Pair Arrested Following Seven Breaks In O'Leary

Thieves broke into no less than seven businesses houses in O'Leary Saturday night, making off with small amounts of drinks, cigarettes and money in almost every case. In addition a car belonging to Claud MacNeill, one of the victimized merchants, was stolen.

Police said last night that two men had been apprehended in connection with the breaks. Lodged in Prince County jail they will appear in Court this morning. Premises entered included: the Co-op Hatchery, B.C. Riley's, the Co-op feed room, Matthews and Ozon clothing store, Jelly's Department Store, Mr. MacNeill's, and MacWilliams and Turner's general store.

In most of the breaks the thieves entered by breaking a window, while one store was entered by forcing a back door.

Dr. Zielinski Speaks At Kensington Home & School

Dr. L. K. Zielinski was guest speaker at the January meeting of the Kensington Home and School Association, held in the High School Auditorium.
Dr. Zielinski described the educational system of Poland as he remembered it previous to World War 2. At that time the first four years were compulsory, then the pupils entered that would compare to our High School for eight years. The courses during the last two years were specialized at the end of which maturity exams were written and the students were prepared for University.

The meeting opened by singing O Canada, with Mr. Thomas Hall presiding. The minutes of an executive meeting held on January 9 were read. At that time Mrs. Russell Furness was appointed secretary for the remainder of the year, and Messrs Elmer Power and Roscoe Walker were appointed to the Library Committee.
Mrs. Elwood Clark reported cash in the bank amounting to $409.90. The executive are to appoint a committee to investigate the fire hazards of the Elementary School.
Mrs. Hillz room was awarded the cup for parent attendance. The next meeting will be held on February 20 when a film will be shown. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Keith Waite, Mrs. W. S. MacLean, Mrs. L. K. Zielinski, Mrs. Elwood Clark, Mrs. Gerald MacKenzie and Mrs. Robert Carruthers.

Gather In Ankora For Pact Talks

By JOHN EARLE
ANKARA, Turkey (Reuters)—U.S. State Secretary John Foster Dulles and leaders from Britain and four pro-Western Middle East nations converged on Ankara Sunday night for a key meeting of the Baghdad Pact ministerial council.
The meeting, described as the most important since the alliance was founded two years ago, is being attended by Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, Pakistani Premier Feroz Khan Noon, Iranian Premier Manushar Eghbal, Turkish Premier Adnan Menderes and former Iraqi Premier Nuri al Said—now an elder statesman and heard of his country's delegation to the council.
Russia has violently criticized Dulles' attendance as an "observer". Soviet critics claim Dulles went to Ankara to force other countries to accept U.S. missile bases.

TIGNISH

Mrs. Herman Cahill, Kildare is visiting with her daughter Mrs. Gerald Handrahan and Mr. Handrahan, Tignish.
Friends of Mr. George O'Brien will be sorry to hear he fell and injured his hip recently. Mr. O'Brien has been a guest at the O'Brien House in Tignish for about five years and previous to this time was a farmer and resided in Roseville shortly before Christmas. Mr. O'Brien went to Newton Mass., to visit for the winter months with a niece, Mrs. Mary Lakin. His many Tignish friends hope he soon recovers from his injury and will once more return home.
Mr. Fred Fitzgerald who spent three weeks visiting relatives in Revere, Mass., returned to his home on Saturday night.
Fire of unknown origin did extensive damage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gaudet, Phillips Street, Tignish on last Sunday morning.
About eight o'clock Mrs. Gaudet was awakened by the crackling of wood burning, and was horrified to find the room full of smoke and flames coming through one of the walls.
Firemen from Tignish and Alberton were called and responded promptly, and with the assistance of neighbors managed to keep the fire confined to the interior and due to this other homes near-by were saved from destruction.
A few household articles were saved, but the loss is a great one to the Gaudet family who have four children ranging in ages from about three months to five years. A present time they have gone to live with Mrs. Gaudet's parents Mr. and Mrs. Orville Chaisson, St. Roch.
Mr. Jerome Gaudet, Tignish, is a patient in City Hospital, Charlottetown, suffering from injuries he received to his knee, when he slipped and fell at his home. Jerry's many friends are hoping and praying for his speedy recovery.
Mr. Joseph E. Bernard, Nail Pond is a patient in Western Hospital, Alberton, where he is receiving treatment for injuries he received when he fell on the ice at his home recently.
Lac David McInnis, Mrs. McInnis and their two children who recently returned from overseas where David served for three years in Germany, and with the Canadian Air Force. Mrs. McInnis, a native of England, is paying her first visit to Canada and their Tignish friends extend to them a hearty welcome, and hope Mrs. McInnis will like our Island Province.
Mr. Claude Morrissey, Toronto, Ontario, has come to Tignish, after an absence of twenty-five years to visit for sometime with his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Morrissey, and his sister Mrs. Fraser. Needless to say Claude is receiving a rousing welcome from all the people.
Word from Mrs. Percy Morrissey, North Cape is that she is making a speedy recovery, after a major abdominal operation, performed in City Hospital, Charlottetown. Mrs. Morrissey's friends are happy to get this good news.
Mrs. John F. Arsenault, Charlottetown, is spending sometime with her mother Mrs. Urban M. Gaudet, also her sister, Miss Josephine Gaudet.
Miss Dorene Doucette, Toronto, Ontario, is spending a few months with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Aldrie Doucette, Tignish.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arsenault, Wellington, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Arsenault, Ascension.
Mrs. Loretta O'Connor, Tignish spent a part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Bernard Morrissey and Mr. Morrissey, North Cape.
Messrs. Leonard and Chester Handrahan, Toronto, Ontario, are spending the winter months with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Handrahan, Ascension.
Dr. Stephen Dubicane has returned to his medical practice at Tignish and Alberton, after a weeks vacation in Ottawa and Montreal, Canada. During Dr. Dubicane's absence, Dr. Hellmich of Alberton administered to the sick in the Tignish area.

