

The Bank of Montreal.

The Bank of Montreal's Annual general meeting was held on Wednesday. The report shows the profit of the year ending 30th April, deducting charges of management and providing for bad and doubtful debts, 611,487. There has been taken interest and transferred to profit and loss $500,000. The balance of profit and loss, 101,784. There has been a falling off in note circulation of over $225,000, ascribed to diminished volume of trade, but there has been an increase of deposits. The following were elected directors: G. W. Campbell, M. D., Sir A. T. Galt, Edward Mackay, Alex. Murray, Peter Redpath, Hon. Thomas Ryan, Hon. D. A. Smith, George Stephen, Gilbert Scott.

The Tide of Emigration

Once more the steamer accommodation of the ocean steamships is crowded with passengers seeking homes in the new world. It is six years since the tide of emigration flowed so strongly as it has done this spring. The returns from the Mersey shows that during April sixty-five vessels bound for North America carried 10,917 passengers of whom 5,348 were English, 58 Scotch, 1,546 Irish 3,809 foreigners, and 156 whose nationalities were not known. Their destinations were 8,931 to the United States, 1,723 to Canada, 48 to Australia, 129 to South America, 39 the East Indies, 12 to the West Indies, 9 to China, and 44 to the west coast of Africa. A comparison shows that the figures of last month were 6,015 over those of the previous month—March—and 4,090 over April, 1878.

A Splendid Opportunity.

The New York Times publishes a dreadful article concerning the sea coast defences of the United States. It points out that there are no guns of any calibre to resist the guns of ships; that the forts could not resist the bombardments of foreign guns; that the garrisons are not well supplied; and that, in fine, all the seaboard cities are exposed to easy destruction by the enterprising enemy! And yet these people, in their mad confidence, presume to tax our lobster cans! Shall we longer tolerate it—while we have the Northern Light and the Glendon and the great experience of that famous naval commander, Sir Albert Smith, to carry us to victory and release our cans from bondage? We might let loose the dogs of war—with lobster cans tied to their terrific tails, in every seacoast city of the United States, and free our cans or perish—at least Sir Albert could if he pleased (dulce et decorum est pro patria mori) die—in the attempt. Here is a nation at our mercy. Shall we be merciful—or not? But at least we have a magnificent chance.—Toronto Mail.

Beecher in the Pulpit.

Mr. Beecher in the pulpit is a person not easily forgotten. He is, naturally, more at home in his own domain than on the platform or on the staff of his regiment. In the pulpit we expect to see him and hear him at his best. We wait upon his best thoughts arrayed in his choicest language. His burly figure suggests power; his silvery locks arouse your sympathy; his face, glowing with the eloquence of a mighty brain, becomes electrified by the consciousness of its own power; and as his lips give shape to his choicest words his hearers become charmed with the magic of his voice. He is, in short, when under the inspiration of thought, sublime. His voice is strong but even, and his softest utterances are heard, distinctly as his deeper tones. Beecher is neither a loud nor noisy preacher in the sense of harshness, and his manner does not strike the hearer as being studied for artificial effect. Though Mr. Beecher's voice is fine, his figure effective, and his delivery highly dramatic, his greatest charm lies after all in what he says rather than in the manner of his saying it. He enunciates well and is a careful speaker, and not a word shall be lost if he can help it. As he warms with his subject his eyes flash under the spell of their spiritual light. Mr. Beecher is not handsome in the conventional sense, though were he as homely as Caliban there would be no lack of admirers, who, losing sight of his uncomeliness, would only recognize the beauty shed by the light of the soul within.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Globe Democrat tells this story:—"An Irishman, upon his arrival in the United States, noting the great number of military titles, exclaimed: 'What a devil of a battle has been fought near here, where all the privates were killed.'"

Gen. Gourko, Governor General of St. Petersburg, has issued an order placing restrictions upon the purchase and sale of strong poisons.

ENTIRELY FREE FROM ALCOHOL.

Upon the medicinal virtues of Lime Juice and Quinine it is unnecessary to dilate. The combination of two agents of such universally acknowledged value, in at once a palatable and innocuous form, has been a desideratum long sought, but only now successfully accomplished; for although the Tonic qualities of Quinine have been popularised in the form of QUININE WINES, it is well known these combinations have been attended with serious evils consequent upon the Alcoholic Stimulants they all contain, at once prejudicial to health and demoralising in their tendency.

Aromatic Montserrat Quinine Cordial is guaranteed to contain one grain of Quinine in each wineglassful, and to be entirely free from alcohol, being prepared solely from the Montserrat Lime Fruit Juice combined with Aromatics.

CATARRH. Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—
DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head. A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly,

W. FINDALL, Methodist Minister.

SICUM POROUS PLASTERS.

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different: the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniment. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER.

You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
