

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1894.

THE CHINESE DEFEAT.

News from the seat of war is not always reliable. A great many battles and skirmishes have been reported which never took place. But the news of a great battle at Hing Yang seems to be authentic. The question now is, what will the Chinese do about it? The loss of 16,000 men, of course, only a drop in the bucket of Chinese millions. Will the defeat frighten the Emperor, and cause him, trembling for his ease and luxury at Peking, to sign articles of peace or will it merely arouse him to the importance of the situation and the necessity of beginning the fight in earnest. The Christian world will be somewhat interested concerning the determination of the question. The possibility of Peking being in the hands of the Japanese by the 3rd of November is hinted at; and if the Japanese promptly follow up their great victory, his Celestial Majesty must quickly make up his mind. If the advice of the press be correct, Li Hung Chang, the Chinese statesman, has always been opposed to the war. The defeat may cause the Emperor to fall back upon his advice. In this case, a peace may, if possible be arranged. But it is not likely that the national spirit of the Chinese will permit a peace to be concluded as the result of the first signal defeat worth talking about.

A GOOD RECORD.

In the course of the sixteen years that are past, the Government made a pretty good record, from which we quote a few items: 1879—Took off duties on tea and coffee. Gave protection to manufacturers to increase the demand in Canada for Canadian labor and farm products. Put cotton and wool from warm countries, tin plate and manufacturers' raw materials generally on the free list with the same object. Established experimental farms for conducting tests and promoting improved methods of farming in the interest of Canadian agriculture. Appointed a Dominion Dairy Commission to improve the cheese and butter industry. Kept the expenditure within the limits of the revenue and only borrowed money for useful public works to promote the progress of the country. 1880—Signed contract for construction of Canadian Pacific Railway, which was completed in 1885, and in 1891, with its Pacific steamship line, carried mails from Japan to London in 21 days. 1891—Took off duties on raw sugar and gave up $3,900,000 of taxation. Undertook the enlargement of the St. Lawrence canal to clear the cost of carrying agricultural and other products to the European markets. Encouraged the construction of railways in undeveloped sections with the same object in view. Encouraged the establishment of steamship lines with the West Indies thus developing a large and growing market for the fish and agricultural products of the Maritime Provinces, and the cheese and flour of the Western Provinces.

THE PEARY EXPEDITION.

The Peary expedition in the North has not, as was already intimated by THE EXAMINER, been successful. We are told that the expedition met the most unfavorable conditions all through the last fall and part of its supplies were destroyed by a tidal wave. The party encountered fearful snowstorms and suffered greatly from cold, four of the eight men being frozen bitten to such an extent that they could not go forward and were sent back. The others continued the journey in an effort to cross Greenland in the direction of the North Pole. But they only managed to travel a hundred and thirty miles in forty-five days, during which they lost sixty-six of their ninety-two dogs and were compelled to abandon twelve of their sledges. Compelled to retrace their steps they only succeeded in making some explorations about Melville Bay.

SHOW DAY.

Many visit Paton & Co's. Fair and Mantle Show. Scarcely if ever has there been such a display of Mantles, Jackets and Fur Goods in Charlottetown. In fact, it would be needless to say, that the department contains a full line of the latest and most fashionable novelties. Their eastern window contains many real skins, such as the leopard with mounted head, black wolf, fox, lion, etc. A glance at their mantle department will convince the visitors that they have made choice selections in jackets. Cape jackets are conspicuous for their absence—not an old jacket to be seen anywhere, pretty neckwear in leather boots and collars, surpassing anything ever shown in this line before. A glance at their dress goods will convince anyone that Jas. Paton & Co. are right to the front in this line. The centre store is beautifully decorated with seasonal goods and is well worth a visit of inspection. If on a purchasing expedition, we would advise you to inspect their display, you will be sure to come away satisfied and voice the general opinion that Jas. Paton & Co's. store is headquarters for fur goods, mantles and dress goods, carpets and clothing, etc., etc.

THE MCDLEOD PROPERTY.—This valuable property will be sold as advertised by auction on Saturday, the 22nd Sept., inst., at noon, on the premises. The house is one of the best built, and most conveniently arranged residences in the city. In section invited.—A. McNeill, Auctioneer.

THE PICTURE SPORTS.—In the sports at Pictou on Saturday, the professional 100 yards and quarter-mile races were captured by D. J. Macdonald, of Charlottetown, and by D. M. Macdonald, of the same place, second. D. J. Macdonald also took second prize in the hammer throwing and shot putting. F. P. Meikle being first with throws of 102 feet 5 inches and 42 feet 4 inches respectively. The Messrs. Macdonald returned home last evening.

A MEETING of the Ys will be held in their rooms tomorrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Important business. Full attendance requested.

THE MARKET.—The market today was well attended and well supplied. Business was brisk, but no material change in prices was noted.

MEETING OF PRESBYTERY.