P. M.'s Plane Is Diverted

TORONTO (CP)—Prime Minister Diefenbaker, his transport department Viscount diverted from Ottawa because of slippery runways, landed here Sunday night at 9:53 p.m. EST.
His office in Ottawa said he would probably continue by train but plans were not definite.
Two days of rain and snow caused the diversion from Ottawa's Alports Airport to Toronto's Malton Airport. Mr. Diefenbaker was returning from a Winnipeg speaking engagement.

C. N. R. Planning New Terminal At Corner Brook

MONCTON (CP)—The CNR announced Sunday plans for a new $1,500,000 terminal at Corner Brook, Nfld.
Douglas V. Gonder, CNR vice-president of the Atlantic region, said the terminal will make Corner Brook "a major railway centre in that province."
Details of the construction, expected to take two years, were given by E. J. Cooke, manager of the railway's Newfoundland district.
The yard will be built on land reclaimed from the sea, on what is now the water of Humber Arm. To do this, more than a half-million tons of rock fill is needed.
The rock, dumped into the harbor, will extend the present waterfront 200 feet from a distance of a mile. The yard will have a total capacity of 470 cars.
Other new facilities will include a turntable, oil bunkers, sand tower, diesel shop, sandhouse and storage buildings.
Date for the start of the project was not announced.

Expect Election Any Day Now

By H. L. JONES
Canadian Press Staff Writer
VANCOUVER (CP)—Opposition Leader Lester B. Pearson says he expects a general election "any day now" and the Liberals will be ready for it when it comes.
The 60-year-old former diplomat, newly-elected Liberal leader, stressed preparedness Saturday in winding up a British Columbia visit that many of his followers saw as the opening shot of the election campaign.
He left early Sunday by plane for Winnipeg after repeated predictions that an election is not far off.

W. Prince All Stars Beat Aces

The West Prince All Stars swamped the Summerside Intermediate Aces 10-5 in a crowd pleasing exhibition game in the Alberton Rink Saturday night. The All Stars kept the fast skating visitors in check throughout the game and were leading 4-0 at the thirteen minute mark in opening period. C. Gaudet was outstanding for Summerside as he accounted for four of their markers and assisted on the fifth, scored by P. Phillips.
For the Aces Wes Hardy and veteran Tignish player, Alphonse Richard, got the hat trick with M. Kinch earning a pair and S. Tibbo and G. Matthews singles.
The West Prince squad were leading 5-2 at the end of the first frame, 7-5 in the second round and upped their score to 10-5 in the final period of play. Blair Bernard of O'Leary put up an excellent game in the All Stars net with 34 stops. W. Campbell Summerside goalie had 42 stops to his credit.
Accustomed to artificial ice the Summerside players were more hampered that the home team by the soft ice caused by the extremely mild weather. Two of their regular players, P. Pope and J. Phillips, were missing from their lineup. The game was loudly cheered by the large attendance of fans and a second game is planned for next Sat. The only penalty of the game handed out by referee Larry Profit, went to S. Phillips of Summerside.

