THE DRAMA.—On Monday night, May 3rd, the Dramatic club of St. Dunstan's College intend to present their sublime drama, "College Boys," in the Opera House. This play will remind you of your youthful days and you will do well to remember the date.

I. O. G. T.—The regular meeting of Charlottetown Lodge, No. 68, I. O. G. T., last night was as usual very interesting. Six candidates were initiated and several propositions received. After the ceremony addresses were given by Messrs. T. S. Robertson, M. P. P., W. L. Waring, G. C. T. of New Brunswick, and J. D. Seaman. The lodge decided to hold a concert about the latter part of this month, the date of which will be given later.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Farmer reports that Mrs. Barlow, wife of Mr. William Barlow, of Wellington Mills, died quite suddenly on Saturday night, the 20th ult. She took ill about five o'clock that evening and before the clock had struck the hour of midnight she had expired. As soon as she became ill, Dr. Gallant was hastily summoned, but he was unable to do anything to save her life, the trouble being hemorrhage of the brain. As would be expected from such a malady, she never spoke after the attack. The deceased before marriage was Miss Jane McAuslin, and a sister of Mr. Samuel McAuslin and other brothers of Tyne Valley. The funeral took place on Tuesday, the 23rd ult., and it was a large one, the remains being buried in the Presbyterian churchyard at Tyne Valley.

FAREWELL ADDRESS.—A number of the citizens of Hunter River and vicinity met at the residence of G. H. McGuigan, Esq., on Wednesday evening, 31st ult., to do honor to Mrs. and Mr. Manley, the latter of whom leave Tuesday for the land of the Setting Sun (Dakota, U. S.). A very feeling address was read by Mr. G. H. McLeod, merchant, and was suitably replied to by Mr. Manley. Upwards of thirty sat down to supper, which was gotten up in Mrs. McGuigan's best style, which is not saying a little. Amongst the instrumental and vocal performers of the evening were Miss Katie A. McLean, Janette and Sarah May McLeod and Ida Hughes. Those who responded to the toasts were Mr. G. H. McGuigan, G. H. McLeod, Patrick Rouaghan, Mr. Bell and McDonald. We wish Mr. Manley, God-speed.

TEMPERANCE IN TIGNISH.

SIR.—There appeared in the columns of the Guardian of the 25th inst., a correspondence from Tignish signed "Fairplay" which requires a word of explanation, lest parties who are not familiar with the facts of the case in question might be led astray by the bold and untruthful statements it contains.

At the outset, let me say that the whiskey and beer traffic are actually wiped out from Tignish at the present time, and may it long be so. But, Broderick and Fairplay excepted, no one will undertake to say that Broderick did it. The shanty that caused the trouble all along was stopped on the warning given that unless said shanty was immediately closed disclosures would be forthcoming that would not turn to the credit of those who rendered evident their malice against certain parties, whilst they shielded Theodore Barnard. Steps were immediately taken by parties, for reasons best known to themselves, and Theodore was quietly advised to close his den. Since that time we are blessed with a peaceful life, another mortals. Such are the facts of the case. Broderick had no more to do with it than the man in the moon.

The items that appeared in THE EXAMINER and other papers about the carrying out of the Scott Act in Tignish are stubborn facts which challenge contradiction, Fairplay to the contrary. The allusion made to the Tignish Drugstore by "Fairplay" in his honey-mouthed language comes in with very bad grace, when only a few days previous the gentlemen keeping the drug store were most unjustly, and for a purpose, charged with being the cause of the drunkenness then existing in Tignish. A slap at the Conservatives, as can be plainly seen by the drift of his letter, is the aim of the individual who gives himself the misnomer of Fairplay. It is an attempt, but a miserable one, made to lead the public to believe that nothing which is good, nothing which is honorable, can emanate in Tignish but from the dear grit family. Fairplay—Foulplay would be more suitable—undoubtedly belongs to that class that always puts politics before everything else—from the Lord's prayer right down to a glass of beer.

The mass of the people in our midst are abstainers, thank God; but let it be well understood that the observance of temperance is due to higher and more heavenly motives than the manoeuvres of Broderick and those who lug him on their back.

Yours, &c., FACT.

March 30th, 1897.

PERSONAL.

The Martin Smith who was fined at the police court is not Martin Smith of Johnson's River.

Dr. Strickland, who has been ill with la grippe for the past few days, is improving, and hopes to be in his office in a day or two.

