Miller - Rogerson Wedding

Standards of autumn flowers created the setting in the Summerside Trinity United Church on Saturday evening for the September wedding of Elizabeth Alma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Rogerson of Cape Traverse and Edgar Ramsay Millar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Millar of Kelvin. Rev. C. D. Matheson officiated at the 6:30 ceremony.

The organist, Miss Mary Geldart, was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied Mr. Ralph Emery as he sang "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Mrs. Ivan Day, as matron of honor and Miss Beverley Brich as bridesmaid.

Mr. Erving Millar was his brother's groomsman. Messrs. Ivan Day and Vernon Millar, brother of the groom, ushered the guests to their places which were marked with a miniature nosegay of mixed flowers.

The bride was lovely in her floor-length wedding gown of white nylon net over satin, featuring a V-neck, long sleeves tapering to points over the hands and trimmed with pearls which also decorated the bodice. The skirt was full and the front embroidered with rhinestones. The full length veil of French illusion was held in place with a pearl of white nylon net over taffeta and the bridesmaid was attired in mauve nylon net over taffeta. Each wore a matching bandeau and mitts and carried a bouquet of Queen Elizabeth yellow roses.

Mrs. Rogerson chose for her daughter's wedding a navy and white gown with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations, while the groom's mother was attired in navy with pink accessories and had a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception for seventy guests was held at Birch Hill Lodge where the bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and encircled with lighted tapers and bouquets of sweet peas.

For a honeymoon trip in the Eastern States the bride donned a suit of navy with navy and pink accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses. On return they will reside in Kensington where the groom is a successful farmer.

The bride, previous to her marriage, was on the office staff of R. T. Holman Ltd.

"PRISONER OF ZENDA" AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

With an impressive all-star cast headed by Stewart Granger, Deborah Kerr, James Mason, Louis Calhern and Jane Greer, and with eye-filling Technicolor settings and costumes, M-G-M brings "The Prisoner of Zenda" to the Capitol screen as the latest of its spectacular romantic adventure dramas in the tradition of "Quo Vadis," "Scaramouche" and "Ivanhoe."

Stewart Granger enacts the young Englishman, Rudolf Rassendyll, who arrives in the kingdom of Ruritania on a visit and, because of his striking resemblance to the country's ruler, becomes embroiled in a royal intrigue in which he is persuaded to impersonate the abdicated King in order to prevent the latter's half-brother, Michael, from usurping the throne. The adventure brings him into conflict with Michael's unscrupulous cohort, Rupert of Hentzau, an enemy which is finally resolved in a spectacular scene of swordplay taking place in a medieval castle. Underlying the royal intrigues and fighting action is the ill-fated romance between Rudolf and the lovely Princess Flavia, who has come to love the man whom she knows to be an impostor but who cannot share his life.

Pierce - MacPhee

St. James Church, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding on June 24, when Mary Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor MacPhee, Emerald, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Kenneth Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Pierce, Elmira. Rev. Eugene Murray, pastor of St. James church performed the double-ring ceremony and also celebrated the nuptial mass.

The nuptial music was played by Mrs. Clinton Howatt, Borden, and Mrs. Vincent Grant, Borden, sang, "Pans Angelicus," "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," and "Mother At Thy Feet I'm Kneeling."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white satin. The long-sleeved Chantilly lace bodice was decorated with inserts of seed pearls. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of Better Time roses and white carnations.

Miss Anita MacPhee was her sister's bridesmaid. Mr. Campbell Pierce, brother of the groom, was best man and Mr. Alfred White was sanctuary usher. A reception for 30 guests was held at the Queen Hotel, Charlottetown. Mr. Leo Rossiter, brother-in-law of the groom, proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded.

The bridal couple left for a honeymoon spent in Toronto, Niagara Falls and Montreal, before taking up residence in Ererard, where the groom is employed as telegrapher with the C. N. R. For travelling the bride wore a suit of pink charmaine with white accessories.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was the guest of honor at two miscellaneous showers, where she was the recipient of many and useful gifts.

Are you among the 20% of all Canadians over 30 that are said to be OVERWEIGHT?

At a recent convention of the Canadian Dietetic Association reported by Canadian Press, Dr. E. Gordon Young, director of the Maritime Regional Laboratory, National Research Council, Halifax, estimated that a fifth of the Canadian population over age 30 are too heavy. At the same convention Dr. Rachel Beaudoin of the Institute of Dietetics and Nutrition, University of Montreal, said obesity is endangering a quarter of the American population.

"25 of 32 Sudden Deaths Heart Cases, Overweight Blamed in All of Them."

So read a headline over the byline of Angela Burke on the front page of the Toronto Daily Star on June 16th last.

Never before has there been such awareness on the part of the general public of the danger attached to being overweight, particularly after the age of 30. More and more people are turning to their physicians for guidance as to the cause of their being overweight.

There appears to be two primary causes of overweight due to excess fat. The one referred to as exogenous (without) results from over-eating or from ingesting food of high caloric value; the second, endogenous (within), may be attributed to glandular dysfunction. The majority of overweight people may be considered as the exogenous type; they consume not only too much food but frequently choose or have a craving for the foods ranking high in caloric values.

There is no royal road to losing weight. If you happen to fall into the endogenous category your physician, after a diagnosis, will prescribe for you the proper glandular medication and observe its effect. This medication may be dangerous if taken by a person of the exogenous type (too fat from eating too much). The exogenous type may lose weight safely as a result of following a diet adequate in vitamins and minerals, high in
