

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mr. John D. Goteff was a recent visitor to Charlottetown. Mr. Joe MacMillan and Mr. Bud Currie of Charlottetown were recent visitors to Georgetown.

Rev. J. W. McCordle of Montague was a business visitor to Georgetown on Thursday, January 22nd.

Miss Helen Murphy was a visitor to Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd.

On Saturday, January 24th, Floyd Landry, Billy Murphy and Jackie Lavers motored to Charlottetown.

Miss Eileen Helen MacConnell R.N. of Charlottetown was a recent visitor to her home in Georgetown.

Rev. Father Sylvère Gallant, Curate of Vernon River parish, has been engaged by St. James Roman Catholic Church choir, Georgetown, for professional tuition in choir singing.

Miss Elizabeth McQuillan, who is employed at Albert Plains, spent the weekend January 24th, as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred McQuillan.

Mr. Frank Bouchard, who is employed in Charlottetown, spent the January 24th weekend at his home in Georgetown.

Miss Bernice De Lory and Miss Sheila De Lory, students at Prince of Wales College, spent the past weekend as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. De Lory.

Miss Rose Mary Mair, who is employed in the City, was the weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mair.

Mr. and Mrs. Millar MacDonald of Charlottetown visited Georgetown on Saturday January 24th, where they attended the Georgetown Eagles - Charlottetown Navy hockey game.

Mrs. Mabel Hearn of Halifax, N.S., spent a few days recently in Georgetown, where her grandson, Ralph Jenkins was ill, but is now improved.

Mrs. (Dr.) A. E. Ings and daughter Jean of Souris recently spent some time visiting Mrs. Ings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mair.

Little Miss Linda Lavandier recently visited St. Mary's Road where she was the guest of relatives. Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Walter Solomon, local barber, who has been a patient in the Veteran's Wing of the Charlottetown Hospital for the past few weeks, returned to his home on Friday, January 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughie Goteff and family of Charlottetown, who have been the guests of Mr. Goteff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Goteff, were recent visitors to St. Mary's Road.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wood had as their guests for the January 24th weekend their daughters, the Misses Vivian and Eileen Wood of Charlottetown.

Mrs. Charles McCarron, who has been visiting in Georgetown where she was the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lavandier, has returned to her home in St. Mary's Road.

Mrs. (Rev.) W. A. Paterson attended the 27th Annual Meeting of the Prince Edward Island, Presbyterian of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada, held in Trinity Church, Summerside on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Friends of Mr. Michael Burke Jr., second World War veteran, are sorry to hear that he has had to enter the veteran's wing of the Charlottetown Hospital and all hope his return to his home will be in the very near future.

Ralph Jenkins, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Hibbett Jenkins met with an unfortunate accident early in the week when he fell from a ladder in the yard of his parents' home, striking his head on the frozen ground. The little chap has been under the doctor's care at his home since the mishap and at the time of writing his condition was as good as could be expected.

The death occurred at her home in Georgetown on Saturday, January 17th, of Mrs. William Hewlett, aged 76, following a short illness. She was buried in Georgetown for the greater part of her life. She is survived by her husband, William Hewlett of Georgetown, one son, Thomas of Montreal, three daughters, Mary and Agnes in Nova Scotia and Irene at home. The funeral was held on Monday, January 19th, from St. James Roman Catholic Church, Georgetown, with Rev. C. Higgins celebrating Requiem Mass. The celebrants were Michael Burke Sr., Guy Hemphill, Frank Goteff, J. W. Lavers, Neil White and Russel White. Interment was in St. James' Church Cemetery.

The government buildings at The Hague were founded in 1249 by William IV, Count of Holland.

Mr. Robert McKenzie of Souris, is at present not enjoying his usual good health. It is the wish of numerous friends he will in the near future be engaged in his usual activities.

Miss Florence Bruce, Red Point, spent the weekend of January 17 with Miss Betty Robertson, Kingsboro.

Mr. Hugh W. Campbell, Red Point, is back to his work following his illness.

