Great Meet Expected

THIS coming Saturday, August 25, a Maritime track and field meet will be held at Charlottetown's Memorial Field.

This meet which is sanctioned by The Prince Edward Island branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada is conducted by the division of physical education in this province under director, Dave Boswell.

DAVE feels that this will probably be the greatest get-together of track and field athletes this province has seen in many a year. Already 101 performers have signified their intention of participating and several more are expected to file applications.

Age events will be held for boys 11 yrs. and under, 12 yrs., 13 yrs., and 14 yrs. These are all track events at 75, 75, 75 and 100 yds.

It will be a similar situation for the girls. The only difference will be that all dash events will be a 60 yd. distance.

Boys' juvenile events include 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, 880 yard run, one mile run, broad jump, hop, step and jump, high jump, shot put, pole vault, javelin, 880 yard relay and discus.

Boys' midget events are 100 and 220 yard dashes, 880 yard run, running broad jump, discus, shot put, hop, step and jump and 440 yard relay.

For girls of midget age there will be a 60 yard dash and a high jump. Women's open events are 100 and 220 yard dashes, running broad jump, running high jump, 440 yard relay and the discus.

The Greatest Show

OF COURSE, the greatest competition will be provided in the men's open events. These are 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, 880 yard run, one mile run, 3 mile run, running broad jump, running high jump, hop, step and jump, pole vault, discus, javelin, shot put, hammer throw and one mile relay.

Midgets and juveniles must compete in only their own class in track events. The sole exception to this rule is that a midget or juvenile may advance one class for a relay race, provided that he has not competed in a relay in his own class.

Midget, juveniles and age classes may compete in a class above their respective classes in field events wher no field event is scheduled in their own class.

Trophies will be presented to all winners of classes and silver and bronze medals will go to se ond and third place finishers. Trophies for the individual aggregate and for the club aggregate will be presented as well.

Big Name Stars

COMPETITORS are coming from all parts of the Maritimes.

Moncton is sending 15 athletes, Summerside 10, Antigonish 15, Halifax 8, Lancaster 4, Pictou 6, Bridgewater 5, Amherst 5, Saint John 2, Sussex 4, Weymouth 1, Middleton 10, Bridgetown 3, Charlottetown 10, Kensington 1, Fredericton 5, Truro 6, Robichaud 1 and Souris 2.

Included in the list of outstanding performers are Alfred Groom, Canada's outstanding pole vaulter from Summerside, Bob Simmons, Charlottetown's great discus and shot put performer, Mike Noble, Halifax, 440, 880 and one mile man, Kevin Smith from Antigonish along with teammate Brian Knight, James Corbett of Amherst and Howard Jackson from Bridgetown, N.S.

There are many other lesser known stars who could have their biggest moments this Saturday at beautiful Memorial Field.

THE interest in this meet is tremendous and the largest crowd in years is expected to watch the proceedings which will continue from 10 o'clock in the morning until evening.

Director Dave Boswell and his physical educators have done a terrific job in bringing this great branch of sport. They have worked hard and long but their work has surely been crowned with success.

Saturday certainly should be a most memorable day in Prince Edward Island track and field circles.

Make a point to be present and enjoy to the fullest this outstanding athletic show.

King's Team Set For Abbies Game

There's an invasion scheduled for Memorial Field tonight and leading the invaders will be a gentleman by the name of George Smith from Peakes.

Yes, the King's County Baseball League All Stars, under the watchful eye of manager George Smith, are moving in on the Victoria Park diamond tonight for an exhibition baseball game with Charlottetown Abbies.

This was to have been played a couple of weeks ago but rain forced its postponement until tonight. The weatherman promises his fullest co-operation for tonight, so things should start moving at 8 o'clock sharp.

A few years ago, the Abbies would have been strong favorites to whip the lads from Kings. But tonight the shoe is on the other foot. Those who follow their baseball closely are picking the invaders from the East to upset the capital city boys.

These visitors have plenty of pitching depth, a lot of power hitting and they field the ball pretty fair. They are confident on the eve of this skirmish and they will play their mightiest to pull out a victory.

