

Now Comes The Rubber Time Of Year.

However much you and ourselves would like to have if, otherwise, the fact remains that with the coming of November the humble rubber assumes a paramount position, it now becomes a question of rubbers, or six months of wet feet, colds, Doctors and a thousand other ills.

Our rubbers are the best, and made on new lasts to suit the '97 shoes, they fit "like the paper on the wall"

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—The New Opera House at Fredericton was opened by the Miles Ideal Stock Company on Monday night. "Michael Strogoff" was the opening bill.

STOCK SHIPMENTS.—Messrs. Kane & Hayes, of St. John, shipped 190 lambs from Summerside Saturday morning, to Boston. Yesterday morning they shipped 206, and Mr. S. H. Jones shipped 350.—Journal.

BOSTON PRICES.—A correspondent of the St. John Sun says: Potatoes continue very firm. At first hand they are worth 70 to 75c per bushel, and at retail, $1 to $1.40. P. E. Island potatoes are coming forward rapidly.

ISLAND PRODUCE.—The scho. St Joseph is being loaded with hay and oats for St. Pierre by Carvell Bros.

The scho. Yankee Maid is at Georgetown on her way to Charlottetown. She will be loaded with potatoes and oats for Rockland, Me., by Carvell Bros.

SOURIS NOTES.—F. F. Perley, St. John; W. F. Louson, A. Norris, Montreal; D. Schurman, J. R. McKie, F. McLean, Charlottetown, are at the Sea View Hotel.

Three of our popular young townsmen, Messrs. Frank Seaman, Herbert Wood and Sabastian MacEachern, left this morning for Boston.

MEXICO MEDICINE CO.—The Mexico Medicine Co. have departed, but have arranged with V. R. Watson, the popular druggist, to sell their famous remedies for a few days at their advertising price, viz., Mex-o. 50c per bottle; Blackthorn Oil, 25c; Mex-o. Catarrh Cure, 25c; Mex-o. Medicated Soap, 10c per cake. 267-41

THE ATTEMPT A FAILURE.—The Halifax Herald says: A notice was inserted in the papers calling on any who were desirous of forming a club for the promotion of literature, art, etc., to meet last evening at the Halifax Hotel. So far as could be observed only one individual put in an appearance to ask about the proposed meeting. It failed to materialize.

MISSIONARY BEGINS WORK.—The Rev. R. W. Dickey, the first Presbyterian missionary to the Klondike region, has reached Skaguay and commenced work. He reports Skaguay a mushroom wooden town, six weeks old, with 1,500 inhabitants. A Sunday school has been organized, and steps are being taken to erect a Presbyterian church without seeking help.

A BAD ACCIDENT.—According to a despatch from St. John on Sunday last Mrs. Gallagher of Kingsville met with a most distressing accident, the result of which deprived her of the use of one of her eyes. The woman was feeding the cow and was in the act of standing over a pail from which the cow was eating, when the animal suddenly raised its head, one of the horns penetrating the woman's left eye, dragging the eye from the socket.

HOME MISSION COMMITTEE.—The Home Mission Committee of the Presbytery of P. E. Island will hold a meeting on Thursday, 25th inst., in Cove Head church, at 3 o'clock, p. m., and St. Peter's Road church at 7 p. m. The same committee will meet the united congregations of Hampton, Tryon and Bonshaw, on Monday, 29th inst. at 2 o'clock, p. m. Rev. Mr. Hawley will preach in Bedeque on the 21st and 28th inst.—Thos. F. Fullerton, Clerk of Presbytery.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Albro-Mills.

A very pretty wedding took place at noon today in the First Methodist Church, which was tastefully decorated with flowers. The principals were Mr. James G. Albro, of Newport, R. I., and Miss E. E. May Mills, daughter of the late Rev. Edwin Mills, of the N. B. and P. E. Island Methodist Conference. Rev. G. M. Campbell tied the nuptial knot.

The bride was attired in a becoming dress of cream silk trimmed with pearls and lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses.

A cousin of the bride, Miss Ida Mills, of Kensington, was bridesmaid. She wore a suit of pale canary cashmere with pink to match, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Daniel McLeod, of Messrs. Beer Bros., supported the groom; and the bride was given away by her brother, Mr. W. Murley Mills.

Messrs. Ernest Duchemin, A. W. Mitchell, Hildreth Duchemin and George McLeod were the ushers.

Professor S. N. Earle presided at the organ, and rendered the wedding march in his usual excellent manner.

A handsome diamond brooch in the form of a four-leaf clover was the groom's present to the bride. The other presents were numerous and costly, among them being several substantial checks.

The happy couple left by this afternoon's train for Summerside, where they will remain till tomorrow morning when they take the steamer en route to Newport, R. I., where they will reside in future. THE EXAMINER joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Albro every joy in life.

Palmer-Wilson.

Mrs. Mary J. Wilson of this city and R. L. Palmer, of Boston, were married at the home of Mrs. Wilson's daughter, Mrs. S. B. Jones, 20 Kernwood street, this city, last evening. Rev. Frederick Edwards, of St. Paul's church officiated. Only relatives and friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will be "at home" at their residence in Roxbury, after Dec. 1.—Malden Evening Mail, Nov. 11.

[The bride formerly lived in Charlottetown. THE EXAMINER joins in the congratulations.]

DIED.

What The People Say.

The people say, that we are without doubt, showing the largest assortment of sacques and capes, in the city, and they acknowledge that we are the cheapest, by trading with us after looking all over town. Why, we often hear them say that they did not know that we kept such beautiful garments.—Oh how cheap, and hundreds of other kind remarks, that encourage us on. Now if there is anyone left, who does not know, that we have a first class cloak department, loaded up with the very newest and best styles in the market. Come and see.

What We Say.

That we have more to lose in treating you well than you have. You only lose on the article you buy, while we stand a chance not to lose your trade for all times to come, and we cannot afford to lose that. We are in a position to offer you the very best values to be had in ladies sacques. We have not got one of last seasons jackets in the store; all new fresh, stylish garments, every one bought this season, and marked so that they will sell this season. The prices are—$2, $3, $4, $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, $10, $11, $12.

WE WILL NOT

Ask you $16, and then take $10, but we will guarantee to give you the best $10 jacket in the city.

All we ask is a chance to show you our magnificent assortment of sacques and capes, the styles, the qualities, and the prices will do the selling, and the so honest satisfaction that you will get will bring you back to see us again.
