Savage Harbour

We are sorry to learn our bank manager has for a number of years Mr. Gordon Bonnell. At present Mr. Bonnell is on sick leave.

Friends here, especially the old class of Mr. Fred L. O'Brien, will be pleased to know his serious condition has improved some following an operation in Boston. He has been very ill for many weeks.

The price of eggs has dropped to the lowest here in many a day with farmers receiving an average of twenty-five cents per dozen. This is considered extremely low in winter months.

Mrs. James Arnold, has returned home from P. E. I. Hospital, where she had undergone a serious operation. We all hope to see her back to better health soon.

Despite the severe winter on game birds a large gathering of crows are spending the winter here. They are seen around the yards and fishing places daily although they are only supposed to be summer birds.

Mr. Ambrose Phalen was a business visitor to the city on Tuesday, where some of his farm work is to be done on the old farm now where he spent his best years.

The most wanted men in this vicinity right now are the service men. They report they are swarmed with calls for dirty oil, frozen carburetors, plumbing, etc., all over the county. Despite all this the boys never say no. They always make it some time day or night with a smile.

There is some talk here now of a play cast to put on a play for Easter and that brings back memories of a day not so long ago when this vicinity had one of the finest dramatic clubs anywhere in the amateur field. Such outstanding ones as Miss Mabel O'Brien, Ronnie MacDonald, Alex McAdam, and Aeneas MacDonald, are only a few we recall of the cast that once put on plays here that brought both tears and laughter to large crowds.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald were here from the city for two days, visiting their old home port, stopping over with their son Joe on the farm.

Friends here of Mr. Bruce W. McEwen, will be pleased to learn he is considerably improved in health now after a long period of illness. This service has a pleasant chat with our old friend on Saturday and he says he hopes to be coming along now to better health and better fishing when the trout season gets started. He and Mrs. McEwen are spending the winter in the city but we hope to see them here again in the spring.

Mr. Fulton Douglas of Charlottetown was a visitor to Savage Harbour on Saturday. Mr. Douglas is a former resident of this District has a host of friends in this area who are always happy to have him visit with them.

Messrs. Alex and Aeneas McEachern of Charlottetown were visitors to Savage Harbour on Tuesday where they were the guests of Messrs. Nashes McCormack and Joseph MacKay. Aeneas is a violinist of some renown and took this opportunity of playing several tunes on the famous fiddle owned by Mr. MacKay.

Missing from the card games at Savage Harbour and Point de Roche during the past few weeks has been that noted card player Mr. William Gunn of Savage Harbour. Billy as he is more familiarly known has not been feeling the best for some time and did not feel able to take his customary place at the tables. It is pleasing to note that he has now fully recovered. Many who have been winning with more or less monotonous regularity during the absence of the big chief would do well to look to their laurels.

After watching from the sidelines for the past several weeks, Mr. Joseph S. MacKay last year's champion of the fifteen-two pastime has signified his intention of defending his title at the coming tournament, plans for which are now being formulated. Last year Joe beat all comers and in the finals defeated the Mt. Stewart champion Mr. Bruce Affleck so severely that Bruce gave up the game of cribbage and devoted his many talents to the less exacting game of forty-fives. Mr. MacKay knows cribbage from beginning to end, is a thorough student of the game and never passes up an opportunity of besting his opponent. Unless some dark horse emerges from the preliminaries, Joe will have little difficulty in retaining his crown.

Friends of Miss Viola Feehan formerly of Savage Harbour but now residing at Lot 40 will be sorry to learn that she has been obliged to enter the Charlottetown Hospital for treatment. All join in the hope that Miss Feehan will make a speedy and complete recovery.

Mr. Wilfred Affleck well known horseman of Mt. Stewart has purchased the outstanding trotting mare Tena Gratton. Mr. Affleck for sometime has owned the attractive trotter Riley's First and now with this further addition to his stable racing fans in this area may look forward to some interesting contests if the weather man lends his kind cooperation. Mr. Affleck himself has some doubts however for as he says despite the fact that there are several good race horses in this district the owners and caretakers will think twice before matching their favorite steeds against the trim fast-stepping Gratton mare. There could be a lot of clean wholesome sport if all see eye to eye.

The card sharps moved to the home of Duncan Doyle, Point de Roche, on Tuesday night for their weekly contests. Nine handers won the nod and three tables squared away for the fray. Play was of a high order as might be expected with the Doyle brothers Duncan and Mike setting the pattern. Interest was keen and never lagged until the final trick of the final game was hauled home. Among the prize winners were Mrs. James MacKay, Miss Phyllis MacKay, Mrs. Clarence Murphy, Lester Gunn, Peter Doyle, Billy Gunn and Miss Ann MacInnis. A delicious lunch was served at the end of play.

An overflow crowd greeted the Variety Concert staged in St. Andrews Hall Mt. Stewart on Tuesday evening. It was one of the finest entertainments offered in this area for sometime. Every number was a crowd pleaser and it would be most unfair to cite any one number over another.

At the card and crokinole party held in the Mt. Stewart Community Hall sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary on Friday, twenty-two tables got away at the word go and when the last lap was run Mrs. Thelma Birt of Pisquid was out in front among the ladies while Mr. Wendall Glover was breaking the road for his fellow males. That grand old sport Mr. Luther Coffin for the second time in three weeks took top honors in the freeze out. Lunch was served by ladies of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. James MacKay of Savage Harbour accompanied by her daughter Phylis were visitors to Charlottetown on Tuesday.

Mrs. Margaret MacMillan who formerly lived in this area but now resides at Summerside was a week-end visitor to Mt. Stewart where she was the guest of friends.

This column joins in extending sincere sympathy to Mrs. Henry McGuirk and family of Dromore in the death of a loving husband and father. The late Mr. McGuirk passed away at the home of his daughter Mrs. Raymond Hughes, Charlottetown, on February 13 after a lengthy illness.

Miss Shirley Mullen of Charlottetown was a week-end visitor to Mt. Stewart, where she was the guests of friends.

Rev. Frank MacAulay of Winnipeg arrived on the Island to attend the funeral of his brother the late Bruce MacAulay of Tracadie.

The many friends of Mr. Charles MacWilliams, Mt. Stewart will be sorry to learn that he has been obliged to enter the Prince Edward Island Hospital for observation and treatment. All join in the hope that Mr. MacWilliams will make a speedy and complete recovery.

Mrs. Ernest Doyle of Savage Harbour left during the week for Edmundston, N. B., to attend the funeral of her aunt. Mrs. Doyle will continue on to Boston where she will visit for the next several weeks as guests of friends.

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Affleck, formerly of Cherry Hill who passed away at Malden, Mass., on Feb. 3 was held on February 9th from the Cutcliffe Funeral Home to Mt. Stewart United Church. The service was conducted by the Rev. R. H. Rayner. Interment in the church cemetery. The late Miss Affleck was a sister of the late Mrs. Fred Jardine, Head of Hillsborough and Mrs. William MacKenzie who predeceased her a few years ago.
