IN MEMORIAM

WOOD—In loving memory of my dear father, Calvin Wood, who passed away March 13, 1956. As long as memory endures, Your loved one cannot die. For memories flow sweeter still As days and years go by. Always remembered by Parker, Pansy and Family.

BURNS—In memory of Edmund W. Burns who passed away on March 13, 1955. We who have known and loved him. Whose passing has brought sad tears. Will cherish his memory always. To brighten the passing years. Ever remembered by his wife, Bobby and Edna.

FERGUSON—In loving memory of Lieut. Gerald Garfield Ferguson killed in Italy, March 13, 1944.

Ever and lovingly remembered by his parents, sister and brothers.

YEO—In sad and loving memory of our dear son and brother Charles Clayton Yeo, departed this life March 13, 1940. There is so little we can say, So little we can do, When God has called a love one home. Who meant so much to us. When smiling eyes are closed in sleep. According to God's will. And that dear voice we loved to hear. Has suddenly grown still. But there are those who think of you. And those who always care. And so this gentle message is, Sincerely sent to be.

A prayerful thought of fond regard To one who was so dear. Lovingly remembered by mother, Lloyd and Allison.

IN MEMORIAM

CHARLES BRADLEY

The death of Charles Bradley occurred suddenly at his home in Woodstock, N.B. on Sunday morning January 20. He had retired the previous evening apparently in good health but passed away in the early hours of the morning stricken with a heart attack.

A native of P.E.I. he was born at South Melville on June 15, 1908, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bradley. Leaving home after attending public school, he worked in the early hours of the morning years, after which he moved to New Brunswick in 1936 and became employed in the mines in Minto and Chipman, until the war. He enlisted in the Army early in 1941, serving in Canada, England and in the Western Front. Returning to Woodstock, N.B. He joined the Post Office staff where he remained until his death. He was a member of St. Gertrude's Church, Knights of Columbus local branch of Canadian Legion, and the Woodstock Golf Club. Being of a cheerful disposition he made acquaintances easily and leaves a host of friends both here and in Woodstock who were shocked at his sudden passing.

He leaves to mourn his wife, the former Irene Atherton of Woodstock, one sister (Mary) Mrs. John R. Cusack, Emyvale, and four brothers, Joe, Bolton, Mass., Wilfred, South Melville, and Maurice and Edwin, Kelly's Cross, two brothers, Cecil and George and a sister Kathleen predeceased him. His remains were transferred from the De Witt funeral home, Woodstock to the Charlottetown funeral home on Tuesday evening, and forwarded to the home of his brother Maurice, Kelly's Cross on Wednesday afternoon from where the funeral was held Thursday morning to St. Joseph's Church where requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. James Smith, P.P. who also officiated at the grave. Rev. Austin Bradley was present in the sanctuary. Interment was in the Church Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Ellison Toole, George Monaghan, Emmett Gorman, Ambrose Monaghan, Joseph Carragher and Louis McManus. May his Soul Rest in peace.
