IN MEMORIAM

MR. JOSEPH BOLGER

The death occurred at his home in the parish of Hope River on the 7th of December, 1951, of Mr. Joseph Bolger at the age of 64 years. He suffered a heart attack two weeks previously, but his passing came as a shock to his family and friends. He was the son of the late Patrick Bolger and Catherine Cosgrove, who predeceased him a number of years ago.

The late Mr. Bolger was a man of many sterling qualities of heart and mind, possessing a personality at all times pleasing. He had a high regard for the principles and concepts of the Christian way of life and was always ready to give a helping hand, particularly to those in need.

Through thrift and industry he maintained together with his wife that ideal of home and family life which will linger in lasting tribute to his memory. He was never happier than when he was entertaining his neighbors and friends. His hospitality will long be remembered by all those who knew him.

During his illness he was skillfully attended by Dr. Murchison of Hunter River and most tenderly cared for by his devoted daughter-in-law, Helen, R.N., Mrs. Vernon Bolger. All that was humanly possible was done to restore him to health. He was faithfully visited by his pastor, Rev. Earl Dalton, from whose hands he received the last sacraments of the Holy Catholic Church, of which he was a worthy member.

In manifestation of the esteem in which he was held, there was a large procession of friends joined the funeral cortege in a final tribute of love and respect. The funeral procession took place on December 10, 1951 from his home to St. Ann's Church, Hope River, where a solemn high Mass of requiem was celebrated by his nephew, Rev. Francis Bolger, assisted by Rev. Clarence Pitre as Deacon and Rev. Earl Dalton as sub-Deacon. The services at the grave were conducted by Father Bolger, where the mortal remains of a loving husband, father and brother were tenderly laid to rest in the family plot. "To live in the hearts of those we love is not to die."

He is survived by his sorrowing wife, the former Mary McKenna, one daughter, Sister Mary Josepha of the Sisters of Martha, Mount St. Mary's Convent, Charlottetown, and three sons, Vernon, Patrick and Thomas. A son Gerald predeceased him about nineteen years ago. Also surviving is one brother, Thomas, of Hunter River, and three sisters, (Mary Jane) Mrs. Bernard Fitzsimmons, Michigan, U. S. A.; (Katie) Mrs. Frank Greenan, Newton, P.E.I.; (Annie) Mrs. Clarence Reid, Stanley Bridge, P.E.I., and a number of nieces and nephews who will miss him greatly.

The pallbearers were Michael Murphy, Alfred Parsons, Thomas Reid, Louis Walsh, Leander Reid and Damien McGuigan.

The many Mass cards, messages of sympathy and spiritual bouquets are silent tributes of love and sympathy.

The funeral was under the direction of Mr. Philip Monaghan, Kinkora.

May his soul rest in peace.

"Little Pitchers" Have Big Eyes, as well as big ears! Last night Joan's little girl said—"Mommy, why is Granny's wash whiter than yours?" Well, it didn't take Joan long to find out from Granny that it was Blue that did the trick! Just a swish or two of Blue in the final rinsing, for it's Blue that prevents clothes turning yellow. There's no pure white without blue in it. (I can remember that from my school-days, can't you?) And, when you think that Blue costs just a few cents a month, it's certainly worth it—isn't it? For Blue is safe as safe can be for your finest fabrics . . . and it keeps them snowy-white!

Find Cake Names Often Confusing

LONDON, Feb. —(CP)— It's high time the bakers of Britain got together and made life more simple for the customer, says the trade paper, Baker and Confectioner.

Within as little as a 20-mile distance, such things as "a Maid of Honor" can mean anything from an almond-flavored tart to a cup-shaped cake complete with icing and glace cherry. And a "bun loaf" ranges from a glorified currant bun to a heavily-spiced fruit loaf.

Swiss buns, they say, almost yodel wth freedom and every baker seems to have a different idea on the make-up of the Banbury cake.

Trade suggestion is a cake-naming board that would set definite recipes for each name. "After all," said the paper, "for a butcher, a sausage is a sausage from Land's End to John O' Groats."
