The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that bodily health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and an greatly benefited."—Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.
"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health."—Miss Thirza L. Grear, Falmouth, Md.
"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from

General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved."—Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.
"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedies."—F. A. Pinkham, South Molunness, Me.
"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect."—Rev. S. J. Graham, United Brethren Church, Buckhannon, W. Va.
"I suffered from

Nervous Prostration,

with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 80 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Lucy Moffitt, Killingly, Conn.
Mrs. Ann H. Farnsworth, a lady 79 years old, So. Woodstock, Vt., writes: "After several weeks' suffering from nervous prostration, I procured a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken half of it my usual health returned."

Books, Magazines, Pamphlets, &c.

"Wallace's Monthly" for September is at hand. To all horsemen it is as interesting as ever.
"A. I. D. B. in South Africa," published by John Lovell & Son, Montreal. This is a rather interesting and well written story. There is some very good philosophy in the love passages between Dr. Fox and Miss Kate Darcy. On the whole, it is well worth the expense of a leisure hour or two. The author is Louise Veselich-Sheeldon, well known as the writer of "Yankee Girls in Zululand," and the book is No. 11 of Lovell's Illustrated Series. The illustrations, by the way, are good.
The "Prize List" for Prince County Exhibition, which takes place at Summerside on the 25th September, has been received.
"The Curse of Carne's Hold," by G. A. Henty, is a very good tale of adventure. The hero of the story, broken-hearted and despairing, flees to the Cape of Good Hope, determined if possible to lose his life in battle. He joins the Cape Mounted Rifles, and in active service finds the best solace for his dejected spirits. Romance is again infused into his life by his success in rescuing from the Kafirs a young and beautiful lady, whom he gallantly bears on horseback beyond reach of their spears. From this point the story takes up novel and startling developments. The hero's affairs in the old country are adjusted by a surprising discovery, and "The Curse of Carne's Hold" is brought to a happy and satisfactory conclusion. The book abounds in thrilling situations. It is "No. 10 of Lovell's Copyright Series."
"Leland Oliver, by Justin McCarthy, M. P., is No. 66 of Bryce's Library. It is needless to say that this novel is in good style and well worth reading. Published by William Bryce, Toronto.
"A Winter in Boston,"—Correspondence by "Nona"; Charlottetown, P. E. I.: John Coombs printer and publisher. The typography of this pamphlet is beautiful. But apart from the fact that the letters were smoothly written and their tone distinctly religious, we cannot see in them any special reason for their publication—except it may be for private circulation. The information they convey about Boston is infinitesimal.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Professor of Agriculture.

DEAR SIR,—Some discussion has lately been going on among our provincial editors about the contemplated change in the teaching staff of Prince of Wales College—chiefly turning on the qualifications which ought to be possessed by one aspiring to a teacher's place in the highest educational institution of our in many respects somewhat peculiarly situated province.
While it is pretty generally conceded that any one appointed to the position in question should be endowed with all the ordinary attributes of a good instructor of youth, there are also a good many of those among us whose opinion is really worth having, who consider that, in a province such as this, where agriculture is the mainstay of the inhabitants, at least one of the professors in our chief public school should know a good deal concerning agriculture, agricultural chemistry and natural history.
These subjects have already obtained a place on our list of branches to be taught, and such being the case, why not appoint a person to teach them?
Above all, if among the Island teachers one can be found, who, "all else being equal," is also capable of teaching the branches I have enumerated, let him be appointed to the position, and do not be ever importing aliens in the true sense of the term for places which can be filled to at least equal advantage from among ourselves.
Yours truly,
FIAT JUSTITIA.
Charlottetown, Sept. 9, 1889.

Buried in Landslides.

TERRIBLE DESTRUCTION CAUSED BY CLOUD-BURSTS AND FLOODS IN MEXICO.

A recent City of Mexico despatch says: A destructive landslide is reported at Ixcapancan, state of Hidalgo. For a week previous to Aug. 25 rain had fallen incessantly, and on Sunday night it culminated in a cloudburst, which caused streams to overflow their banks and loosened the earth on the mountain in rear of the iron works of Richard Henry. At midnight the slide occurred, bringing down with it the huts of the laborers who had built on its side, and covered many others and their inmates. The night was very dark and rain fell in torrents. The many laborers employed in the works commenced to hunt for the unfortunates caught in the slide. They managed to take out several alive; but a woman, her daughters and an infant were not found till several days after. At 9 the same night another slide, fifty times as large as the first, rushed down over the settlement, breaking down walls, filling doorways, covering gardens, crushing huts and depositing immense rocks which the men cannot move. This fresh slide caused great terror to the miners and workers in the mills, who sought safety in flight. When morning dawned the rain ceased, but devastation caused by the breaking away of the mountain slide was apparent. Nearly all of the huts, hundreds in number, have been swept down into the valley and piled up one above the other and buried in the mud and stones several feet deep. Houses at the base of the mountain were crushed, walls had been swept away, and the devastation was most complete. For three or four days afterwards searching was carried on in the slide, and five bodies were taken out. It is believed many others were buried. There are heavy floods at Tetezaco, state of Morelos. A large portion has been washed away, and several lives have been lost. There is danger of a greater rise. Tampoco is also flooded, and the people have been driven from their homes. They are in a starving condition and appeal for help.

News Notes.

A Dublin despatch says: The attempt to oust Smith Barry from the management of the Ponsonby estate by refusal to pay rent has failed. Most of the tenants are paying up on threats being made to sell their holdings at auction.
A despatch from Switzerland announces the death there of Joseph Firth Bottomley Firth, member of Parliament for Dundee. He sat for Chelsea for several years, and was elected for Dundee in 1888. He was a Liberal and in favor of Home Rule for Ireland.
The tenants of the Gavin estate at Kildyhart, County Clare, who were evicted for having adopted the plan of campaign, have been reinstated in their holdings.
During the first six months of the present year 67,000 Germans emigrated to America. The same number emigrated during the first six months of 1888.

Hidden Aztec Treasures.

EIGHTY MILLIONS OF IT SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN BURIED BY MONTEZUMA, BEING SEARCHED FOR.

A recent City of Mexico despatch says: Extensive excavations are being made at the suburban town of Coyocan, a place lying on the outskirts of a wilderness known as the Pedregal, or Stony Ground, which in former years was noted as a haunt of brigands. The object of the excavations, which are being made by private associations, is to recover treasures of gold and jewels supposed to be hidden there by Emperor Montezuma. Senor Mercede, one of the party engaged in the work, is a descendant of the last Aztec Emperor Quetzauac. Mercede has hieroglyphic documents which convince him that it was in the Pedregal that Montezuma hid his treasures, among other things a huge golden sun. A few weeks ago a valuable black pearl was found and also an emerald near some skeletons discovered in a subterranean passage. The excavations already disclose a subterranean staircase, winding passages and vaults, chambers and skeletons, destitute of tusk or teeth, thus, according to the Senor Mercede, proving beyond question that the Indians there buried were pure Aztecs. He estimates the value of the buried treasures at not less than $20,000,000, but others put it at $50,000,000.
