Bedeque Man Celebrates Ninety Second Birthday

—Congratulations are being extended to Mr. A. J. Phillips of Bedeque, who celebrated his 92nd birthday, on May 8th. For the past several months he has resided with his daughter, Mrs. George Henderson and Mr. Henderson.

Notwithstanding his ripe old age, he is fairly active and takes a keen interest in the affairs of the country.

The following relatives were dinner guests on the happy occasion at the Henderson home: Mr. and Mrs. A. Horne, Oyster Bed Bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stead, Brackley, Mrs. A. E. Phillips, Harrington, and Mrs. Allan Martin, Charlottetown. Mr. Phillip's many friends in this village and elsewhere wish him many more happy birthdays.—B. Q.

Enjoyable Social At St. Mark's Hall

—The ways and means committee of St. Mark's Hall, Kensington, sponsored a social evening on Thursday, April 23rd in the hall.

Under the capable chairmanship of Mr. Athol Cotton, the program opened with instrumental music by Miss Grace Conrad, Messrs. Ivan Daye and John Inglis. Miss Conrad was also heard in several songs with guitar accompaniment as well as in guitar selections self accompanied on the mouth organ. Songs in the western style were sung by Messrs. Ivan Daye, John Inglis and Linwood Gill. A dialogue by the Misses Hope Mill and Lauretta Mill, a recitation by Miss Hope Mill and a reading by Mr. Elmer Paynter completed the stage numbers.

Contests and games included a honeymoon race put on by Miss Mamie Mill, a competition involving the balancing of a pie plate and a grapefruit directed by Mrs. Elmer Moase, and a kitchen contest by Mrs. Walter Moase.

The film "Royal Destiny" was shown. An auction sale of donated articles by Mr. Elmer Paynter proved quite profitable. Lunch was served and "The Queen" brought a pleasant evening to a fitting conclusion.

Play Presented At Bedeque

"The Missing Heiress," a three act play, was presented in the Central Bedeque Hall on Tuesday, May 5th, before a large and appreciative audience.

The individual parts were well taken, and deserving of praise. Much credit is due Miss Phyllis Britten who directed the play and took the part of "an eccentric aunt", and Alexander Green, who also doubled, as a fiance in the twenties. He also had charge of the scenery and "make up" as well.

This play is being entered in the P. E. I. Drama Festival.

A pantomime and a solo by Elizabeth Green, put on between acts, were both worthy of special mention. This play was put on by the Y. P. Society, and there was a sale of candy.—B. Q.

Annual Meeting S'side C.W.L. Sub-Division

—At the annual meeting of the R. C. A. F. Summerside Sub-division, Catholic Women's League, held on April 20th, the following officers were elected:

President — Mrs. Harold Brennan, (re-elected); 1st Vice President, Mrs. A. F. Pelland; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Frank Williams, (re-elected); 3rd Vice President, Mrs. E. P. St. John; Secretary, Mrs. S. B. MacDonald, (re-elected); Treasurer, Mrs. V. A. J. Sioui, (re-elected).

Councillors are to be appointed later.

At this meeting Flight-Lieutenant J. P. E. O'Hanley congratulated the members of the sub-division of which he is spiritual director, on their accomplishments in the five months since organization.

The sub-division has been able to give cash donations to St. Vincent's Orphanage, Charlottetown, and to the Missionaries of Mary. At Christmas three cartons of toys and clothing, donated by the Catholic women of Slemon Park, were sent to the orphanage.

Baby medals have been given to parents of newly-born infants, cards have been sent to members who were ill, and new residents of Slemon Park visited. This work was carried on under the leadership of Mrs. D. E. Skaife, convener of the welfare and visiting committee.

A need for a supply of religious articles to be sold was felt, and Mrs. Harold Brennan took charge of this project. Rosaries, prayer-books for adults and children, medals and so on are now available after Mass on Sundays.

Mrs. E. P. St. John, convener of the Spiritual committee, undertook the duties of sacristan and for the past five months has faithfully looked after the altar and the altar linens.

Mrs. Frank Williams was convener of the recent drawing held April 10th. She thanked all who helped in any way to ensure the success of this project.

A considerable sum of money was raised from the lottery, and the tea and pantry sale at which the drawing was held. The proceeds will be used for charitable purposes.

Members have enjoyed the short periods of entertainment and the fine lunches served following the business meetings. Mrs. A. T. Pelland and her committee co-workers have been responsible for this pleasant combination.