Abbies, on the other hand, are fielding a strong club. Things look rosier in Charlottetown baseball circles than they have for quite a few years. The brain trust of the Red and Black feel their boys will emerge as conquerors in this battle.

Before this action (it's all under the lights) gets going, two Little League teams from Charlottetown will play a five inning exhibition till. These youngsters give a right smart account of themselves and parents and friends should pack the stands to watch these 'little men' perform. They will be mighty disappointed if you fail to show up.

Don't dare disappoint them. This action goes at 7 o'clock.

Tie Silk May Have Things Easier Saturday

WESTBURY, N.Y. (CP)—Tie Silk, the brown horse from Canada which won the $50,000 Roosevel. International tot last Saturday, may have things easier than anticipated in the Challenge Cup Trot at Roosevelt Raceway here Saturday.

Trainer - driver Earl Avery said Tuesday an ankle injury may keep Porterhouse from starting in the $25,000 race.

The four-year-old winner of the American Trotting Championship was hurt during a crowding incident in the Inaugural national. Owned by Norman S. Woolworth of Winthrop, Me., the horse finished third behind Tie Silk and Su Mac Lad in the International symbolic of the world trotting championship.

A decision on Porterhouse is expected to be made today after a workout. Su Mac Lad, Duke Rodney and Silversong will be the U.S. entries in the Challenge Cup. Others will be Germany's Eidelstedter, Italy's Newstar and Ordea of New Zealand.

HAS FIVE WINS

Keith Waples of Victoria Harbor, Ont., the 39-year-old reinsman known as "the silent man" of Canadian harness racing, became Tie Silk's driver this year. So far the horse has had five victories, two seconds and a third in 11 races this year.

Tie Silk brought $25,000 to owners Adrien and Gerard Miron of St. Augustin, Que., in last Saturday's run. The win brought the horse's lifetime earnings to $277,495.

Bred in the United States, Tie Silk was sired by Rodney out of Pure Silk, daughter of the famous Volomite. The Miron brothers bought him as a juvenile.

The Challenge Cup could end up as a rerun of the International, with Tie Silk, Su Mac Lad, Porterhouse and Eidelstedter heading the field.

PILOT KILLED

SUDBURY, Ont. (CP)—Phil Turcotte, 34, father of five from nearby Azilda, died Monday when his light plane crashed into the bush 300 yards inland from Ministic Lake, 70 miles northwest of here.

Harness Racing Going At S'side

Summerside Raceway presents another active harness racing program tonight under the lights.

Nine dashes are lined up for the customers and all of them should provide plenty of excitement for the onlookers.

Dashes five and nine look like the 'cream of the crop' and things should hum when these seven good pacers start to battle it out. Cyril Smith has the rail with Sky Prince but he will need every advantage to outfoot the other half dozen.

They are Orchestra Leader, Gay Laird, Echo Ridge Eddy, Cathy Girl, Boomtown and Norne Clegg. These two dashes shape up like battle royals and the mutuel betters are in for a few difficulties trying to fathom out the winners.

Dashes three and seven also have the earmarks of two sizzling contests. In dash three, George Caldbeck takes his Norah Annway away on the rail. George will be driving at full speed in an effort to have the rail again in the second trip. He may be able to succeed but seven other horses all must be figured as possible winners. They are Adrian Boy, Windale Prince, Senator Don C, Gay Texas, Future Chief, Mighty May and Miss Ellis.

The entire program looks like one of the Raceway's most attractive this season.

First dash goes promptly at 8 o'clock.

Redlegs Shut Out Chicago Cubs 2-0

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Marty Keough's two-run inside - the - park homer in the eighth inning and Bill Henry's four-hit pitching of Jim Maloney gave Cincinnati Reds a 2-0 victory over Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

The triumph was a vital one for the defending champions who picked up valuable ground on their top rivals in the league - leading Los Angeles Dodgers and second-place San Francisco Giants — both of whom were idle Tuesday.

Cincinnati pulled within five games of Los Angeles and one and one-half of the Giants.