We regret to learn that Mrs. F. Peters is so unwell that she left home last evening, accompanied by Dr. S. R. Jenkins, to take a special course of treatment in New York. Her husband accompanied her as far as Cape Traverse.

I. O. O. F.—Willey Lodge meets tonight. First degree. As there is important business a full attendance of members is requested.

ROAD BOODLING.—The latest road job that the Local Government has created for the reward of its faithful followers is the raising of a considerable portion of the Brackley Point Road near the Eus on Farm. An immense lot of stone is being hauled from Wooldridge's quarry, on the Mount Edward Road, for the purpose, and of course plenty of employment is thus given for men and teams. It is said that simply making a bridge would be sufficient improvement for the road, but there would not be so much boodling in it.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS.

Continued by the Leader of the Opposition, The Leader of the Government, Mr. Shaw and Mr. Campbell.

Hon. Mr. Gordon continued the debate on the address and criticised the Governor's speech. In his opinion the Dominion Government ought to furnish cold storage without a d from the Province and should also furnish the additional railway accommodation to which this province is justly entitled. The intimation that a bridge is to be built across the Hillsborough is a sure sign that an election is at hand. Of course the Government don't mean what they say. He had heard a very prominent and well-informed supporter of their party (Captain William Welsh) ridicule the idea and declare, as late as Wednesday last, that "only a madman would attempt to bridge the Hillsborough from Charlottetown to Southport." As to the vaunted road machines, he believed them to be of little value, particularly where the roads were narrow. Mr. Gordon closed by referring to the change that had taken place in public opinion as a result of the deceitful, unfulfilled promises of the Government.

Hon. Mr. Peters thought the Province ought to be happy in the fact that the Tories were out and the good Queen reigns. Certainly the people had made a noble response to the call from India. He was surprised to hear the Leader of the Opposition, speaking for his party, say that he thought the Dominion Government should do all towards the supply of Cold Storage and the Province do nothing. In view of the hostile commercial policy of the United States, and the improved facilities for trade with Great Britain afforded in other parts of Canada, cold storage for P. E. Island is essential to the continued prosperity of its farmers. As to the bridging of the Hillsborough, he took issue against the Leader of the Opposition and Captain Welsh. The Leader of the Opposition had referred to the road machines as being unfit for narrow roads. It is evident, at all events, that he and his party are in a narrow road. (Applause.)

Mr. Shaw said that the Leader of the Government had lately been rubbing noses with politicians and counsel across the line and had come home impregnated with their characteristic bancombe. His reference to the Opposition in the narrow road was not happy, inasmuch as it is "the broad road that leadeth to destruction." That is the road which has been taken by the leader of the Government and his party—and they are in a fair way to be politically destroyed by the people at the polls. Mr. Shaw proceeded to criticise the speech from the Throne, and drew forth applause of the galleries whereupon Mr. Peters threatened to turn the people out. Hon. Mr. Campbell said that he was glad to see that farmers had been secured to move and second the address. But it was noticeable that these gentlemen could not refrain from censuring the Government for their violation of promises. He referred to the "Commissioners" proceeding up and down in the land at the public expense to find occasion for the dismissal of officials who had dared to exercise their franchise as free born men, and proceeded to review the speech in a forcible and cogent manner until the clock having struck six, the house adjourned.

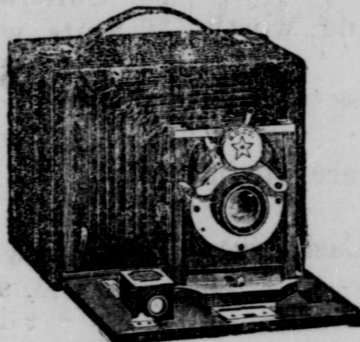

THE MAILS.—No crossing at the Capes today.

THE STANLEY got to Picton early this morning, and will leave on return to Georgetown to-morrow morning.

THE WEATHER.—Moderate to fresh northwesterly and westerly winds fine; not much change in temperature.

THE MARKET.—There is not a very large attendance at the market to-day. The ice is now generally unsafe for travelling and the roads are bad, so that very few people are in from the country.

WORDSWORTH—"Wordsworth's conception of Human Nature," is the subject of Rev. Mr. Moss' lecture in Grace Church, next Tuesday evening. Those who braved the inclement weather to hear his last lecture in town spoke enthusiastically of its merit. Don't miss this coming opportunity. Lecture at 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents.
