ST. PAUL'S SCHOOLROOM.—Last evening an interesting programme was presented to the large and intelligent audience assembled in the above room, in which vocal and instrumental music, readings and some selections by a number of young boys, who have recently been in training for the choir, were given. The singing was of a high order, several of the performers were encored and applauded. Mrs. Roome sang “Jessie the Maid of Dundee” exceedingly well, and was heartily encored. Misses Wade and Crabbe gave the beautiful duet of “Weeping Hope,” which was also heartily encored. Miss Agnes Longworth's solo, “Hearst Thou” was well executed, and that of Mr. H. J. Palmer, “The Little Hero,” was sung in very good voice and style. The instrumental rendering of “Home Sweet Home,” by Mr. Vinnicombe, was grand, and Miss Mary Palmer's solo, “Negro Dance,” was also well executed. The boys exceeded the expectations of all, and reflected great credit upon their instructor, Mr. Ross. They performed their respective parts with a correctness seldom found among more advanced singers. The readings were well delivered, and contributed to the pleasure of those present. The performance was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Ten American clergymen will be present, including Dr. Phillips Brooks, of Boston. Among those who will take part in the consecration will be Bishop Medley, the octogenarian Metropolitan of Canada, the Bishop Coadjutor of New Brunswick, and the Bishops of Maine, Ontario and Quebec. Rev. Canon DuMoulin will preach the sermon.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

The C. P. R. Obtains a Charter

BUDGET ON TUESDAY.

OTTAWA, April 20. The House was occupied nearly all day passing Government bills through committee of the whole. Immediately after recess an important division was taken on a bill granting the C. P. R. a charter to build a railway in the Province of Quebec parallel to a line being built by the C. P. R. The latter company opposed the charter, and considerable interest was taken in the result of the vote. The division resulted in a charter being granted—86 to 57. The vote was entirely non-partisan.

The Imperial Patient—Better.

LONDON, April 20. A despatch from Berlin says the Emperor's fever has further diminished. His general condition is more satisfactory. Dr. McKenzie considers the Emperor suffering from a mild attack of pyæmia. Yesterday he inserted an aluminum tube, being lighter than the silver one which the Emperor was using.

News from Toronto.

TORONTO, April 20. Bev. B. Longley, pastor of the Queen Street Methodist Church, left suddenly for the States this morning, and his wife and daughter will follow in a few days. This movement has completely shattered the people's belief in his innocence. The publication of the charges of immorality against him in the Press this morning created a great sensation throughout the city.

Arrest of Judgment.

HALIFAX, April 20. In the Supreme Court this forenoon, the counsel for Preepor, convicted of murdering Peter Doyle, moved for an arrest of sentence, and presented several affidavits to the effect that some jurors had expressed their opinion that the prisoner's guilt before the trial was finished, and that the jury had been unduly influenced by outside parties during the progress of the trial. Case continued.

Troubled Ireland.

DUBLIN, April 20. The appeal of Mr. Gilhooly, M. P., sentenced to three months' imprisonment for offences committed under the Crimes Act, resulted in the term of imprisonment being reduced to three weeks. The sentence of Mr. Cox, M. P., has been reduced from four months to three months.

An Amnesty.

BERLIN, April 20 (5.45 p. m.) An Imperial decree, dated April 19, has been issued, granting amnesty to all soldiers and sailors sentenced for civil offences, resistance to officers of law, or violation of public order, as well as soldiers and sailors sentenced for various offences.

City Council.

An emergency meeting of the City Council to consider the amendments made to the City Bill by the Legislative Council was held yesterday afternoon. All members of the Board except Councillor Horne were present.

After the object of the meeting had been explained by His Worship, the Councillor Byrnes moved the following resolution, which was seconded by Councillor Morris:—

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Council, ward representation, as at present, should be retained.

Councillor Crabbe moved in amendment, seconded by Councillor McLean,—

Resolved, That this Council request the members of the House of Assembly to pass the amendments made to the City Bill by the Legislative Council, viz., the electing of the City Council by the whole city, by the same vote as at present in use for the election of the Mayor; also the enfranchisement of unmarried women and widows.

The amendment was then put and carried on the following division:—

Ayes—Crabbe, Small, T. A. McLean, Davison, McRae—5. Nays—Morris, Byrne, Douse, McCarron, 4.

A delegation of citizens, from a meeting held in the Legislative Library, then presented the following resolution, unanimously passed by them at said meeting:—

Resolved, That the amendments made by the Legislative Council to the City Bill, which provides that the City Council shall be elected by the whole city, instead of by wards, as at present, meets with the approval of the meeting.

Council adjourned.

The Bishop-Elect.

Dr. Frederick Courtney, now under appointment to the Bishopric of Nova Scotia, preached his farewell sermon in St. Paul's church, Boston, on Sunday after an unusually successful pastorate of six years. As his text in the morning he took the last two verses of the second chapter of the second epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians:—“Now our Lord, Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which had loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.”

Dr. Courtney closed by saying: “That which Paul said in the text is just as true for us today as it was then. May you all have the same comfort and consolation that the Thessalonians had. To you who have been my special charge may God give special peace. I ask you to remember the words I called your attention to the first time that I ever preached before you, namely, that ‘they who worship him must worship him in spirit and truth.’ The great object and purpose of the church is worship and to worship in spirit and in truth. I beg of you all to remain firm members of the church. I beg of you all to cultivate the spirit of kindness toward new comers, and to do all you can to make them believe that the house of God knows no distinctions. Be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted for giving one another, even as God has forgiven you. May God bless you all, and may God grant us all a happy entrance into his everlasting kingdom after we have done our work faithfully and well.”

The Reply to Mr. Davies.

[St. John Sun.] The great speech of Mr. Davies against the fishery treaty required no answer from the government side. It was a rattling address, we read, proving that the treaty was a complete give away, and thoroughly discrediting Sir Charles Tupper as a diplomatist. It was a long speech too, and would perhaps have required a long answer if Mr. Davies had not before taking his seat casually answered it himself. The crushing reply of Mr. Davies to Mr. Davies will be found in one short sentence, in which he simply stated that he hoped the treaty would be ratified. If Mr. Davies really desires a ratification of the treaty he cannot believe it to be a disgraceful and injurious treaty. If his arguments against the measure have failed to convince Mr. Davies they are not worth serious consideration. There is not in the world a more appreciative hearer of Mr. Davies than is Mr. Davies. The fact that his argument was lost on this portion of his audience proves more strongly than anything else could that there was nothing in it.

A Tragic Death on the Stage.

The New York Herald's London special says: Advice from Melbourne bring news of the dramatic death of Frederic, the singer, so well known in America. He was playing at the Princess theatre, Melbourne, in the character of “Faust,” personating Mephistopheles, the fiend, and had to descend on a slide and disappear from the stage to the infernal regions. When Mr. Federic's head was almost on a level with the footlights he seems to have felt a mortal pang, for he was seen to grasp the edge of the open stage, and a moment after he fell from the moving trap on which he was standing, and expired while being borne to the green room. The coroner's verdict was death from heart disease. At the burial, Rev. T. H. Goodwin was so overcome with emotion that he fell in a dead faint beside the grave, and Charles Warner, the actor, had to finish the service.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as “bright as a button.” It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind, mark 8 and 2 wky.