Maloney and Don Cardwell, who had a string of 17 scoreless innings going into the eighth, were locked in a pitching duel until Keough's telling blow. Leo Cardenas opened the eighth with a single—his third hit of the game.

Keough failed in an attempt to bunt the first pitch and then took a called strike before sending a sinking liner to right field. George Altman attempted to make a shoestring catch but the ball rolled all the way to the right field wall with both runners scoring.

NEAR PERFECT MARK

Cub rookie second baseman Ken Hubbs handled six chances to run his string to 64 successive games without an error. Hubbs, who set the National League mark and second baseman last week, is now within range of the major league record of 73 errorless games by Bobby Doerr of Boston Red Sox in 1948.

At New York, the Mets were tagged with their 13th consecutive setback and luckless Roger Craig lost his 20th game as Pittsburgh Pirates rallied for four ninth - inning runs and an 8-6 victory in the first game of a doubleheader.

A throwing error by third baseman Felix Mantilla on pinch - hitter Jim Marshall's slow grounder enabled three Pittsburgh runs to cross the plate in the big inning. The fourth run scored on pitcher Diomedes Olivo's single to centre.

ElRoy face, the Pirates' star, reliever, turned back New York's Ninth inning threat after the first two Mets' batters reached base.

Frank Thomas walloped his 29th homer for New York.

All-Star Tilt Features Play

One of the best Minor League games was played yesterday as the Midget All-Stars edged Bantam All-Stars 1-0 on Joe Gallant's line single in the bottom of the seventh.

Gallant fired a two-hitter for the win while Allan Doucette pitched brilliant ball in defeat.

Billy Weatherbie and Brian MacCallum were the only players to get two hits.

Here is the playoff schedule for today.

Indians and Dodgers notched victories in Little League playoff action. The Indians drubbed the Braves 10-5 with Kevin McCormack going the distance for the victory. Glen Clayburne belted two homers for the winners with Stewart, Smallwood and MacInnis also starring at the plate.

In the other contest Dodgers edged the Pirates 7-6. John White picked up the win while John Creighan took the loss. Maloue, Duffy, MacQuaid and O'Hanley each had two hits in this contest.

In Minor League activity the Tigers and Giants each picked up their second wins along the playoff trail. The Tigers topped the Red Sox 13-10 in an extra inning contest.

John Lawless picked up the win while Arthur McQuaid and Colin Bunker were the only players to get two hits.

Giants downed the White Sox 17-7. For the winners it was Mike Connolly on the mound with MacKenzie handling the pitching chores for the White Sox.

Batting stars were Andy MacKenna and Carl Trainor. Each had three hits.

Here is the playoff schedule for today (Wednesday):

9:00 a.m. — Dodgers vs. Pirates (Little League); Tigers vs. Red Sox (Minor League).

1:00 p.m. — Yanks vs. Angels (Bantam); Senators vs. Cubs (first game of playoffs).

7:00 p.m. — Dodgers vs. Indians

$30,000 AS PLAYER

Harvey Considers Fabulous N.Y. Bid

MONTREAL (CP) — Doug Harvey confirmed Tuesday he has been offered $30,000 to return to New York Rangers as a player this year "on almost my own terms."

He said he just might take it.

"It's a fabulous offer, a hell of an offer," he said in an interview. "I'm going fishing tomorrow so I can think about it."

The veteran defenceman resigned in June after one season as player-coach of the National Hockey League team.

Harvey said he wants to spend some time at his country home in Magog, Que., after the fishing trip "to do some running and get in shape."

"After that, if I feel okay, and they (Rangers) still feel the same way I'll probably take a shot at it."

He said Rangers have given him an almost carte-blanche offer to join the team only as a player and "fly home between games."

Harvey went fishing after getting the offer last weekend.

"I make all my important decisions when I'm alone fishing," he said. "That's how I decided to go with the Rangers last year."

But the weather turned sour and he was unable to fish.

A spokesman for Rangers in New York said "we're giving him all the time he needs."

Harvey, 36, played 14 seasons with Montreal Canadiens before joining Rangers in the fall of 1961.