Midgell and Vicinity

Mr. Arthur Blaxland of Pictou, N. S., spent the January 17th weekend at his home in Morrell with his wife and family.

Mr. Everett Garrett of Forest Hill was in Church Road on Monday, January 19th, on business.

Mr. Alton Rapson of Milburn was in Charlottetown on Saturday, January 17th, on business.

The regular church service was held in Marie United Church on Sunday evening, January 19th.

Mr. Earl James of Midgell was a business visitor to St. Peter's Bay on Monday, January 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Stewart and little son Irving of Strathcona were recent visitors to this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl James of Midgell were recent visitors to St. Peter's Harbour where they visited with friends.

Mr. Peter Phelan of Morell was a business visitor to Church Road on Thursday morning, January 15th.

It is reported that the usual Sunday evening bus between Souris and Charlottetown had trouble with a flat tire at Midgell on its way through Sunday evening, January 18th, and was repaired at Aldius MacKenzie's garage at Morell.

Mr. Eugene Strickland of Toronto, Ontario who was called home owing to the sudden passing of his father, the late Chester Strickland, will remain on the Island for the next several weeks and will be the guest of his mother.

The many friends of Mr. Phillip Billard are happy to have him home again after a lengthy though most enjoyable visit to Boston, Mass., where he was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Beck.

The Murray Harbour school hockey team had their first game of the season on Tuesday evening January 20th, when they met and defeated by a 9-5 score the heavier hearted sextette from Murray Harbour North. The visitors, though outplayed at periods, were in there fighting every minute of the game and, with the outstanding support which they receive from their home fans, will no doubt be heard from again with more telling effect before the season is over.

Mr. Albert Gallant, Charlottetown, recently spent a week-end in Murray River, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Brehaut.

Mr. Kenneth MacLeod, who is attending Vocational School in Charlottetown, spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacLeod, Murray River.

Mr. Stirling Whiteway, student of P. W. C., spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Whiteway, Murray River.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Dingwell, Little Pond, were visitors to Dundas recently.

Mr. Victor Blackett, Little River, was a visitor to New Zealand Thursday, January 22nd, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Overier.

Mrs. Edmond Jeffery and little son Leslie of Kensington were visitors to Little River recently the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blackett.

Mr. George Saville has returned to his home in Red House after spending a few weeks in Nova Scotia.

Mr. Herbert Blackett is ill at his home in Little River. All join in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Miss Betty Blackett, Little River, spent a pleasant week-end with her cousin, Colleen McDonald, Little Pond.

Mr. Arthur Robertson, Kingsboro, is out and about again following his illness at his home.

The Red Point and East Baltic Mission Band was held at the home of Mrs. A. Robertson at her home in Red Point, January 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lapierre, Black Pond, were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. Howard Cheverie has returned to Charlottetown, having spent the past three weeks at his home in Elmira with his father, Mr. Neil Cheverie and his brothers.

The mild weather seems to bring memories of spring to the fisherman, and plans for spring fishing are well underway in the line of building lobster traps and hauling dwelling houses to the shore.

Mr. E. C. Johnson and Mr. Wesley Dingwell, Fortune, were business visitors to North Lake, January 16.

Mr. Robert McKenzie of Souris, is at present not enjoying his usual good health. It is the wish of numerous friends he will in the near future be engaged in his usual activities.

Miss Inelda Peters was a guest of Mrs. Robert Gallant during her holidays.

Messrs. Norbert Hughes and Collin McGough left recently for Nova Scotia to work in the lumber woods, bringing his illness at his home in Red Point.

Mr. Pius Campbell of Campbell's Cove, has the sympathy of the community in the loss of his sister, Mrs. John Keays, in the Souris Hospital, January 15.

Murray Harbour Notes

Mr. Grant Clements of Charlottetown is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clements.

Mr. Brent Wood of the Bridge and Building Unit of the C. N. R., was a business visitor to Murray Harbour during the week.

Mr. Ernest Vail has returned to his home in Charlottetown after a pleasant visit to Murray Harbour where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Brehaut.