At the conclusion of the annual meeting, Mrs. Harold Brennan thanked Father O'Hanley for his co-operation and assistance, and expressed her appreciation of the support of the members during her term of office. She added that she felt honoured to be chosen to serve as president again and that with a full year ahead the sub-division should be able to accomplish much work of spiritual and material benefit.

ALBERTON UNITED W. M. S.

—The May meeting of the Alberton United Auxiliary of the W. M. S. was held on Tuesday evening, May 5th at the Parsonage, with the president, Mrs. Green, in the chair. The opening worship service was led by Mrs. John Wills on the theme: "A great door and effectual is opened".

The president spoke of the special service for women at the Exposition in Charlottetown, and hoped that as many as possible would attend.

Mrs. Wm. Aubrey gave a reading on Christian Stewardship and the Watchtower report was given by Mrs. Fred Leard.

Plans were made for the next meeting when Mrs. A. R. Wallis will be hall hostess, Mrs. Charles Johnston will lead the worship, Mrs. Arthur Wright will present the study and the Watchtower report will be given by Mrs. Gordon Hardy.

The final chapter in the Study Book was read by Mrs. Wm. Aubrey. The offering was received and a dedicatory prayer offered by the president.

After the close of the meeting a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Burlington and Vicinity

Mrs. Louis Moase, New Annan, is spending some time with relatives in Kensington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. MacLeod, Burlington, spent the May 2nd week-end with friends in Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Phillips and family, O'Leary, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George T. MacLeod, Irishtown on Sunday, May 3rd.

—Mrs. J. Leighton Stewart returned on Sunday , May 3rd, to her home in Norboro, having spent the past three weeks at her former home in Burlington.

Mrs. William L. Johnston, Kensington left recently on a visit to Montreal and the United States, where she will spend some time visiting her two sisters, Mrs. MacPherson and Mrs. Bailey in New Hampshire.

Mrs. Claude Younker, Brookfield, accompanied by her little daughter, Linda, left on Monday, April 27th for Debert, N.S., to spend two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Harmon Black and Mr. Black.

Mrs. Paul Thompson, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Russell MacKay and Mr. MacKay, Kensington, celebrated her 85th birthday on Saturday, May 2nd, when friends called to extend felicitations and she was the recipient of greetings and good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Webster Kelvin Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. James MacKay, Clinton, were May 2nd week-end visitors to Halifax. They report some apparent improvement in the condition of Mr. Eric MacMurdo, who is a patient in the Victoria General Hospital. A second operation is under consideration by his doctors but no decision has been reached. His many friends wish him more rapid iprovement and complete recovery from the effects of his accident.

Hamilton Players Stage Minstrel Show

—A large and enthusiastic audience greeted Hamilton Players, staging their concert and Minstrel Show in Hamilton Hall on Wednesday, April 29th.

The Minstrel Show was all a Minstrel Show should be, with Mr. Lorne Ramsay as master of ceremonies and the other actors as— "darkies", entertaining with jokes, step-dancing and vocal numbers in solo, duet and quartette.

Mr. Lloyd Lockerby as chairman announced the program, opening with a chorus, "O Canada". A square dance following turned out to be a bit mystifying as all the men were dressed as women and vice versa, and all the clothes were worn backwards.

Other numbers included a mixed quartette by Mrs. Neil Simpson, Mrs. Heber Pickering, W. A. Ramsay and Earl Clark, a reading by Wayne Lockerby, a quartette by four girls, a duet by Mrs. Neil Simpson and Mrs. Harry Taylor, step-dancing by Mrs. MacNevin, readings by Mrs. Thomas Humphrey and James Ramsay, and step-dancing by Paul Gallant.

Actors in "Billie's Coming", a one-act play, were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Ramsay, Robert Morrison, Lorne Ramsay, Mrs. James Ramsay, Neil Simpson, Gordon Craig and Betty Simpson.

Instrumental music was furnished by Eddie Mathews, James Beairsto and Mrs. Neil Simpson.

The event was sponsored by Hamilton W. I.

Enjoyable Evening As A.Y.P.A. Meet

—An event of three-fold significance was held on Friday evening, May 8th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Profitt, Springfield,.

St. Mark's-St. Elizabeth's A.Y.P.A. met to enjoy a social evening as the last meeting of a successful season, and took advantage of the occasion to honour their rector as well as two members of the organization who are about to take nuptial vows.

Still another feature of the evening was an auction sale of donated articles with Mr. Walter Moase as auctioneer. Mr. Clair Haslam capably presided over the evening's activities.

An address read to the rector, Rev. R. W. B. Coupland, B. A., by Miss Mamie Mill, expressed regret that he is about to leave New London Parish for another parish in a distant diocese, and wished him success in his future ministry as in the past. As a gift from the A. Y. P. A. of Springfield and Kensington, he was presented with a fountain pen by Mr. Wendell Profitt.