The Presbytery of P. E. Island met in Zion Church at 11 o'clock. Rev. Wm. Thompson, of Bedouque, Moderator, in the chair. There was a large attendance, both of ministers and elders. The resignation of the Rev. Geo. McMillan, of Princeton, was the first business. The commissioners from the congregation spoke with the greatest warmth of the attachment of the congregation to their pastor, and their earnest desire to retain his services, offering him a year's rest if he considered that by that time his health would be sufficiently restored to enable him to resume his work. Mr. McMillan was deeply affected by the generous tributes paid him by his people, yet he felt that owing to the state of his health and the absolute necessity of lengthened rest, he must press his resignation. Rev. Mr. Archibald, of Cavendish, eloquently recalled Mr. McMillan's great services to the church, and his own deep personal attachment to him, and while he greatly deplored the necessity for the present step, moved the acceptance of Mr. McMillan's resignation. This was seconded by Rev. Mr. Sinclair, of Bellisle. He marks highly appreciative of Mr. McMillan's services, and Revs. E. Gillies, J. W. Mackenzie, J. M. McLeod, W. A. Mason and the Moderator, when the Presbytery accepted the resignation, to take effect after October seventh. Rev. J. M. Macleod to declare the pulpit vacant and act as moderator of session during the vacancy. The resignation of the Rev. Mr. King, of Murray Harbor North was also considered. A resolution of the congregation expressing regret at their pastor's action was read. Mr. King testified to the attachment existing between himself and his people, but taking all the circumstances into consideration he felt it his duty to press his resignation which or motion was accepted to take effect Sept 30th. Rev. E. Gillies of Murray Harbor South declared the pulpit vacant and acted as moderator of the session during the vacancy. The resignation of Rev. A. W. Mahon of the pastoral charge of St. Peter's Road, Charlottetown, was also considered. The congregation testified their very appreciation of Mr. Mahon's services and their very strong wish that he should remain among them. Taking into their knowledge of the weak state of his health prevented them from every possible step to prevent the separation, but in view of the facts they could not offer opposition. High tributes of appreciation were paid to Mr. Mahon by members of the Presbytery, and deep regret expressed at the inevitable separation, after which the resignation was accepted, to take effect at the end of September, and Rev. Mr. Fallerton was appointed Moderator of Session during the vacancy. At the request of the Moderator, Rev. Mr. Murray engaged in prayer, earnestly commending the brethren to the care and protection of the Great Head of the Church, and pleading for their restoration to health and usefulness. The High tributes of appreciation of some routine business the Presbytery adjourned to meet at Synod.

BEER BROS.' SHOW DAY.

For several years Messrs. Beer Bros.' show days have, to a large degree, marked the opening of the season. To-day is no exception. The exhibits of mantles is perhaps the centre of greatest attraction, although the dress costumes, millinery and fur goods each have their circle of admirers and purchasers. A striking feature of Beer Bros.' show is the variety of styles in jackets, capes and costumes. In their mantle department alone they show over 500 distinct styles, and in costumes and costume cloths the variety is simply alarming. Another specialty of Beer Bros., viz., fur goods, is attracting great attention. The extent of their stock may be judged by the fact that they have already received 17 cases of fur jackets, capes, muff, etc. It may be safely said that Beer Bros.' stock ranks among the finest in the lower provinces. In pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of this Island, made and passed in the 51st year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 12, intitled "The City of Charlottetown Incorporation Act," and of the Act amending the same, 55 Vic., Cap. 19, intitled "An Act to amend the City of Charlottetown Incorporation Act."

NEWS NOTES.

The normal temperature of the human body is 98.2-5 degrees. The attendance at the Toronto exhibition on Wednesday last was 29,000, considerably larger than on any previous day in the record of the institution's existence. SPECIAL MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL.

A special meeting of the City Council was held this forenoon at ten o'clock. There were present Councillors Hazard, Hooper, Fennell, Hughes, Douse, Tanton and Taylor. On motion of Councillor Hazard seconded by Councillor Fennell, Councillor Hooper was appointed chairman, Mayor Dawson being absent from the Province. Councillor Tanton protested against the meeting, claiming it to be illegal on the ground that the three days' notice required by law had not been given. Councillor Hazard moved the following resolution, which was seconded by Councillor Taylor, and carried unanimously: Resolved, That this Council desires to place on record its sincere regret at the sudden and unexpected death of Charles E. Robertson, Esq., City Councillor for Ward 2, and Council aljourned. Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the widow of the deceased. Councillor Hazard explained that the Finance Committee had been authorized to have the police force supplied with new uniforms, and that orders for these uniforms had been let to the late Charles Robertson, of the estate of the late Charles Robertson. Councillor Hazard also explained that although the requisition stated that part of the business of the meeting was to arrange for an election for Mayor and Councillors, it was necessary to go into that matter as arrangements had already been made to hold said election on the 6th of October. Council aljourned.