Welcome To Lady Fane After Long Absence

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Francis opened their charming home at Lady Fane to friends and relatives who gathered in honour of Irving Rogerson who was spending the holidays with his Mother at Tryon after an absence of nineteen years. When in young manhood Irving left this province to join his uncle in the West where he immediately became engaged in farming.
After renewing old acquaintances he was escorted to the living room by George Sturdy. An address was given by Frank Cobb and a well filled purse was presented by Lewis Francis. Although taken by surprise Irving thanked his friends in a few well chosen words for their kindness and expressed how glad he was to be home once again. After singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows, instrumental music was furnished by Messrs. Hilliard Francis, Adrian Rogerson and Lindell Gamble accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy Howatt and Elsie Francis.
In the course of the evening a fine display of step-dancing was given by Hillard Francis, Frank Harvey and the guest of honour. A bountiful lunch was served by the ladies after which one and all thanked Mrs. Francis for her kind hospitality in opening her home for this occasion. All departed wishing Irving bon voyage and expressed their wishes that he would return soon bringing his wife and family with him.

Home To Report On Moscow View

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson came home from Moscow Sunday to report on efforts to arrange talks between the United States and Russia. He said he does not seem to have made any progress.
His return coincided with evidence that Russia not only is standing firm on all its off-rejected proposals for East-West negotiations but may in fact be raising its terms.

PAIR WED AT 80

WORTHING, Eng. (Reuters)—William Davison and Nellie Gregory got married Wednesday after having broken off their courtship. The split-up occurred in 1900. Bride and groom, both 80, hadn't seen each other in 54 years when they met recently and romance flowered again.

P. E. I. Young Conservatives Attend National Convention

On Friday January 31st, over 500 delegates representing the Young Progressive Conservatives of Canada will convene at Ottawa for a three-day convention to be held at the Chateau Laurier Hotel. The conference will be sponsored jointly by the Y.P.C.S. and the Progressive Conservative Student Federation.
In addition to being an annual meeting and the election of officers for both associations an extensive program has been arranged. Among the speakers who will address the conference will be Prime Minister Diefenbaker, Hon. Sidney Smith, secretary of external affairs; Hon. Leon Balcer, solicitor general and Hon. George Newlan, minister of national revenue.
Speaking in reference to the upcoming conference Thomas M. Bell, M.P., said over the weekend, "This is the first time that the young people of our party have ever had a national convention entirely on their own rather than as a part of the annual meeting of the senior association. This is a further indication of the stress that our party places on the voice of youth and its councils."
At the convention two candidates will contest the election for the office of president to succeed Mr. Bell. One will be Doug Jung, M. P. for Vancouver Center, the first and only Chinese Member of Parliament and who is the present vice president of the National Young Progressive Conservatives. Mr. Jung is by profession a lawyer and in the last Federal election defeated the minister of national defense.
George Hogan, car dealer of Toronto will be the other candidate. He has been active in Y.P.C. work for the past ten years and is a former president of the Ontario Y.P.C.S. During the last Federal campaign he was executive assistant to John Diefenbaker.
There have been five past presidents of the association and three of them are now Members of Parliament. Dave Fulton, minister of justice, citizenship and immigration; Leon Balcer, solicitor general and retiring president, Thomas Bell of Saint John, who is parliamentary assistant to the Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Delegates from this Province who will leave on Wednesday to attend are:
Kings county—Leo Rossiter, Morell; Roddie Pratt, St. Peter Bay.
Queens County—Edwin MacRae (and Mrs. MacRae) Charlottetown; Thomas Doyle, North Bennett; Arthur Brown, York; Bennett Carr, Charlottetown; Arthur R. MacInnis, Charlottetown; Lloyd McPhail, New Haven Peter Driscoll, Mt. Stewart; John Smethurst, Marshfield; Gerald Foster, Charlottetown.
Prince County—Ronald Kennedy, Kensington; Leslie Clark, Kensington; George Key, Jr., Summerside; Mrs. Eleanor Key, Summerside; Miss Dorothy MacPhee, Summerside; W. Chester S. MacDonald, Summerside; Mrs. Elaine MacDonald, Summerside; Earl Atkinson, Alberton; Layton Green, Albany.