The many friends of Mrs. Rueben Penny will be happy to learn that she has returned to her home much improved in health. Mrs. Penny had been under treatment in the Montague Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Penny, who for the past several months have been visiting in Melrose Mass., where they were the guests of their daughter, have returned to their home in Murray Harbour and are receiving a royal welcome.

The many friends of Miss Annie MacLeod, Murray River, are sorry to hear she is a patient at the Prince Edward Island Hospital. Her many friends hope to see her home soon.

Mrs. Florence Young, Charlottetown, is spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cuddy, Gladstone.

Mr. Harvey MacLeod, Moncton, is spending some time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James MacLeod, Murray River.

Miss Louise Stewart, student of P. W. C., spent the weekend of January 17th at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus M. Stewart, High Bank.

Mr. Jack Rankin has returned to his home in Pictou Island, after spending some time at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Keenan and family, Murray River.

Miss Dorothy Buell, student of P. W. C., spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Buell, Murray River.

Mr. Norman Stewart, who is employed in Charlottetown, spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

A house in this vicinity near the Bristol United Church that has been vacant for two years has become a target for stone throwers, as all the windows have been broken and recently an attack has been made on the doors.

It is learned from one of the hockey players that hockey here will be forgotten unless something is done to close in the open rink built a few years back. Open rinks are a thing of the past and a failure here owing to the changing weather. This village is big enough and rich enough to have a good closed-in rink if everyone supported it and the right management headed the drive. Right now the boys are holding their games in other rinks where most of the home fans just can't attend.

Mr. Albert Gallant, Charlottetown, recently spent a week-end in Murray River, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Brehaut.

Mr. Kenneth MacLeod, who is attending Vocational School in Charlottetown, spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacLeod, Murray River.

Mr. Stirling Whiteway, student of P. W. C., spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Whiteway, Murray River.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Dingwell, Little Pond, were visitors to Dundas recently.

Mr. Victor Blackett, Little River, was a visitor to New Zealand Thursday, January 22nd, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Overier.

Mrs. Edmond Jeffery and little son Leslie of Kensington were visitors to Little River recently the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blackett.

Mr. George Saville has returned to his home in Red House after spending a few weeks in Nova Scotia.

Mr. Herbert Blackett is ill at his home in Little River. All join in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Miss Betty Blackett, Little River, spent a pleasant week-end with her cousin, Colleen McDonald, Little Pond.

Mr. Arthur Robertson, Kingsboro, is out and about again following his illness at his home.

The Red Point and East Baltic Mission Band was held at the home of Mrs. A. Robertson at her home in Red Point, January 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lapierre, Black Pond, were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. Howard Cheverie has returned to Charlottetown, having spent the past three weeks at his home in Elmira with his father, Mr. Neil Cheverie and his brothers.

The mild weather seems to bring memories of spring to the fisherman, and plans for spring fishing are well underway in the line of building lobster traps and hauling dwelling houses to the shore.

Mr. E. C. Johnson and Mr. Wesley Dingwell, Fortune, were business visitors to North Lake, January 16.

Mr. Robert McKenzie of Souris, is at present not enjoying his usual good health. It is the wish of numerous friends he will in the near future be engaged in his usual activities.

Miss Inelda Peters was a guest of Mrs. Robert Gallant during her holidays.

Messrs. Norbert Hughes and Collin McGough left recently for Nova Scotia to work in the lumber woods, bringing his illness at his home in Red Point.

Mr. Pius Campbell of Campbell's Cove, has the sympathy of the community in the loss of his sister, Mrs. John Keays, in the Souris Hospital, January 15.

Murray River And Vicinity

The many friends of Miss Joan Rankin are pleased to learn that she has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. Ford Keenan and Mr. Keenan, after been a patient in the King's County Hospital.

Miss Bertha MacLean, student of P. W. C., spent the week-end of Jan. 17th at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. MacLean, High Bank.

On Saturday, January 10th the Murray River Public Library opened for business in the new building. This building is not completed due to the lateness of the season but when it is painted and the grounds graded, with the hope of having some shrubbery planted in the spring, it will be a credit to Murray River and surrounding districts. Much credit is due those who gave labor materials and money to this worthy project.

