Canada To Raise Share Of U. N. Technical Aid

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (CP) The Canadian government Thursday announced it will contribute 1,800,000 to next year's program of expanded UN technical assistance.

The contribution represents an increase of $300,000 over that made by Canada the last two years.

Oscar Gilbert, Canadian delegate, told the UN economic and financial committee that the 1956 contribution is subject to parliamentary approval.

Col. Gilbert is publisher of the Quebec city newspapers l'Evenement-Journal and Le Soleil.

He told the committee that since the program's inception in 1950 Canada had contributed $5,400,000.

The expanded program supplies funds to such specialized agencies as the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization; the Food and Agriculture Organization; and the World Health Organization.

Other countries will announce their 1956 contributions at a pledging conference to be held here Oct. 26.

Col. Gilbert said that as an expression of "continuing support" for the program the Canadian government undertook, subject to parliamentary appropriations, to maintain its contributions at about the 1956 level during the following two years.

Weston's was the market feature on rumors that the company will take over control of Safeway Stores Inc. of San Francisco, major U.S. supermarket chain. Weston stock jumped $9.25 to 134.

International Nickel posted a 1⅛ advance among the base metals after the company announced a copper price increase. Opemiska was up 55 to $8.85. Eastern Smelting and Granduc each gained 30, to $6.70 and $7.00 respectively. Gaspe Copper moved ahead $1.50.
