MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP) — Prices were narrowly lower for the third straight day on the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges Friday.

Trading, quiet in the morning, slowed down towards the close. Sources said this was at least partially due to some investors leaving town early for the holiday weekend.

Avro racked up its second straight good gain, amid speculation that the company would get aircraft orders from the United States. The stock was up ⅜ at 10¾. Thursday it opened at 9⅛.

Papers, with St. Lawrence Corp. up ½ at 17½, were the only gainers on the index. Other firm spots were the steels and pipelines.

Foods, constructions, beverages and base metals were mixed, and the other stock classifications were narrowly lower. Most changes were confined to fractions.

Most of the penny mines and oils were lower in moderate trading. However of the five most active mines and oils, three were slightly higher and two were unchanged. Losses were narrow.

The closing averages show banks off .2 at 66.13, utilities off .t at 158.5, industrials unchanged at 310.8, combined off .2 at 260, papers up 2.1 at 445.3 and golds off .34 at 87.92.
