Appin Notes.

The foundations of the new church building are progressing, but would be more quickly advanced if we had a little snow as hauling is very bad, and heavy stone can only be taken from the quarry to the ground in sleighs, and we are all very busy with other work.

On looking over and closely examining my former notes (in 2nd inst.) I find that they are applied to Appin Road, which is rather too small a limit for the shortage in the oat crop. The oats on Appin Road, as a rule, were a very fair crop, especially on farms that were highly cultivated. The land in this settlement is of excellent quality and only needs proper working and good attention to enable it to yield crops equal, if not superior to any to be found on the Island.

But the potato crop has turned out with most farmers far more satisfactory, but in settlements much older, and more advanced than this pretends to, the failure was with some very good farmers complete. We have heard of some who have taken fourteen bushels off five acres. One had the digger a day and picked only seven baskets. Others we have heard of who did not attempt to dig them. This is especially true of the crops on or near the south shore while even there marked, but solitary exceptions occurred of very fair and even good turns out.

In the case of the writer, our potatoes were plentitul, but small in size, so that they take up but very little cellar room. My next door neighbor had them much poorer, while a few others hardly ever had better crops. But before the horrid bug made its appearance our settlement "took the bun" for potatoes of very superior excellence, and we hope will soon do so again.

We who have suffered most feel blue enough about it, but we must only cheer up and look as pleasant as we can—or, as one has said, "bear up and look right onward." The good time a coming will be here some day, if we only live to see it. In the meantime, those who have good crops, or even fair crops, may laugh and grow fat.

ASTER.

That Christmas Money.

In the next few weeks people will talk Christmas more than all other subjects combined. And very many will count their pennies to see if they will go around. And some will realize for the countless things offered for sale "that money talks." Yes, and many a poor tired clerk will wish that they too could talk—back. To give unselfishly without thought of return is the true Christmas spirit; but how many times, oh human nature, will the thought occur this month "Now if I make so and so a Christmas present, wonder if I will get a return next year." The growing Christmas present custom comes hard among certain classes, who do not always have plenty of ready money; among farmers and people near towns, who keep poultry, the egg supply is a great source of Christmas money, because prices are always very high at this season. If the old hens will only shell out the eggs now, thinks many a mother, I can soon get back all the money taken for Christmas. The surest way we have heard to get it back is this: E A Hubbard of Hatfield, Mass., says, "About one year ago I sent $5 for six cans of Sheridan's Condition Powder to make hens lay, and in January my twenty-eight hens laid twenty-nine dozen eggs. I have sent $5 this year for six more cans and the Farm-Poultry monthly." Certainly that Christmas money came back in short order. Mrs. Warren Delano, Hampden, Me., said recently to the manufacturers of this wonderful Powder, "I send $6 for Farm Poultry two years, and six large cans of Sheridan's Powder. It is the very thing needed. Last winter my hens did so poorly I almost lost heart, but this year 50 hens have cleared me $125.00. "All for a little courage and Sheridan's Powder, her hens paid her more than double the average usually allowed per hen, so that her Christmas money returned manyfold. Husbands, a word to the wise is sufficient; Make your wives a Christmas present of six cans of Sheridan's Powder and take no other. For 50 cents I S Johnson & Co, Boston, Mass, will send two 25 cent packs; five packs for $1.00; or for $1 20, one large 2½ pound can of Powder, postpaid; six cans for $5.00, express prepaid. The best poultry paper—Farm Poultry—one year, and a can of Powder for $1.50. d12 d6i w1i

FROM Rev. Jas. Carruthers, Pastor of James' Church, New Glasgow.—Last year I purchased from Messrs. I can therefore recommend it to intending purchasers as an instrument that will in every way give perfect satisfaction.—New Glasgow, Dec. 10. d12tf

Physicians and so-called Dyspepsia Cures failed to give any benefit.

Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup

Brought relief and a permanent cure.

To the Dyspepsia Cure Co.

GENTLEMEN: For four years, I have had a complicated stomach and liver trouble, THE blood would rush to my head causing palpitation of the heart so badly that I fainted many times. After I had tried the best physicians, and two of the leading sarsaparillas, without receiving any lasting benefit, I was recommended to try your Dyspepsia Syrup. KIND One bottle did me so much good that I determined to buy six, under your guarantee to cure me or refund my five dollars. But FOUR bottles accomplished a complete cure and I am again in perfect THAT health; FREE FROM CONGESTION; NO RUSH OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD; NO PALPITATION OF THE HEART AND A RAVENOUS APPETITE. I sleep nicely and am growing fleshier than I would like to. Your medicine is SWEET and PALATABLE, far more pleasant than any of the many CURES remedies I have tried, AND IT CURES. I will gladly answer any inquiry concerning this statement. Yours respectfully,

MRS. EMMA BOW.

Read our BOTANICAL printed guarantee with every bottle. None genuine unless bearing NO ALCOHOL our trade mark, the Beaver.

Sold by all Druggists.
