FRILLS OF FASHION.

Cyranos is one of the newest colors. It is a rich ruby and becoming alike to dark and fair.

Grace loving Frenchwomen declare that the fad for flounced skirts has gone too far and that they have never approved of the fashion.

In spite of efforts to abolish them the full drooping waists continue, some of the finest imported models having this style running almost to an extreme.

The popularity of velvet for wraps and gowns this winter is already assured. This will be good news, for it is a fabric that is universally becoming.

Parisian manufacturers are turning out epaulets with fringes hanging to the waist, and deep flounces of fringe are being woven to hang from the knees to the hem of the skirt.

A dainty tea jacket is made of accordion plaited liberty silk, which falls unconfined back and front from a square shirred yoke of the same material. The plaited sleeves reach only to the elbow.

Striped piques, with miniature flowers between the stripes, are being largely employed for single and double breasted vests, as well as for those showing no opening, to be worn with tailor made gowns. Vests are also fashioned of bandana handkerchiefs, the effect being striking under a dark coat.

The ordinary foulard nearly covered with a white design has been extremely fashionable this season, but for early autumn wear satin foulard in the most exquisite new tints, with small white or cream designs, is taking its place. The satin foulard is far richer looking than the other and wears twice as well. —New York Sun.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The finest shops in a Chinese city are those devoted to the sale of opium.

Australian rabbit skins are being converted into sealskins for the American market.

Pet dogs in London wear chamois shoes when in the house to protect polished floors from scratches.

Eight churches have stood on the site of St. Paul's cathedral, London. The first one was built in the year 233.

The average number of horses killed in Spanish bullfights every year exceeds 5,000, while from 1,000 to 1,200 bulls are sacrificed.

When packing away light silk gowns, do not use white tissue paper, for it is bleached by chloride of lime and will spoil the color of the silk.

Corsets must not be worn by Russian young women attending high schools.

universities and music and art schools, according to a recent decree of the new minister of education. They are to be discouraged to wear the national costume.

Paper floors for dwelling houses are coming into use in Germany. They are formed of several thicknesses of stout paper, dampened, pasted and rolled. They have no crevices or joints to harbor dust or vermin and are yielding to the feet.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind, colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

Maiden Speeches.

Sheridan, one of the greatest of British orators and who entered parliament after a conspicuously successful literary career, so nearly broke down in his maiden effort that the general verdict pronounced upon him was that "nature never intended him for an orator."

Brougham and Canning were equally unsuccessful, and many of the most celebrated speakers of the present day displayed no signs of oratory when they appeared for the first time before the critical assembly at St. Stephen's.

Mr. Gladstone's maiden speech, delivered Feb. 21, 1833, was a nervous, hesitant and almost inaudible effort.

Fire and Water.

Water will extinguish a fire because the water forms a coating over the fuel, which keeps it from the air, and the conversion of water into steam draws off the heat from the burning fuel. A little water makes a fire fiercer, while a large quantity of water puts it out. The explanation is that water is composed of oxygen and hydrogen. When therefore the fire can decompose the water into its simple elements, it serves as fuel to the flame.

A Unique Sign.

A sign which was productive of much discussion was read by the patrons of a small laundry establishment in a Massachusetts town.

It was printed in large letters on a piece of brown paper and pinned to the door of the shop. It ran thus:

"Closed on account of sickness till next Monday, or possibly Wednesday. I am not expected to live. Shall be unable to deliver goods for at least a week in any case."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

The office never has to seek the man on pay day.

Some dogs are pointers and some are disappointers.

More people have the gift of speech than the gift of silence.

The older the trousers, the better they are prepared for the fray.

When passenger trains are telescoped, the passengers are apt to see stars.

Mr. Geo. Cummings for over 30 years engineer on Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says:—"The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, making my kidneys, I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my friend, Mr. J. Simplicity of ornament as a bridal fashion seems destined, by the way, to rapidly become a thing of the past. A recent bride, certainly to the manner born, wore a pearl necklace and diamond pendant.