Two members, Miss Joyce Haslam and Mr. Gerrit Loo, who are to be married in the near future, were presented with a Bible by Mr. Clayton Mill, while Mrs. Annie Haslam read an address bringing congratulations and good wishes to the popular couple from their fellow workers in the Anglican Young People's Association. Mr. Loo is a native of Holland, but having settled in this favored part of the world with his family, is now taking his place quite acceptably as an "Islander".

Music for the evening was furnished by Miss Grace Conrad, and Messrs. Walter Coates and Johnny Inglis, while Mr. Loo, who is an accomplished vocalist, favored the company with several solos.

A bountiful lunch was served, and the Rev. Mr. Ebsary of Springfield and Crapaud thanked the host and hostess on behalf of the guests for the use of their home.

Glenwood Notes

—Miss Leita MacLean, nurse-in-training at Falconwood, has been visiting friends and relatives in Dunblane and West Point.

Messrs. Harding Boulter and Edward MacIsaac were in Summerside, Tuesday, May 5th, on business.

Mr. Benjamin Oulton has arrived home after being employed in New Brunswick during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Gorrill, accompanied by Mrs. Alvin MacIsaac, spent the week-end of May 3rd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Jelley of Charlottetown.

Mrs. William Stewart of Halifax, has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold MacDonald.

Miss Ester Stewart of Charlottetown, spent the week-end of May 3rd visiting friends and relatives of Glenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond MacIsaac of Summerside spent the week-end of May 3rd visiting friends and relatives of Glenwood and Springfield West.

The fishermen of West Point are very pleased that the Federal Government is placing a breakwater at West Point which was badly needed by the fishermen.

Variety Concert At Irishtown

—Irishtown Hall was packed to the doors on Thursday evening, May 7th, for a variety concert sponsored by the Women's Institute.

Two dialogues and two one-act plays were staged by local entertainers and other numbers included very pleasing guest artists from Spring Valley, Long River and Kensington, as well as local talent.

All numbers received well merited encores. Many of the entertainers were well known on the stage and on this occasion, as on others, gave the audience the anticipated good evening's fun and entertainment. The mention of any in particular from so large a group would be difficult, although there were a number of outstanding performances. However, a newcomer, Kenneth MacLeod, as the store keeper in "Fun in the General Store," might be welcomed to the circle of amateur actors, as one who has long been hiding his talent, and he, as well as Clayton Stavert, playing "Buck Plummer" in "Hillbilly Sue," will no doubt be looked for, as characters in future amateur theatrical productions originating in Irishtown.

Mr. Clair Campbell capably acted as chairman for the evening.

Following is the program:

Chorus — "The More We Get Together."

Duet — "The Doggie in the Window," Lois and Leta MacLeod.

Instrumental Music — Willard Brown, James Simmons, Charles Brown.

Dialogue — "Fun in the General Store," Kenneth MacLeod, James MacLeod, David Campbell, Sr., Mrs. James MacLeod, David Campbell, Jr., Mrs. Harold MacLeod, Eleanor Mann, Mary Campbell.

Step-dancing — Buddy Sudsbury.

Solo, (self-accompanied on the guitar) — Irene Simmons.

Piano Duet — Beryl MacLeod and Thelma MacLeod.

Instrumental Music.

One-act Play — "Bachelor's Baby," Mrs. W. J. Profitt, Archie Johnstone, Mrs. Archie Paynter, Leigh Paynter, Mrs. Archie Johnstone.

Intermission — Sale of Candy.

Duet — "Till I Waltz Again With You," Sylvia and Gail Profitt.

Dialogue — "The Train to Mauro," George MacLeod, Mrs. Johnny MacLeod, Donnie MacLeod.

Vocal Duet — Grafton and Erwin Brown.

Mouth Organ selections — Fred Campbell.

Reading — "Because He Didn't Think," Linda MacLeod.

Solo, (self-accompanied on the guitar) — Mary Campbell.

Instrumental Music.

One-act Play — "Hillbilly Sue," Mrs. Cecil Campbell, Mrs. Clayton Stavert, Lois Stavert, Mary Campbell, Clayton Stavert, Carl and Thane Campbell, Mrs. Robert Stavert.

Duet — Thelma and Donnie MacLeod.

Chorus — "Goodnight Ladies."

God Save The Queen.

Accompanists were Mrs. George MacLeod, Amy Brown, Mary Campbell and Sylvia Profitt.