The many friends of Miss Annie MacLeod, Murray River, are sorry to hear she is a patient at the Prince Edward Island Hospital. Her many friends hope to see her home soon.

Mrs. Florence Young, Charlottetown, is spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cuddy, Gladstone.

Mr. Harvey MacLeod, Moncton, is spending some time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James MacLeod, Murray River.

Miss Louise Stewart, student of P. W. C., spent the weekend of January 17th at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus M. Stewart, High Bank.

Mr. Jack Rankin has returned to his home in Pictou Island, after spending some time at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Keenan and family, Murray River.

Miss Dorothy Buell, student of P. W. C., spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Buell, Murray River.

Mr. Norman Stewart, who is employed in Charlottetown, spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

A house in this vicinity near the Bristol United Church that has been vacant for two years has become a target for stone throwers, as all the windows have been broken and recently an attack has been made on the doors.

It is learned from one of the hockey players that hockey here will be forgotten unless something is done to close in the open rink built a few years back. Open rinks are a thing of the past and a failure here owing to the changing weather. This village is big enough and rich enough to have a good closed-in rink if everyone supported it and the right management headed the drive. Right now the boys are holding their games in other rinks where most of the home fans just can't attend.

Mr. Albert Gallant, Charlottetown, recently spent a week-end in Murray River, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Brehaut.

Mr. Kenneth MacLeod, who is attending Vocational School in Charlottetown, spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacLeod, Murray River.

Mr. Stirling Whiteway, student of P. W. C., spent the week-end of January 17th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Whiteway, Murray River.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Dingwell, Little Pond, were visitors to Dundas recently.

Mr. Victor Blackett, Little River, was a visitor to New Zealand Thursday, January 22nd, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Overier.

Mrs. Edmond Jeffery and little son Leslie of Kensington were visitors to Little River recently the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blackett.

Mr. George Saville has returned to his home in Red House after spending a few weeks in Nova Scotia.

Mr. Herbert Blackett is ill at his home in Little River. All join in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Miss Betty Blackett, Little River, spent a pleasant week-end with her cousin, Colleen McDonald, Little Pond.

Mr. Arthur Robertson, Kingsboro, is out and about again following his illness at his home.

The Red Point and East Baltic Mission Band was held at the home of Mrs. A. Robertson at her home in Red Point, January 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lapierre, Black Pond, were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. Howard Cheverie has returned to Charlottetown, having spent the past three weeks at his home in Elmira with his father, Mr. Neil Cheverie and his brothers.

The mild weather seems to bring memories of spring to the fisherman, and plans for spring fishing are well underway in the line of building lobster traps and hauling dwelling houses to the shore.

Mr. E. C. Johnson and Mr. Wesley Dingwell, Fortune, were business visitors to North Lake, January 16.

Mr. Robert McKenzie of Souris, is at present not enjoying his usual good health. It is the wish of numerous friends he will in the near future be engaged in his usual activities.

Miss Inelda Peters was a guest of Mrs. Robert Gallant during her holidays.

Messrs. Norbert Hughes and Collin McGough left recently for Nova Scotia to work in the lumber woods, bringing his illness at his home in Red Point.

Mr. Pius Campbell of Campbell's Cove, has the sympathy of the community in the loss of his sister, Mrs. John Keays, in the Souris Hospital, January 15.

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. Morris Arnold spent the January week-end in the City with his sister, Mrs. H. Godkin.

Messrs. Bernard Tobin, Gerard McInnis and Ad. McKenzie were business visitors to the City on Friday, January 23rd.

The recent mild weather has doomed the ice on the river and small fishers will have to get their boats out if it doesn't freeze up soon again.

Mr. Owen Kelly, who has been with the Bank of Nova Scotia for a number of years, serving both here and with mainland branches, and for some years on the Charlottetown staff, resigned his position on Saturday, January 17th to accept a position on the mainland. All will wish him success in his new venture.