Rangers general manager Muzz Patrick told a reporter meanwhile that no definite decision has been made yet on who will coach Rangers next season. He said Bert Olmstead and Emile (The Cat) Francis are being considered for the job, along with others.

Olmstead, 35 - year - old left winger, was acquired from Toronto Maple Leafs in June. Francis, a veteran goalie, coached the Rangers' Guelph Royals farm team last year and joined the New York club in July.

"We think we will have the thing settled by the time we report to training camp," Patrick said. The Rangers go into training at Vancouver Sept. 12.

Island Open Is Attracting Classy Array Of Golfers

More than 200 golfers will be out to give par a battle on the Charlottetown Golf Club this weekend in the ninth annual P.E.I. Open, one of the most popular tournaments in the Maritimes.

Eleven professionals from Maritime clubs are included in the big field of starters, including names like Kelly, Dowling, Munroe, and Walker, and the amateur list contains the names of some of the better known shotmakers in the seaside provinces.

Starting Saturday morning, the field plays 18 holes Saturday and another 18 on Sunday to declare champions in the professional, open, and four amateur divisions. The old plan, which had the pros and top amateurs going another 18 holes Sunday afternoon has been scrapped.

The pro section has $500 in prize money for grabs, with the top four getting a slice on a $250-$150-$75-$25 basis. For the leaders in the four amateur brackets, there are prizes to the value of approximately $1,000.

Cecil (Bubby) Dowling, the host pro, won the open and the pro section last year, and Cec will be a strong favorite again this year. He is always a top figure in any Maritime tournament, and last month he turned in a creditable performance at the Canadian Open in Montreal, where he survived the cutoff for three rounds - something many other Canadian professionals were able to accomplish.

ART IN 1960

The 1960 winner of the Open was Art MacKenzie of the local Belvedere Club - the only amateur to cop the title since the tourney was established back in 1954. He turned the trick with a one-under-par 215 total for the 54 holes. Art will be one of the men to beat again this year, but he will have plenty of opposition from fellow club members like Bill Beer, Harry Simmonds, Bob Dowling, Merlin MacKenzie, and Don Macdonald.

Headlining the large delegation of visiting amateurs will be fellow Lake Jack Beaton, Moncie Dowling, Doug Lewis, Joe Mahar, and Earl Smith. Beaton, the sometimes Connecticut resident recently set a new course record at his home Candlewood Valley Country Club with a four-under-par 64 and he won the club championship on this same round.

Joe Mahar, now playing out of Montreal, is showing the form that made him one of the leading figures in the game here in the 1940s, and Lewis and Dowling, two of the many enries from the Moncton Club, are strong contenders.

The list of professionals in the field, at the las: report, looked like this: George Andrew, Summerside; Cecil Dowling, Belvedere; Jim Maxwell, Chester, N. S.; Jim Walker, Moncton; John Munroe, Amherst; Ian Jackson, Shelburne, N.S.; George Arnold, Charlottetown; Jimmy Keefe, Moncton; Pete Kelly, Bathurst; Errol Nicholson, Green Gables; and Claude Hunt, Moncton Lakeside.

DEFENDING CHAMP

The defendiag champion, Cec Dowling, will have plenty of opposition in this field. Jack Munroe, winner of the Maritime Open for pros last year, is always a tough competitor and has given the little Belvedere pro some memorable battles in recent years, and veterans like Pete Kelly and Jimmy Walker are always tough to beat.

Then there is young Errol Nicholson, who blazed his way into the limelight a couple of years ago by winning the rich Saint John Exhibition Open: he rates a threat in any Maritime tournament.

The lush, rolling Belvedere layout, one of the finest courses in Eastern Canada, has been groomed by John MacDonald and his staff to the last blade of grass for the open — the No. 1 attraction at the club this season, and a large gallery of spectators is expected to view the key matches Sunday afternoon. There is no admission charge, and the public is welcome.

Park, Pistons To Try Again This Evening

National Park All-Stars and Canadian Tire Pistons will try again this evening to play the first game of their best of five final series for the City Softball League title after being rained out for two nights in a row.

Game time is 6:30 sharp on the Old Diamond.

Junior Tourney Is Completed
