No. 5 Medical Company Has Annual Inspection Ceremony

The annual inspection of the No. 5 Medical Company, Charlottetown, took place at the Armories last night with Lt. Col. H.P. Stewart in command. The 17 Recce Band (P.E.I. Regt) conducted by R.S.M. Charles from the Medical Company and the Recce Band which also participated in the march past. Following the inspection in the Armories the Company did a march past on Kent Street in front of the Armories. At the saluting base was Col R.J. Nodwell, C.D., D.D.G.M.S. accompanied by Col Craswell, director of Medical Services for Eastern Command, and Lt. Col. J.K.L. Irwin, Medical Advisor to No. 2 Militia in Charlottetown.

Colonel Craswell, director of Medical Services for Eastern Command; Company Commander Lt. Col. H.P. Stewart; the inspecting officer Colonel R.J. Nodwell, C.D., D.D.G.M.S.; and Lt. Col. J.K.L. Irwin, Medical Advisor to No 2 Militia in Charlottetown.

The ceremonial inspection was followed by the dividing up of the officers, NCO's and other ranks into groups for assessment. This marks the third occasion that the No. 5 Medical Company has been selected to represent Eastern Command at their annual inspection. They are competing with other medical units across Canada for the Ryerson and Shillington Trophies.

Anglican Young Peoples Dom. Pres. Will Visit P. E. I.

The Dominion President of the Anglican Young Peoples Association, Walter Jones of Toronto, will be visiting the Deanery of P.E.I. on May 20-21. Mr. Jones has had an outstanding record in AY, where he has been a faithful member of his own branch in Toronto for many years. Past president of the diocese of Toronto, he served as International Relations Chairman on the Dominion Council. During his office he personally wrote every Anglican Bishop enclosing AYP material in an effort to encourage AYP in such places as Australia, Africa, India and Japan, which met with gratifying results. He did a wonderful job as chairman of the Dominion Conference in Halifax in 1955. At that time he was elected executive vice-president of the Dominion, an office he held until his election to president last June at the Dominion Conference at Vancouver.

WALTER JONES

Mr. Jones will address the Diocesan Conference in Halifax May 17, 18, 19, and Island delegates have an opportunity to hear him there also. At least 35 Young People will be travelling to Halifax by bus this week-end to the diocesan conference.

400 Expected Here Today As Maritime Y's Men's Meet

More than 400 Y's Men, their wives and families will converge on the Island capital today for the Maritime Regional Y's Men's Convention to be held today, tomorrow and Monday at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Gordon McClary, of Edmonton, Alberta, International Y's Men's Director, will be the guest speaker at the Convention's banquet to offering. However in the larger centres the Council found it too cumbersome to be dealing with a second corporate body.

From his experience in most of the eastern Canadian cities, Mr. Crandall said there was no city the size of Charlottetown still with a sewerage and water commission.
