The Meeting at the Rink.

MR. BLAKE'S SIDE OF THE QUESTION.

The Rink last evening was fairly well filled, all the gallery being reserved for the ladies. There were, at first, of all classes, crowds and parties, about a thousand electors present.

On the platform were, among others, Rev. Dr. Murray, Rev. Father McGillivray, Rev. W. E. Frame, Rev. Father Gillis, Rev. J. M. McLeod, Rev. Father Charles McDonald, Rev. Mr. Cowperthwaite, Rev. Father Allan McDonald, Rev. K. McLennan, Rev. Father James Eneas McDonald, Rev. John Allan, Rev. John McKinnon, Rev. Donald McNeill, Rev. Mr. Paradis, and other clergymen of various denominations.

T. W. DODD, M.L.C., President of the Reform Association, took the Chair about 8 o'clock.

MR. BLAKE was first introduced. He called upon the electors to repair the grave error which, he said, had committed at the last General Election. One of the most valuable attributes of property he said, is "the freedom of exchange."

MR. ANGLIN, last night, stated that there was not a man, woman, or child, in the city which he came from, (St. John), who owned his own employment at present, to the National Policy. Even the Girls who he said, did not believe this sweeping statement, and as we have not correct figures of the increased labor employed in St. John, and a thorough knowledge of the stimulus given to the industry of that city by the National Policy, we leave the matter to the journals of St. John that city to deal with it as they think fit.

THE Parishioners of St. Columba Parish, East Point take this method of returning thanks to the public of all denominations, who, by their attendance at the Tea Party, contributed to make it a grand success. They wish to refer particularly to the proprietors of the different factories throughout the parish, who, at considerable sacrifice to themselves, closed their establishments on that day in order to give their employees an opportunity of attending the Tea.

On behalf of the parishioners, DOUGALD CAMPBELL, JOHN CAMPBELL, East Point, July 29th, 1881.

Weather Bulletin. Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the Maritime Provinces.

TORONTO, August 2—10 a. m. Moderate winds, mostly from the west and south; continued fair warm weather, with local showers and thunder storms.

MARRIED. On the 28th ult., at the residence of the bride's uncle, Pastor D. G. McDonald, and by the same, assisted by Pastor C. C. Burgess, James Arneson Duckenfield, Esq., North River, to Maggie A. McLean of Charlottetown.

SHEEP. At Rona, Lot 60, on the 25th ult., after a long and distressing illness which he bore with resignation to the Divine Will, John McLeod, the beloved son of Alexander McLeod, in the 28th year of his age, much respected by all his acquaintances and friends. (P. obituary please copy)

MR. L. H. DAVIES was called for; and spoke briefly. He commended the speakers; and expressed his great joy that Sir Charles Tupper had at last been answered in words that could not be mistaken. He depicted in eloquent terms the misery and impoverishment which has fallen upon us since the present Government came into power. He announced that a reception would be held at the Rink this afternoon, and that a banquet would be given at the Rink House this evening.

The attenuated meeting broke up amid cheers, and the speakers were conducted to their homes by a torchlight procession, which was, from every point of view, exceedingly small.

The Catholic Total Abstinence Convention is now in session in St. Patrick's Hall. Twenty-four delegates are present.

The Verdict of independent farmers—"We are disappointed with Blake, Anglin and Huntington." They are not true orators, and have no policy to remedy the evils (?) of which they bitterly complain.

"J. W. M." received the letter signed "Conscience," but would it be to have had the writer's name in confidence. The only person mentioned in your letter were the only parties interested in the business.

In Pickard's Warehouse North Side Market Square, the Farmers can see good and very cheap Mowers: The Harvest Queen Reaper—this is none better; the Meadow Lark Combined Mower and Reaper, light and good; some second-hand machines (cheap); the Bushnell Iron reaper, light, strong, and easy to handle. Any boy that can drive the horse can dump the rake. If you want a plain or spring tooth Harrow, you will find them there.—J. W. PICKARD. [a 2]

By-Law to Encourage New Industries in the City of Charlottetown.

BE it enacted by the City Council of the City of Charlottetown as follows:

1. All applications for exemption of new industries from taxation shall be made by petition to the Mayor and Council, such petition to be signed by the person, company or corporation presenting the same, and to contain full particulars of the new industry sought to be exempted, the amount of capital proposed to be invested therein, and the amount to be paid yearly for wages, and the tax or taxes from which exemption is sought.

2. Every such petition shall be accompanied by proper proofs that the advertisements required by law have been duly inserted, and no application shall be considered by the Council until after the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the last publication of such advertisements.

3. The Council on such application may exempt such new industries from taxation or from any particular species of taxation.

4. In case such application is contested, the Council may adjourn the hearing thereof from time to time, should they think fit, but not more than one application by any new industry shall be made within the fiscal year.

5. No exemption will be granted to any new industry which does not propose to expend yearly at least the sum of five thousand dollars in wages.

6. Any false statement or suppression of facts contained in any petition so to be presented as aforesaid shall absolutely annul any exemption and the tax shall be collected as if the same had never been made.
