THE barn of Major Birtwhistle, at Rustico was burned to the ground on Monday night. It contained the greater portion of the Major's crops, all his farming implements, wagons, etc. The fire is said to be the work of an incendiary.

A "National Policy" and the "Political Situation" are the chief topics for discussion about the Market place to-day. The great majority of our farmers are so disgusted with the crude and unfair policy of the present Government that they will not condescend to mention it.

FREDERICTON was visited by a heavy conflagration on Sunday morning. The fire was first discovered in a building in the rear of Owen Sharkey's brick block. Sharkey's block, along with five stores and several outbuildings, were burned to the ground.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, Owen Trainor drunk and incapable, was fined $2 and costs or 8 days; James Praught, drunk and disorderly, was fined $4 or 20 days; John Ring, for assaulting John Doyle in the store of Ewen McDougall, was fined $5 or 20 days imprisonment.

If the present fine weather continues, the excursion to St. Peter's Island in the Southport to-morrow will be attended by an immense number of people. The steamer will leave Ferry Wharf and return early in the evening. Those who wish to spend a most enjoyable time on the sea shore should not fail to attend.

I SAY THAT THE GOVERNMENT POLICY IS AN EXTRAORDINARY POLICY, AND I CONTEND THAT SOME STEP MUST BE TAKEN TO SAVE THE COUNTRY FROM THE EFFECTS OF SUCH TREATMENT.—Senator Howland's speech in the Senate, 1878.

THE meeting at Springton, last evening, was largely attended. Messrs. Pope and Brecken made telling speeches. They were cordially received and attentively heard. Messrs. Sinclair, McGill, McKenzie and Tanton also delivered short addresses. The meeting, it is reported, was pretty fairly divided.

THE Moonlight Excursion on the Heather Belle last evening, passed off very pleasantly. The weather was beautiful, and scarcely a ripple stirred on the water. The steamer proceeded up the West River, thence East, and thence out into the Bay. The excursionists spent a most enjoyable time in dancing, etc., until the return of the steamer at midnight.

MR. R. T. HOLMAN, of Summerside, has a keen eye to business. Following the example of illustrious predecessors in the art of money making, he never loses sight of the main chance. The money changers of old took advantage of the crowds assembled in the Temple, in order to sell their stock. The organ grinder is often found at places of public resort, where he discourses his music and gets a few stray cents in return. At tea parties and picnics we frequently see enterprising dealers in patent medicine and cheap jewelry, who resort to ply their vocation and dispose of their wares. In the same way Mr. Holman utilizes the enthusiasm of the electors, in order to vend his breadstuffs. With commendable foresight, he has so arranged matters that the Committee Rooms of the Grit Party are located in his commodious warehouse, where large quantities of cornmeal, salt and flour are stored ready for sale. The same mottoes—"cheap flour," "cheap salt," etc.—are adopted by the Reform canvassers and by this astute speculator. They indicate alike the distinguishing features of Grit policy, as claimed by its advocates, and the attractive qualities of Mr. Holman's merchandize. Like the useful article of furniture described by Goldsmith, which served as a bed by night and a chest-of-drawers by day, and thus contrived to pay a double debt, these flaming placards are ingeniously employed to bring votes to Mr. Holman's favorite candidates, and cash to Mr. Holman's till. You are doing well, Mr. Holman; go on and prosper.

Political Meeting at Dundas.

Pursuant to notice a large and influential meeting of the electors of this District was held at Dundas Cross, on Wednesday, the 4th inst.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of Donald Morrison, Esq., to the chair, and the undersigned as Secretary. Dr. McIntyre and M. McFadyen, Esq., spoke in the interests of "Free Trade," as defined by their leader.

Dr. E. B. Muttart and A. C. McDonald, Esq., upheld the "Reciprocal Free Trade" policy of their chief, Sir John A. McDonald.

The candidates addressed the meeting at considerable length, and obtained a fair and impartial hearing.

Mr. William Welsh also addressed the meeting in his usually enthusiastic manner, and was listened to with marked attention.

J. G. Sterns, Esq., Souris, also spoke, favoring the principles of Protection and a judicious re-adjustment of the tariff, after which it was moved by Mr. Wm. Hunter, and seconded by Mr. Donald Nicholson, that A. C. McDonald, Esq., and Dr. Muttart be the candidates for the representation of this District in the Dominion Commons.

Moved by Mr. Thomas Clay, and seconded by ———, that Dr. McIntyre and M. McFadyen, Esq., be the candidates for the representation of this District in the approaching Dominion Parliament.

The House being divided, about fifteen remained on the Grit side.

Some of the "Reform Party," not satisfied with this, called for a further division outside, when about four-fifths of the meeting went to the Liberal-Conservative side.

Three cheers were then given for the candidates, and three cheers for Sir John A. McDonald, after which the meeting dispersed.
