.H.L. I am really starting to wonder about these boys. I think you should start these boys The Vachon Cup Cakes. It is o.k boys, you are looking good. But who cares? Nobody goes to see ya play. I recently heard that a Blanchard Hall member ("Sweet Pea") got a hair out of place and he still is not off the injury reserve list.

One other thing I would like to mention is how come the Business Society does not have a team in the IHL. You read the SUN all the time and you see the Business Society shooting their faces off. Well, all I have to say is, talk to Vince and see if you can get a team. Then we'll see how good you are. I will credit your body a few bones and debit your head a few punches.

Victory at Dusk

By Agnus Funk

Chris "T.D." LeClair recovered a fumble in the Blanchard's End Zone, on the last play of the Women's Intramural Football Championship Game, to give Daze Students Football Machine a 6-1 victory over "Thunder Blood" Blanchard Hall Ladies.

Blanchard defensive line of Barb "Hunger" Rowe, Denise "Force" Moore, Janet "Bruiser" Brown and Pam "Tank" Kelley, Marie "15 pounds over" Alyward, Kathy "Stiffer" Campbell, Mad

"Lady" Driscoll, and Jackie "The Boss" Doran.

Blanchard scored their only point early in the game off 3rd down punt.

With three minutes to play in the game, Blanchard elected to pass on 3rd down and five, the pass was right on the money, but "Cement Fingers" Driscoll dropped the ball in Daze Students' end zone. Dazer's Machine took over the ball on their own five yard line and marched up the field led by "Swivel - hips"

Murphy and Lori "Gazelle" Arsenault to the Blanchard 25 yard line. Coach Doran elected to punt for tie ball game. The rest is history.

Highlights - Ruth "Dipsy Doodly" Palmer and Chris "Wide-Track" Driscoll were leading yard gainers for the afternoon; both had over 100 yards.

Chris Driscoll, when asked whether she would be coaching the Blanchard Hall Team next year, stated: "Well, everyone has got to be somewhere and I would rather be at Blanchard than anywhere else. I sort of thrive on pressure and always have. Maybe I'll change my mind after a couple of years."

Jackie Doran has signed a contract with "Selects" of Men's Intramural Football League. Jackie is replacing Tony Carroll who was fired head coach position. Mr. Carroll who was fired head coach position.

Mr. Carroll is now doing Head and Shoulders commercials for Cement Block Hairstyle Limited.