Miss Mabel O'Brien, a national director of the C. T. F., arrived home from Ottawa on Thursday night, January 22nd after attending a directors' meeting in the capital city. She reports a lovely trip and a successful meeting.

Those who have watched for years for Somerset Kelly and his grey truck, for lifts to the City in the mornings will watch in vain in future as Mr. Kelly has replaced his truck with a new car for his business. Many will miss the Kelly truck at the same time, morning after morning, winter and summer.

Friends of Miss Bertha MacLeod will be pleased to learn she is getting around again after an operation on her foot on January 20th. Miss MacLeod injured her foot some years ago and was ordered to the hospital recently to have an operation performed.

It is learned from the pastor of Little Flower Church that most of those who subscribed to the Bishop's building fund last summer have paid up well, which is good news for the parish.

Many will learn with regret of the sudden passing of Mr. James Lund, at Mt. Stewart on January 23rd at the early age of 44 years, and the sincere sympathy of this community is being extended to his family.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

The January meeting of Lakeview Institute was held on the 13th at the home of Mrs. Stanley Dingwell, North Lake, and opened with the singing of "O Canada," followed by the "Creed" in unison. Roll call was answered by "Something I have to look ahead to in 1953."

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. $10.00 was voted for the March of Dimes and the expenses of the president's course in Souris were ordered paid; also bills for cleaning the school and some expenses in connection with the Christmas concert. It was decided that the funds on hand would be deposited in the bank at Souris.

A letter on First Aid was read by the secretary and a talk on same followed, with the result that arrangements were made to organize a first aid class in the district at a later date. On motion, it was decided that the Institute would help the school district in the purchase of a new library for North Lake School.

The program consisted of a reading by Mrs. James MacDougall; contest by Mrs. Harold Hunter, reading by Miss Campbell and jokes by Mrs. Hudson Morrow. Collection amounted to $11.77, and 11 members were present.

Roll call for next meeting is to be answered by "A country I would like to visit and why." The meeting closed with the "National Anthem," and lunch was served by the hostess.

Won by Mrs. Lorne MacEwen, Mrs. Earl Henry and Mrs. Blois MacEwen, Mrs. Roy Douglas and Mrs. Ernest Pickering respectively. The meeting closed with "The Queen", after which lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

Mr. Ira Sanderson of Church Road has been hauling quite a number of cords of pulwood lately with his big truck to Montague, the secondary roads being exceptionally good for the time of year.

Lorne Valley and Vicinity

Mr. Samuel Johnson was a business visitor to Charlottetown on Monday, January 19th.

Mrs. Malcolm MacLeod entertained the members of Lorne Valley Women's Institute at her home on Tuesday, January 20th.

Mr. William Ferguson and Mr. Lauren MacLeod motored to Charlottetown on Monday, January 19th.

Mrs. Homer James, Mr. and Mrs. Earle James and son Blair, Midgell, motored to Lorne Valley on Tuesday, January 20th. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd MacDonald and Mr. and Mrs. F. MacIntyre.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacLeod and family, Central Royalty, motored to Lorne Valley recently where they were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacLeod.

Mrs. George MacInnis spent January 19th, 20th, and 21st in Charlottetown visiting with relatives and friends.

Friends of Mr. James MacLeod are sorry to hear that he has entered the Prince Edward Island for treatment, and all join in the hope that he will be restored to health and strength in the very near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacLeod, Mr. Murdoch MacLeod, Mr. Wilbur MacDonald and Mr. Lloyd MacDonald were visitors to Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd.

The Lorne Valley Royals motored to Georgetown to play an enjoyable game of hockey with the Georgetown team on Thursday, January 22nd.

Among those attending the game at Georgetown rink on Thursday, January 22nd were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leard and family, the Misses Jane MacGrath, Joan MacGrath, Emma Myers, Margaret McKenna, Muriel Nicholson, and Johnnie Nicholson.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.

Mrs. James MacLeod was in Charlottetown on Thursday, January 22nd to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital there.

Mr. Malcolm MacLeod recently spent a few days in Montague. He was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDougall.